

LOCAL NEWS

Bery Stephens of Outlook was a business caller here Tuesday. Paul Crum of Scobey was here on business Wednesday of this week. E. E. Belanski was a business caller at Scobey Wednesday of this week. Joe Hocking of Glasgow was a business visitor here Tuesday and Wednesday. Ship your cream to FORMAN & KAISER, Plentywood; honest tests—highest prices. 9-3t B. L. McElroy, well known farmer of the McElroy precinct, was in Plentywood on business Tuesday. Peter Holse, farmer of the Westby country, was a business visitor here Wednesday. A. Th. Larson, one of the big farmers of the Dagmar precinct, was a county seat visitor Wednesday. Dr. McDaniels of Medicine Lake visited with friends in this city last Sunday. Wm. Harris, the Comertown Constable, was in Plentywood on official business Wednesday. Ship your cream to FORMAN & KAISER, Plentywood; honest tests—highest prices. 9-3t Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hansen, Tuesday, a fine baby girl. Mother and baby are progressing nicely. Wm. McElroy was in Plentywood from his home in the McElroy precinct on legal business early in the week. FOR SALE CHEAP—Two John Deere Wood Beam Walking Plows. Deoley Implement Company, Bozeman, Montana. 9-12 Beryl Humphrey, accompanied by her mother, left for Williston Tuesday, where Miss Humphrey will have her tonsils removed. C. W. Anderson of Flaxville took charge of the Plentywood hotel the fore part of the week during the absence of Mrs. Hunt, who was at Kenmare. Mr. and Mrs. Ole M. Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Torpin motored over from Comertown Wednesday. While in the city they made this office a pleasant call. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Frawley of Antelope were in Plentywood the fore part of the week. Mrs. Frawley visiting friends and Victor helping out at the Pioneer Press office. Mrs. E. Hunt, manager of the Plentywood Hotel, left Monday for Kenmare, where her children had been attending school. She returned Wednesday, bringing the children back with her. Mike Kennedy, well known farmer of the Outlook precinct, was a business visitor to the county capital Wednesday. Mr. Kennedy reports that the crop conditions are splendid in his neighborhood. At the big registered stock sale held at Minot last week, 200 head of pure blood Herefords and Shorthorn young stock sold at an average of $244 per head. One 18 month old Shorthorn bull sold for $900. Mr. and Mrs. Hans Tryhus of Spring Grove, Minn., arrived this week for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stenehjem of this city. Mrs. Tryhus is a sister of Mr. Stenehjem. Miss Eva Onstad, daughter of L. J. Onstad, returned Saturday to her home in this city after completing a year's work at Concordia college, Moorhead. Miss Onstad has another year's work before she completes the academic department of the above college. Attorney L. J. Onstad of this city was a business visitor to Minot last week and returned Monday. Mr. Onstad reports that there has been considerable rain east of the Dakota line and that the crop prospects about Williston and Minot were never better. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Walker, daughter and Mr. Fred Ator, of Antelope, motored to the farmers land near Redstone and from there came on to Plentywood, visiting with friends on Sunday last. A. E. Jensen, M. Strandskov and A. T. Larsen, prominent farmers of the Dagmar country, were in Plentywood Wednesday on business. While in the city the gentlemen took time to give the Producers News plant the once over. Charles Wisely, who has been employed at the Great Northern depot in this city, and family, left Monday morning, a week ago, for points in Oregon and Washington, where they will spend the greater part of the summer. Mr. Wisely has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism of late which made a vacation necessary. Representative Griffin of Chinook, was in Plentywood Wednesday in the interest of the initiative act now being promoted to bond the state for $5,000,000 for the State Educational institutions and to provide for a levy of 1 1/2 mills annually for their upkeep, thus getting the support of the State educational institutions out of politics—for the appropriation for the University has been a political football in Montana for many years. Highest prices paid for cream—highest tests—Address FORMAN & KAISER, Plentywood. 9-3t

George Cudhie was a Scobey visitor Sunday. Chas. Delaney left for points in Minnesota Tuesday. County Attorney J. J. Gunther was a Scobey visitor Wednesday. Atty. L. J. Onstad and family went to their farm near Coalridge Sunday. L. V. Lockwood of Glasgow was a business visitor in Plentywood Tuesday. Ship your cream to FORMAN & KAISER, Plentywood; honest tests—highest prices. 9-3t Miss Ethel Lockrem drove to Madoc Monday, where she visited with friends. Gerda Christianson, who has been ill with tonsillitis is again able to be out. Andrew Ueland of Outlook was a business visitor in Plentywood last Saturday. Ship in your tires for repair by parcel post to "THE TIRE SHOP," Plentywood, Mont. 9-4t Mrs. J. Glen Jones and baby of Scobey were calling on Plentywood friends Wednesday. Rasmus Johnson of Outlook was a business visitor in the county seat last Saturday. Otto Donaldson and family visited with relatives and friends at Culbertson Sunday. Atty. A. C. Erickson of Medicine Lake spent a few days here on business the first of the week. G. E. Fulkerson and J. C. Lewis of Medicine Lake were in Plentywood Tuesday on business. F. O. Estenson of Scobey returned to that town Tuesday after transacting business in Plentywood. County Commissioner J. C. Timmerman returned to his home at Scobey Wednesday. Highest prices paid for cream—highest tests—highest prices. Address FORMAN & KAISER, Plentywood. 9-3t Frank Smith of Scobey, agent for the Continental Oil Company, was a business visitor here Sunday. Mrs. J. D. Mathin was visiting friends in Plentywood Tuesday from the Matkin ranch near Redstone. Wm. Werser, nephew of County Auditor Mrs. Beatrice O'Grady, is visiting with the O'Grady family, this week. Editor Dasinger of the Scobey Citizen was looking after business matters in Plentywood Monday of this week. Olan C. Nelson and A. W. Smith of Homestead were transacting business in Plentywood Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Orville Lockrem came down from Madoc the first of the week to spend a short time with relatives here. Elder Gunderson went to Scobey Tuesday, where he assisted the Scobey orchestra as drummer at a dance held at that place. Wm. McCarty and George Rodd, well known farmers near Flaxville, were looking after business affairs in Plentywood Saturday. Frank Johnson of Scobey was a visitor in Plentywood Wednesday, en route to Antelope, where he was busy in the hardware business. Judge Corcoran and Court Stenographer Layby returned from Havre Wednesday, where Judge Corcoran had been called to try a case. Mr. O. S. Hagen, who was formerly a resident of Plentywood, but now resides at Chicago, is spending the week visiting among friends in this city. Ole Jarding, Eugene Hanson and Ole Helegard, well known farmers of the Comertown country, were transacting business in the county seat on Monday of this week. Oscar Mantrenach of Scobey was in Plentywood Saturday, interviewing Dr. Campbell in regard to injuries received in battle in France. Mr. Mantrenach was wounded in the leg and gassed. A new hired man arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Wagnijl, of Outlook, on Tuesday, the 1st of June. Mother and son are getting along nicely, and Christ vows that this is the last year he will do all his spring work alone. Mrs. T. W. Greer left last week for Detroit, Michigan, where she went as the state delegate to attend the National Convention of the Degree of Honor, of which order she is at the head in Montana. Mrs. Greer was accompanied east by her son Royal and before they return they expect to spend several weeks visiting with relatives and friends at Mrs. Greer's girlhood home. SCHLAG BABY DIED Alice Edna Schlag, the little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schlag, died Sunday evening, May 30th, of spinal meningitis. The funeral services were held at the farm home south of town Tuesday afternoon, Rev. R. Dutton officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Redstone cemetery.

MRS. MOLINE DIED SUNDAY

Mrs. Moline, who moved to Plentywood about one year ago in order that her children should have a better chance to attend school, passed away Sunday evening at 9:00 o'clock, death resulting from an acute attack of pneumonia. The deceased was born in Norway about 50 years ago, coming to this country in the year 1900 with her husband, who died four years ago. Everything that medical aid could do was done to restore her health, but to no avail. Interment was made in the Plentywood cemetery. Six children remain to mourn her death, the eldest 16 years of age and the youngest five. The family will continue to reside in Plentywood at their home, a guardian having been appointed to care for them.

SURPRISE PARTY ON THE TAYLORS

A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Taylor of this city gave them a surprise party last Sunday afternoon. The party composed for the most part of Sheridan county farmers, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor in the middle of the afternoon, and as the number of guests were larger than their home would hold, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were taken to the Community hall by the party where the visitors served a delicious picnic lunch, and the afternoon was spent in visiting. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Taylor's birthday and she was present with a handsome set of table linen by the members of the party.

MADSEN CHILDREN GO TO LIVE WITH AUNT

Miss Pierce of Niagara Falls, Ontario, sister of Hans Madsen's deceased wife, arrived in Archer last week, and Friday left for her home in the east accompanied by Eleanor Daphne and Margaret Madsen, the little daughters of Hans Madsen, who will reside with their aunt at Niagara, Ontario, where they will go to school. The Miss Pierce, who has been residing at the Madsen farm for the winter caring for the children, also returned to her home in the east at the same time. The party was accompanied to Williston by Mr. Hans Madsen and his sister, Miss Madsen, from which city they returned Saturday.

OUTLOOK PRINCIPAL LEAVES FOR EAST

Will probably post graduate at the University of Wisconsin.

Prof. Fremont D. Taylor, who has been Principal of the Outlook Public Schools for the past year, and which schools closed the latter part of last week, and who has been visiting with his brother, Charles E. Taylor of this city since, left Thursday morning for his home in northern Minnesota. Prof. Taylor will not return to Outlook next year, but will probably attend the University of Wisconsin, where he will work for a Master's and Doctor's degree, when he plans on resuming teaching.

Prof. Taylor was in the army during the late war for 27 months, serving about 24 of those months in France. After the Armistice was signed he secured a government course at one of the famous French Universities which he completed and upon his return to America, he accepted the offer of the schools at Outlook and came to Montana to teach.

FOR SALE—Small Duroc Jersey pigs, 6 weeks old, price $5 apiece. CARL C. LUND, 9 miles northeast of Plentywood. 9-11-12-p

LICENSE GRANTED TO JOHN MURRAY AND AMELIA DAVIS

In the marriage licenses issued from the Clerk of Court's office of Valley county, appeared the names of John Murray, Homestead to Amelia Davis of Culbertson.

Dr. Kromer of Helena, the skilled Specialist in Eyeght will be at the Plentywood Hotel Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 11, 12, 13, at Antelope, Monday forenoon, June 11; at Flaxville, Monday P. M., Tuesday, until 2:00 P. M. June 14-15. 7-3t

Dr. SELLS Physician and Surgeon Office on Main Street Night Calls answered at Residence DOOLEY MONT.

FOR SALE FOR SALE 20 HEAD CATTLE First Class Cattle 8 FRESH COWS WITH CALVES Rest are two year olds and Yearlings WILL SELL ONE OF ALL TO ANY CUSTOMER C. A. HEDGES 10 Miles East of Plentywood on "Blue Trail"

SUMMERE SESSION DAWNS NEAR The Summer Session at Montana State College begins on June 21, the first term ending on July 30. The second term, which is intended principally for men in vocational training courses, begins August 2. Many students enrolled for the first term will join together for a trip through Yellowstone Park at the end of the term, special arrangements and prices being made for the trip. Indications are for a record attendance at Summer Session at Montana State College. Information may be obtained by writing to Registrar R. O. Wilson, State College, Bozeman.

MARRIED Culbertson Searchlight: Edward Erickson of Culbertson and Miss Camie Woken of Northwood, N. D. were married Wednesday, June 2, 1920, at the home of Carl Erickson in Grand Forks. Both the groom and his bride are well known in Culbertson, the former is the foreman of the Searchlight and his bride was a former employee of the American Cafe. Edgar has leased the Grandma Mc Bride house and will reside there the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson are expected home Monday morning.

ADVERTISED LETTERS The following advertised letters remain in the Plentywood postoffice for the week ending June 15: Mrs. Wm. Boyd. Mr. W. H. Donald. Mr. Elmer Johnson. Miss Verdicta Stevens. Mr. C. W. Robinson. Mrs. Avis Nelson. Mr. Guy Williams. J. P. O'Brien. Mr. Otto Stremstad. Mr. E. W. Salisbury.

CARD OF THANKS We wish to thank our many friends for their sympathy and assistance extended to us during the recent illness and death of our beloved son, grand son and nephew. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Groves Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Grove Miss Edith Grove

WILSON-RYAN WEDDING William Wilson of Mondak, and Miss Dorothy Ryan of Freid, were married at Plentywood on Wednesday of last week by Rev. Savage. The groom is connected with the Johnson Abstract Co. at Mondak. The bride is a well known and popular young lady of Freid.

FOR SALE 160 ACRE, 9 YEAR OLD APPLE ORCHARD FULL BEARING Klickitat County, Washington This is an excellent orchard, fine varieties. Prospects for twenty-five to thirty thousand boxes this year. Owners will be at Goldendale, Washington, about June 15th, 1920. Get in touch with us. SPECIAL PRICE AND TERMS PRICE-SMITH FRUIT COMPANY Central Hotel GOLDENDALE, WASHINGTON

POTATOES For Sale

I have 300 bushels of Early Ohio and Early Rose Potatoes and about 100 bushels Burbanks. Either kind, $5.00 per bushel. D. W. KELLY Plentywood, Montana

Hail Season Will Soon Open

The State of Montana has established a hail insurance department which is operated at small cost to the farmers. This department is at the service of the farmers. Those who have not yet received circular information or application blanks for 1920 will be furnished with the same promptly by any county assessor or by the State Board of Hail Insurance at Helena, Montana. June 20th falling on Sunday applications may be filed up to and including Monday, June 21st.

THE WIND UP!

Now Comes the Last of the THE TRUSTEES' SALE of the $20,000.00 P. E. Johnson Co. Stock Commencing Tuesday, June 15

We will sell off every Dollar's worth of Merchandise at less than the Cost of the raw material; this should mean good news to the people of Medicine Lake and country people surrounding, as the rapid advance and scarcity of merchandise, means to you not to buy for now only, but for the future as well—as you will never again buy merchandise at these PRICES.

Don't Miss This LAST CHANCE Look at Our Prices TUESDAY, JUNE 15

Ladies' Dress Goods and Furnishings Silk Poplin, $3.00 value, now $2.45 Wool Poplin, $3.25 value, now 2.65 Summer Silk, $2.00 value, now 1.49 Kaba Corsets, $4.25 value, now 3.50 Kaba Corsets, $3.35 value, now 2.78 Kaba Corsets, $2.25 value, now 1.88 Ladies' Summer Union Suits, $1.50 value, now 1.23 Ladies' Summer Union Suits, 90c value, now .75 Sateen Petticoats, $2.75 value, for 2.32 Sateen Petticoats, $2.25 value, for 1.83 Children's Cotton Hose, 50c value, .45 Children's Cotton Hose, 45c value, now .41 Girls' Chatham Dresses, $2.25 value, now 1.98 Girls' Chatham Dresses, $1.65 value, now 1.37 Voiles, 70c value, now .58 Serpentine Crepe, 45c value, now .37 Mercerized fabric, $1.50 value, now 1.10

Ladies' and Misses' Shoes Ladies Dress Shoes, values to $10, for $4.45 Girls and Misses Shoes, values to $7, for $4.45 Ladies Vici Kid Oxfords; value $9, for $7.25 Ladies' Brown Kid Oxfords, value $9, for 7.45 Childrens and all other Shoes price reduction in like proportion.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO BUY YOUR SHOES FOR SCHOOL NEXT FALL, AS WHOLESALE PRICES ARE HIGHER THAN THESE

Many wonderful bargains in every Department of our store. Here we have but a few listed. We want you to come in and look around. You will find surprisingly low prices quoted on high class Merchandise.

DRIED FRUITS 10 and 25 lb. boxes, Choice Evaporated apples, per lb. 30c 10 lb box $2.90; 25 lb box $7.25 10 and 25 lb. boxes Magnolia Evaporated Peaches, per lb. 30c 10 lb. box $2.90; 25 lb. box 7.25 California Prunes, per pound 22c 25 pound box 5.25 All other Dried Fruit in stock, at Big Discount.

CANNED FRUITS Black Raspberries, value 70c, per can 55c Red Raspberries, value 60c, per can 45c Strawberries, extra fine, value 75c, per can 60c My, but they are good, ready to serve.

COFFEES and TEAS Empress Coffee, per lb. 65c Blue Bird, steel cut, per lb. 60c Blue Ribbon Coffee, per lb. 55c Hiawatha brand Japan Tea, one-half lb. cartons 35c Hiawatha brand India and Ceylon Tea, 1/2 lb. cartons 10c We have some good bulk Coffee at per pound 35c

BREAKFAST FOODS Quaker Corn Flakes, two packages for 25c Standard Corn Flakes, two packages 25c Dr. Price's Corn Flakes, two packages 25c Puffed Wheat, per package 15c National Oats, 40c a package, 3 pkgs. $1.00 Hunt's Perfect Baking Powder, 35c can 25c Spices of all kinds, 15c can for 10c

SYRUPS Karo Syrup, blue label, 1 gallon pail $1.10 Karo Syrup, white label, 1 gallon pail 1.20

WASHING POWDERS Geden Rod Washing Powder, 10c per box, for 07c Royal Lemon Washing Powder, large size box, for 25c Rub-No-More Washing Powder, 15c per box, for 07c

SOAP Crystal White Laundry Soap, 10c per bar, for 07c Swift's White Laundry Soap, 10c per bar, for 07c White Borax Naptha Soap, 10c per bar, for 07c

This Wind Up SALE Positively Opens TUESDAY, JUNE 15

MEN'S FURNISHINGS Men's Striped Overall at $2.50 Blue Striped Jacket 1.95 Men's Balbriggan two piece Underwear, $1.50 value, a garment .98 Boys' Balbriggan two piece Underwear, $1.00 value, a garment .39 Canvas Gloves, per pair .15 Arrow Brand Collars, 30c value for .20 Men's Dress Shirts from $1.25 to 2.45 Men's Pants, sizes 38x44, worth $7.00 for 3.95 Boys' Wash Suits, value $3.25, now 2.58

MEN'S HATS McKibban Hat, $6.00 value for $4.50 Prices reduced on balance of stock in like proportion.

MEN'S AND BOYS' SHOES Men's Foot & Schultze fine shoes, value $13 $9.95 Men's Work Shoes, values $7.00 and $8.00, for $4.95 and $5.95 Boys' Fine School Shoes, values $5 and $7, for $2.95 and $5.25 Men's and Boys' Canvas Shoes, values to $3.75, for $2.25 and $1.95

THIS SALE WILL CONTINUE UNTIL EVERYTHING IS SOLD.

Be early and get the best selections. Don't overlook any of it! Absolutely no reservations or exceptions, everything marked to move out quickly. For quick clearance we offer you our entire Stock at Prices lower than today's wholesale Cost. Cotton Blanket, value $4.50, for $2.95 Stone Jar, 2 to 30 gal. at 20c gal.

EDELMAN & ENGLER OPEN EVENINGS DURING SALE Medicine Lake, Mont. FIXTURES FOR SALE