

LOCAL NEWS

—Joe Oestrich of Welliver was in town Saturday.

—Mrs. E. G. Brown is visiting at her home this week.

—William Jarvis of Glentana was in Plentywood visitor this week.

—Dr. Ehlers, Federal Veterinarian, of Scobey, was in town Sunday.

—Miss Clara Ogden, the Raymond school teacher, was in town Monday.

—J. E. Porter from the Raymond neighborhood was in town Monday.

—Mrs. Peter Marron was in from the ranch the first part of the week.

—J. D. Fish of Sybouts, Sask., was a Plentywood visitor this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ted Curtin, from north of Raymond, were in town on Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Bull of Redstone were county seat visitors on Monday.

—Miss Margaret O'Grady, who is teaching near Redstone, was in town Saturday.

—Wm. Randolph of Midby was in Plentywood Saturday on business matters.

—Mrs. Lewis Moe left last Saturday for a visit with relatives in Minnesota.

—Merchant Grayson of Antelope was a business visitor at the county seat on Monday.

—A. C. Erickson is spending the week at Bainville, looking after business matters.

—Ed and Albert Dahl, from east of Antelope, were in Plentywood this week on business.

—Peter Groskurth, the Dagmar stable, was in the county seat on official business Tuesday.

—Frank L. Houston, principal of the school, was at the dance at Home-based last Saturday night.

—Fred Foreman is decorating his office in the Davis addition with a fresh coat of white paint.

—C. H. Bentley of Westby was in county seat on professional business Wednesday of this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. David E. McPatrick and daughter Padrice attended Decoration Day in Froid.

—Atty. S. E. Paul of Redstone was in Plentywood Monday afternoon attending to business matters.

—Richard Mann, one of the pioneer farmers of the Welliver district was a Plentywood visitor this week.

—Miss Louisa Dahl and Miss Christina Christiansen, of this city, were in Redstone Monday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Grant Stoner of town look were business visitors to the county capital the first of the week.

—Wm. J. Dobbin, agent for the Montana Life Insurance company, of Scobey, has been in town this week.

—Charles Christiansen and Bert Johnson spent Saturday night and a holiday at the Swastika ranch near Parshley.

—Miss Louisa Dahl entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party at the City cafe last Friday evening.

—Mrs. Chas. Dahlin leaves this week for a visit with her husband who is in the United States Army at Worthy, Texas.

—Miss Irene Murphy, County Superintendent of Schools, has been visiting the rural schools of the district for the past week.

FOR SALE—3 fall pigs at $10—also about 30 bushels cleaned at $4.00 per bushel. D. J. Olson, miles east of Plentywood. 2-2t

—Miss Agnes Duffy, one of the Plentywood teachers, has accepted a position at the Kollman Company for the summer months.

—George Vradenburg of the county assessor's office has returned to his home being on the road as a deputy for several weeks.

—Theodore Gunderson, one of the best big farmers residing southwest of Plentywood, was in town Tuesday saying gopher poison to rid his fields of these pests.

—George Thompson, who is farming a large tract of land just north of the Reservation, southwest of Plentywood, was in town Wednesday on business matters.

—Miss Pearl Stageberg, Miss Effie and Miss Laura Buell will give a Red Cross picnic near future at the Andrew homestead near McElroy.

—V. E. Wickstrand of Archer was a Plentywood visitor last Monday.

—Mrs. E. H. Helekson of Madoc is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Helland of this city this week.

—The business houses of Plentywood closed for the entire day on May 30th, on account of Decoration Day.

—Mrs. William Ator was in town Monday. Mrs. Ator is very much interested in the Red Cross work, having already knitted twenty pairs of socks for the boys at the front.

—C. W. Westphal and A. Westphal, from near Outlook, were in Plentywood Monday. They report that they have almost completed their seeding on one thousand acres of crop.

Eugene Lampson of Weyburn, Saskatchewan, who has been visiting with his niece, Mrs. Geo. L. Prochnow, of this city, returned home last week.

—John O'Grady, of near Raymond, who was injured by falling from his disc several days ago was in town Saturday and is improving very rapidly.

—For Sale—Five casings and inner tubes; casings, 36x4 and 36x4½, one casing practically new. Write or phone Westphal Bros., Outlook, Montana—price $75. 7tf.

—FOR SALE—Twenty red polled bulls from one to two years old Price $100.00 to $150.00 including pedigree. Fort Comfort ranch, 20 miles north of Raymond, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Adams, accompanied by Mrs. W. R. Mack and Mrs. Caroline Christiansen, autoed in from north of Raymond and attended the show at the Orpheum last Friday night.

—Wm. Hass, Robert Kahle, Arthur Reuber, Clair Stoner and Mr. Erickson of Outlook, motored to Plentywood last Sunday and spent the afternoon attending to matters of business and pleasure.

—Chas. N. Bain, the founder of the town of Bainville, was a Plentywood visitor last Saturday. Mr. Bain is one of the pioneers of this county and is now proprietor of the New National hotel at Bainville.

—Arthur Reuber, cashier of the State Bank of Outlook, and G. A. Bratland, the Outlook real estate man, were county seat visitors on Thursday.

—Joe Oestrich of Welliver was in the city today displaying a handful of wheat about six inches long, removed from his farm. The wheat has a splendid root and has about four stools to the root.

—Peter Nordby of Raymond was in the county seat on business the first of the week, and paid this office a pleasant visit, taking advantage of the opportunity to add his name to the rapidly growing subscription list of the Producers News.

—Mr. I. C. Smith of Flaxville, one of the stockholders in the Peoples Publishing Company and reader of the Producers News, was a county seat visitor today, and took advantage of the opportunity to look over the plant in which he is interested.

—J. O. Brensda, who resides fifteen miles east of the county seat and gets his mail at Antelope, was in Plentywood on business today and took advantage of the opportunity to call at this office and subscribe for The Producers News.

—Froid Tribune: A bouncing baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Loucks last Sunday and needless to say the parents are justly proud of the little chap, who, by the way is the first son in the family. The new arrival has been named John Thomas, Jr.

—Editor Burley Bowler of the Antelope Independent was transacting business at the court house on Thursday. I. E. Worley could not be located.—Plentywood Herald.—Mr. Worley was at the recruiting office, a place that "Burley Bowler" is very shy of.

—Everything is in readiness for the big Red Cross Auction Sale to be held at Antelope on Saturday. Over one hundred and twenty donations have been made so far, the articles listed for sale, ranging from registered stock down to clothespins. The Plentywood Home Guard band will furnish the music during the day. In the evening a "home talent" play will be presented, and after the play a dance will be held. The music for the dance will be furnished by Forncrook's Jazz orchestra. This occasion promises to far eclipse anything of a like nature ever attempted by Antelope.

—H. H. Waldron, the Froid Nurseryman, was in Plentywood last Saturday on business. Mr. Waldron has been canvassing for his nursery business in the vicinity of Antelope for several days and reports the crops as very promising in that district and the nursery business very good as a result.

—Scooby Citizen: Mrs. J. F. Haun spent Wednesday at Plentywood, where she attended the "home talent" play for the benefit of the Red Cross, under the supervision of Mrs. Ed Gray of Harlem. Mrs. Gray is expected to arrive in Scobey Saturday to arrange for and instruct a "home talent" play to be presented in June.

—A traveling sign painter has been doing some artistic work on the windows of the Plentywood business houses lately and the following business houses have blossomed forth with new window signs: LeLand hotel, Elgin cafe, LePage Beauty parlor, Donaldson garage, Bolster hardware and the First National bank and the Pioneer Press.

—Howard Weller, who left here several weeks ago to enlist in the United States navy, writes to his friends here that he was unable to pass the physical examination required for that service and that he is now with his parents at Mankato, Minnesota, but will try to enlist in some other division of the service, if possible, within a short time.

—Many persons have complained during the past week relative to horses running at large throughout the town, which have done considerable damage to gardens. The owners of these animals are subject to heavy penalties and will be prosecuted by the irate gardeners unless they keep the horses penned up. The war gardens of this town are worth protecting and should be protected.

—John A. Davis, formerly of this city but who is now residing at Scobey, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Davis, in spite of his eighty years of youth, is actively engaged in farming on a large scale near Scobey. He takes an active interest in all war news, inasmuch as he served this country during the Civil War, and now has two sons with the colors.

—John Anderson, one of the leading farmers of Froid, accompanied by his brother, stopped in Plentywood for a short time Monday while en route to visit their mother in Saskatchewan. They were traveling in Mr. Anderson's Maxwell. While here the brother consulted with Postmaster Oakes relative to enlisting in the United States navy. John Lee of this place accompanied them north on their trip to Canada.

—Atty. Leonard A. Brown, formerly of Froid, who joined the Aviation service last December, is now stationed at Fairfield, Ohio, with the 260th Aero Squadron. He writes to local friends that his wife is now visiting with him and that he expects to be called for foreign service in the near future. C. H. Dickman, formerly principal of the Froid schools, who enlisted at the same time as Mr. Brown, is now stationed at Omaha, Nebraska, in the 30th Balloon company.

Outlook Items

Joe Collinson found the house filled for a stag party in honor of his having attained another birthday. It was to be a surprise but Joe is quite a wise boy and he seemed to have read the signs quite well and therefore had a box of good cigars under his arm.

Mr. Teske, our principal, is leaving for Wisconsin for the summer where he will be employed by a book concern. The high school finishes this week. Last week the grades closed. School starts at the usual time this fall.

Most of our teachers have gone for their vacations and we trust that they can make the most of them, as a term of school is very exacting on the strength, and the summer time and pure ozone is the best of tonics.

Mr. Prescott, the genial Nelson clerk, has been away locating a homestead. We understand he was successful. It is probably near the Cavanaugh settlement.

Mrs. C. J. Cure is expected back this week from the hospital, where she and the baby have been for some time. The baby underwent an operation.

H. C. Nelson, the implement man, is moving his stock and office to his new place of business in the Owl building which he recently bought.

Reuben Seaborg and wife left on this week's train for Red Wing, where they will while away time amongst relatives until July.

Bratland & Ueland are having an addition added to their office.

Chas. Nau is passing the cigars. A baby girl.

Wm. Gardner has gone on an extended trip to Iowa and he may see the oil districts before he comes back.

C. C. Karels plans an extended trip for the summer, as we understand, by the auto route.

PLENTYWOOD AUCTION

SALE FOR RED CROSS

HAS GOT A BIG START

Following is a list of the articles contributed to date for the Red Cross Auction sale to be held at Plentywood on the afternoon of June 15th:

- Fred Lundberg, 14-month heifer.
- C. F. McNulty, 1 pig.
- George Rowley, 1 shoat, 75 lbs.
- Fred Ibsen and Nels Hanson, 1 3/4 Triumph wagon, complete, 26-in. box, brake, seat double trees and neckyoke.
- John Flaxa, 1 10-months old calf.
- L. C. Christianson, turkey gobbler.
- O. E. Whitmarsh, 100 El Toro cigars.
- Pete Marron, 1 sheep.
- J. J. Manney, 1 pig.
- Forrest Goodman, 1 colt.
- Theodore Gunderson, 1 full-blood Buff Orpington rooster.
- Judd Matkin, full-blood registered Poland China boar.
- Tom Kelley, 6 full-blood Rhode Island hens.
- Lew Hein, $10 coupon book.
- L. G. Zeidler, 1 4-burner Quick Meal gas stove.
- T. W. Greer, 1 black mule (6 years old).
- A. T. Vollum, 1 kerosene heater.
- J. M. Harris, 100 Crispettes.
- J. A. Johnson, half dozen hats.
- Mamie Bewick, 1 Beaver muff.
- Hudson & Crawford—
- P. J. Stewart, 1 box 50 cigars.
- Mrs. Forrest Goodman, pair thoroughbred white P. R. chicks.
- Jap Huntley, Daleview, thoroughbred Poland China pig.
- Jos. F. Dolin, registered Chesapeake female pup.
- Jos. F. Dolin, 500 letter heads, 500 envelopes, bond paper, printed to copy; package of 50 Ladies' visiting cards.
- C. S. Nelson, 1 corner lot.
- Forman & Kaiser, 100 bars laundry soap, 5 lbs. Home brand coffee.
- A. G. Amundsen, 1 mantle clock.
- Louis Moe, men's toilet set.
- Plentywood Bakery, cake.
- Fishbeck & Jarvis, 1 electric stand lamp.
- City Cafe, 9 dining room chairs.
- G. E. Carney, $1—cash.
- Bert Houston, razor.
- Kollman Company, 1 sweater.
- Plentywood T. & B. Co., 1 case tomatoes, 1 case corn, 1 pair men's $5.50 work shoes.
- J. F. Redmond, 49-lb. sack flour and substitutes.
- Jno. A. Roonay, $1—cash.
- Gilbert Olson, 1 Rhode Island Red rooster, 2 Rhode Island Red hens.
- Fred Westerberg, half dozen hens.
- Riba Lumber Co., 5 gals. paint.
- L. E. Rue, 1 dozen Minorca chicks.
- Jack Murray, 1 day's painting.
- Libby Yards Co., 1 dozen window screens.
- Mrs. Kitzenberg, hat.
- M. M. Johnson, baby carriage.
- Gray-Lindemann Oil Co., 15-gal. barrel motor oil.
- First National bank, 2 1/2 bushels millet seed.

COOL DRINKS FOR Hot Days

Walk in and Sit Down
We will treat you right

THE VALLEY

Kelly & Goodman, Proprietors

Robt. R. Kahle

OUTLOOK

Sells the Champion Cream Saver

You are HUMAN

Therefore

You have to buy more or less hardware at times.
When you buy it you want it guaranteed.
You want your purchase to be an economical one.
You want to know the best place to buy.
You want to buy at that place.

Come Here

You will get just what you are looking for six days in the week. Sunday belongs to us.

"SATISFACTION," our Motto

Plentywood Auto & Machine Shop

Let us do your work: All our work is Guaranteed

Come in and see the Kolsomo tire Guaranteed for 5,000 miles, WE ADJUST OUR OWN TIRES

Heavy Machine Work and Tractor Repairing, Blacksmithing and Oxi-welding, Expert Auto Repairing.

Send Your Broken Castings To The Homestead Acetylene Welding Company

If castings should break in the WELD OR NOT FIT MONEY REFUNDED

A GUARANTEE That Means SOMETHING

Seldom we need to charge more than half the price of a new casting. Expert on crank cases, large gears, cylinder heads, pulleys, etc.

O. W. ROOT, Prop., Homestead, Mont.