A young man called on a doctor, complaining of pains in his stomach. The doctor diagnosed the case as dyspepsia, and advised the patient to go home and try a dill pickle. If he could keep that on his stomach he was to report to the doctor in the morning. The next day the patient returned and when the doctor asked him if he could keep the pickle on his stomach, he replied, "I could as long as I stayed awake, but when I fell asleep it roiled off."

"The impudence of some people!" snapped Mrs. Parvenue. "She told somebody I did my own washing!" "Well," replied Mrs. Manor innocently, "whose washing do you do?"

Willis—They say Dobber has sold his painting, "The Retreat from Bull Run," that he has been trying to sell for years. How did he manage it? Gillis—Easily. Simply changed the title to "Automobilists Returning Home."

Jane—Would you marry a man who was your inferior? Mary—If I marry at all.
