

ONLY ONE PACKAGE TO BE MAILED TO EACH SOLDIER

Christmas packages for the two and a half million or more American soldiers, who will be in France during the holiday season this year, will be delivered under an arrangement with the Red Cross, announced recently by the war department. The war department has decided that only one parcel will be accepted for each man. General Pershing is forwarding coupons bearing the name and address of each member of the expeditionary force, to be distributed to the next of kin. These coupons must be attached to standard containers, nine by four by three inches in size, which will be provided by local Red Cross chapters upon application. All packages must be mailed before November 15, next.

Auction Sale

The success of an Auction Sale all depends upon the number of prospective buyers present, the property for sale, and the auctioneer. To secure the prospective buyers, it is necessary that you let the buyers know when, where, and what you have for sale, and that means that you must advertise. You may or may not know something about advertising, but that doesn't make any difference if you will write out the place, date, time, auctioneer and clerk, a description of the property you have for sale, and your name, and either send or bring it to

WESTBY

Westby has about twenty cases of influenza, so far no dangerous cases have developed. Having no doctor or health officer it is difficult to learn just how many cases there are in town and country. The schools are closed and the Lyceum numbers are cancelled for the present at least.

R. Anderson reports that his wheat averaged over 13 bushels per acre. About 900 bushels of oats places him on easy street as he figures he has enough feed to carry his stock for two years.

Christ Dalgaard, southwest of town, threshed 35 bushels of wheat per acre.

Mrs. Finley and children and Mrs. Johnson and children are on the sick list.

While the children were playing "trench" in the sand near the Catholic church, the sand caved in completely burying little Leonard Dow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dow. Fortunately the screams of the children attracted the attention of Mrs. Frank Golka, who rushed to the rescue. No trace of the child was seen but she started in digging and soon got hold of his clothing and pulled him out. He was blue from suffocation, but quickly revived in the fresh air.

FROID

The grain elevators here are full to overflowing with grain and are obliged to quit buying on account of lack of storage room and being unable to get cars in which to ship to market. The matter is having a telling effect on the market.

The funeral of Mrs. Alma Berthina Instness, wife of Robert Instness, who passed away at her home last Tuesday night, was held from the family home five miles southeast of here last Friday at one o'clock, the Rev. Hagenson officiating, and the remains laid to rest in the Froid cemetery.

H. F. Carlson left Wednesday morning for Elkhorn, Ia., to attend the funeral of his father who passed away the first of last week.

Among those in the nearby community who have recently been stricken with the "flu" are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Scott, the John Scott family, Ed. Cheney and daughter and scores of others throughout the country.

A. N. Sundvold has purchased the Louis Olson half section near the Anderson coal mine, 115 acres of his new holdings are under cultivation and seeded to rye, the balance Mr. Sundvold will use for winter pasture.

REJECTED MEN CALLED FOR RE-EXAMINATION

Over one hundred men who were rejected from service by the local board or at the camps to which they were sent since the draft law went into effect, have been called for re-examination for special service.

The men are appearing in Plentywood daily for re-examination and although the local board has no definite information as to just when these men will entrain, it is presumed that they will remain here until the epidemic of Spanish flu has been checked.

While these men have been rejected previously for some default unnecessary to mention and could not serve in the department they were originally called for, they will be sent to training camps for special service convenient for them. They will receive medical and surgical attention so that any minor defects which might have kept them from service will be eliminated.

It is needless to say that most of the boys are glad of an opportunity to serve their country in some capacity and the call for re-examination is enthusiastically received.

JUDGE HURLY APPOINTED NEW COURT REPORTER

Judge John Hurly has appointed Dudley Crowthers, of Great Falls, as court stenographer of the Seventeenth Judicial District, to take the place of C. F. Kinney, Mr. Kinney having been called in a recent draft now being stationed at Camp Lewis, American Lake, Wash. The new stenographer has assumed his duties already.

ANOTHER SOLDIER DIES AT CAMP FROM EPIDEMIC

Peter Vold, age 25 years, who left Plentywood on July 26 last for Camp Morrison, Va., died in camp on Tuesday morning of this week as a result of Spanish influenza which developed into pneumonia. The remains are being shipped here for interment.

Who For CONGRESS?

The Republican Nominee Carl W. Riddick Of Fergus County Makes a Plain Statement

Fellow Citizens of Montana:

I am a Republican because I believe Republican policies bring the largest opportunities to farmers and laborers and when the farmer and laborer prosper everybody else prospers.

I am a farmer because I prefer to be a producer than to live off the labor of others.

Above all I am an American and patriotic to the core.

I have two boys volunteer airplane fighters in France. My wife and daughter are faithful Red Cross workers. I am wholeheartedly supporting every Montana war effort. If elected to congress I will there give the same earnest support to win the war that I am giving in private life.

I appreciate the very generous vote given me for the primaries and earnestly thank all my kind friends. I solicit your continued support for election.

I am allied with no corporation and under obligations to no special interests of any kind.

If elected I will at all times earnestly strive to fairly and faithfully represent and serve the people of Montana.

Big business is on hand at every election, favoring those who will serve its purposes and is well represented at Washington. Big business is not for me.

I desire to go to congress to serve the common people.

I will vote and fight for the square deal for the little fellows, which they are entitled to and which they are not getting.

I confess to a special desire to serve the farmers and the laboring men of Montana; first, because they have many things due them, and second, because when they prosper Montana will be a better place for everybody.

I am strong and outspoken for national prohibition, and for woman's suffrage, and for heavy war profit taxes, and for adequate federal loans at low interest rates for farmers and homebuilders.

I will favor every measure that will benefit farmers and laborers, that will give actual producers a larger share of the profits of their labor.

If elected, I shall fight profiteering and graft and the giving of special privileges to special interests; I shall fight gambling in food supplies and unfairness in price fixing.

If elected, I shall court suggestions from every citizen as to how I may better serve his needs and the needs of his neighbors.

If you favor that kind of a representative in congress, I will appreciate your vote regardless of your party politics.

If I am not your kind, vote for the other fellow. It is your vote and you should cast it in the way your interests lie.

Very truly yours, CARL W. RIDDICK.

SOME INTERESTING FIGURES

At the last election Fergus county on the head of the ticket went 2,459 Democratic. Carl Riddick running for re-election for county assessor for his record was elected by a plurality of 2,695, a vote of more than 5,000 over the head of his ticket.

At the same election Harry Mitchell was also a candidate. In his county, Cascade, there were cast 6,612 Democratic votes, but Harry Mitchell received by 5,802 votes, running 810 votes behind his ticket.

Two years ago there were four candidates for election to congress. The Great Falls newspaper man, who ran so poorly in his own county, ran 7,499 votes behind his running mate, was beaten by one candidate on the Republican ticket and came within less than 500 votes of being beaten by both Republican candidates in the counties of this district, even though it was a Democratic landslide year. ALMOST A BAD BLUNDER.

The apartment house owner called up the apartment house dweller and asked him to come and see him. And the apartment house dweller obeyed the summons with fear and trembling. When he arrived in the office, the owner said:

"I am sorry, sir, but we shall have to ask you to vacate your apartment at once. I was not aware when I leased the flat to you that you had children."

"But we have no children," protested the renter, in amazement. "What put that into your head?"

"Other residents of the building have complained that they were kept awake by a baby crying in your apartment."

"Nonsense! That was one of our dogs howling. He sounds just like a kid sometimes."

"In that case, I must apologize. A natural mistake—and you know one can't be too careful. Sorry to have disturbed you—good morning."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A SMALL OFFER

"A penny for your thoughts." "Of course! Just like a woman, always looking for bargains!"

If every day were pay day, How fine a man I'd be, With every day a gay day, How glad my wife would be!

Mean Comment. "What do you think Mr. Blunt said to Miss Oldgirl when she remarked she would prefer to be a spring bride?" "What did he say?" "That he advised her to select April 1 for any date of the kind, for it would be such a good joke on the man."

Forgotten. "I thought you said he was strictly honest?" "So he is." "But I loaned him $10 a month ago and he hasn't returned it."

Concentration. "What you Americans want to do is to wake up." "We're awake all right," said Broncho Bob; "leastwise we're awake here in Crimson Gulch, though we admit not being very noisy. You know sometimes the man that ain't sayin' a word is playin' poker the hardest."

Too Expensive. "You've heard of linen showers, tin-ware showers and other affairs of that nature?" "Of course." "Tell me, did you ever hear of anybody being the happy recipient of a coal shower?"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

HAD HIS NUMBER

"Why, I had hardly met him, don't you know, when he called me a fool. What sort of a fellow is he?" "Oh! he's a wise guy, all right."

Call the Nut Wagon. This thing of writing jokes each day Has turned to mush our matter gray; Oh, we feel foolish as can be, A-b-c-d-e-f-g!

Grounds for Skepticism. "I have no patience with the person who says he never believes anything he reads in a newspaper." "Neither have I, as a rule, but I'm disposed to make allowances for him if he's trying to keep up with the situation in Russia."

The Connoisseur. "Hm"—hmed the man who wore his socks outside his shoes, as he threw his ray of light over the contents of the cabinet. "Rather a choice array. An enthusiastic collector of antique silver, I take it." And he did.—Judge.
