Locals.

The Pioneer is $1.50 per

Sam Gable was in town on business this week.

N. B. Stith, of Beach, spent Saturday in town.

T. H. Rush has several tons of excellent hay for sale.

F. J. Stepek made a business trip to Glendive, Saturday.

Mrs. M. Wills and Mrs. E.
Latham were Dickinson visitors, Sunday.

If you are looking for a real live town to locate in, come to Wibaux.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Orgain were Beach visitors the first of the week.

W. O. Schutte attended the Log Cabin play at Glendive on Saturday evening.

T. E. Benedict, the doctor's brother, was calling on his cigar trade here Sunday.

Geo. Holmes and A. A. Harris were in from the north for supplies on Wednesday.

We will publish your brand and send The Pioneer to your address one year for $5.00.

Messrs. Hooker and Stipek purchased a full blooded Percheron horse at Peabody, Kansas, this week.

Ed. Baker, who is employed on the Gov. ditch was in town this week shaking hands with his many friends.

C. C. Henderson does all kinds of laundry work. Satisfaction guaranteed. Prices right. Enquire at residence.

Mrs. Reichenacker and daughter and Mrs. Geo. H. Purchase were here for dental work the first of the week.

I will have 400 head of high grade, native stock cattle, for sale at Wibaux, from April 21 to 25. J. C. KINNEY.

Messrs. Anderson, Kartevold and Paulson were down from Hodges, Saturday. We acknowledge a pleasant and profitable call.

There was the usual parade of new head gear on our streets last Sunday, and it was remarked that it was not all confined to the ladies.

S. H. Stambaugh is having an addition built unto his barn to be used as a shed for the purpose of keeping the ranchmen's loaded wagons under cover at night.

Dr. C. C. Benedict, Prof. F. P.
Baird, Chas. Dahl, Frank Snyder, Willie Rucker and Fred Rode-maker attended the inspection of the M. N. G. at Glendive on Tuesday.

I am now prepared to do all kinds of paper hanging. Those wishing my service will please write me, or leave notice at Graham hotel. Emma Reichenacker, Beach, N. D.

Last week we made a mistake by not giving the right person credit for the party given at the Graham. It should have been credited to Mr. T. E. Wells instead of Mrs. E. J. Sifrit.

W. F. Wilfong was in from Preston on Wednesday and ordered the Pioneer sent to his home for one year. Mr. Wilfong says that his loss in sheep this year is comparatively small, considering the hard winter just ended.

Messrs. Martin and Robinson were up from Sentinel Butte on Tuesday to attend the regular quarterly meeting of the directors of the First National, and express themselves as being well pleased with the bank's rapid progress.

Easter Nuptials.

Steele-Jackson Wedding at the Close of Last Week.

Last Saturday at four o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L.
E. Waldo, north of Wibaux, occurred the marriage of Chas. A.
Steele and Gertrude Jackson.
Rev. Alex. Douglas of the Congregational church officiated.

The bride and groom were children together back in South Dakota, and last year the bride came to this county (Dawson) and accepted a position as teacher in the school at Fallon, and the groom came here and located on a homestead three miles north of Wibaux.

Both are pleasing young people and accomplished and have made many fast friends during their short residence here.

They will go to housekeeping at once in the cosy home which the groom has prepared. They have the congratulations, well wishes and blessings of their many friends.

First Graduating Class.

It may be of interest to the people of this town and school district to know that, on May 17, the first class will be graduated from the Wibaux High School.
Although the class of 1907 is few in number, although it is confined to one sex, and that the fairer, it gives me pleasure to state that it redeems itself in quality.
As yet, neither of the Senior girls have been absent nor tardy during the present school year.
This fact, together with their studious habits and careful preparation for the daily work, is worthy of special mention.

The senior class has already passed three final examinations, as follows: Physics, after which they took up the study of Geology; Solid Geometry, followed by Conic sections and a review of Arithmetic; English history, followed by a four week's review in both Civics and English.

As we have no record of the High School grades for the preceding years and as the girls are so evenly matched in their work, we had to resort to flipping the penny to decide upon the Valedictorian and Salutatorian.
It resulted in Grace Rice for Valedictorian and Martena O'Neal for Salutatory.

The other members of the High School have kindly consented to help with the commencement program; so, with their help, an address to the friends of education, and special music, we hope to render a full program—interesting and instructive.

Commencement exercises will be held at eight o'clock, Friday evening, May 17. Further announcement will be made through the Pioneer, when the program for commencement week will be published.

F. P. BAIRD, Prin.

R. G. Robinson returned from a trip east on Tuesday. Mr.
Robinson purchased a fine team of horses while away, and shipped them out in an emigrant car with homeseekers who arrived on Wednesday.

E. W. Howe in the Atchison Globe condemns dreaming about what you would do if you were rich. The item recalls a story we heard the other day: "Pat, what would you do if you had a million dollars?" "Well, I'd go to a hotel and rent the best room in the house, I'd get a bottle of whiskey and make me a hot whiskey punch; then I'd lave a call with the clerk for six o'clock and thin in the mornin' whin the proter rapped on the door, I'd say, "To the devil wid you, I don't have to git up!"

Boys and girls are often spoiled by parental gloom. The father never unbends. The mother's rheumatism hurts so she does not see how little Freedy can ever laugh. Childish curiosity is denounced as impertinence. The parlor is a parliament, and every thing in everlasting order.

Balls and tops in that house are a nuisance, and the paper that the boy is expected to relish most is geometry, a little sweetened by the chalk of blackboards.
For cheerful reading the father would recommend "Young's Night Thoughts" and Hervey's "Meditations Among the Tombs."

At the first chance the boy will break loose. With one grand leap he will clear the catechism; he will burst away into all riotous living. He will be so glad to get out of Egypt that he will jump into the Red Sea. The hardest colts to catch are those that have a long time been locked up. Restraints are necessary but there must be some outlet. Too high a dam will overflow all meadows.

THE women who looks forward to a time when the lightening of household cares will give her time for mental development should begin the lightening-up process at once. There is always a best way to do things. The benefit who gave his wife an easy lesson in saving time on the dish-washing by pitching the china and the fragments of the feast all into hot water together may not have struck the best way. But if the dishes came out of the scrimmage clean and unbroken who could dispute his assertion that it was better than spending an hour in scraping the plates. Figuratively speaking there is a great deal of time wasted in scraping the plates—in magnifying trifles in getting ready to do something. The real business of the day is crowded through in some way, but there are so many other things that are given undue prominence that by the time the day is over the poor housemother is a bundle of nerves and weariness. But it isn't always so. The years that have opened nearly every avenue in the business world to woman have taught many of them to apply business methods in the management of a home. Good rules of action get the answer wherever they are applied. If concentration is a necessity in an office it is equally important in the home; for where it is properly applied it enables one to accomplish the best results with the least labor.

WHAT A WOMAN CAN DO.

She can come to a decision without the slightest trouble of reasoning on it; and no sane man can do that.

Six of them can talk at once and get along first rate, and no two men can do that.

She can safely stick fifty pins in her dress while he is getting one under his thumb nail.

She is as cool as a cucumber in half a dozen tight dresses and skirts, while a man will fret and fume and growl in one loose shirt.

She can talk as sweet as peaches and cream to the woman she hates, while two men would be punching each other's head before they had exchanged ten words.

She can appreciate a kiss from her husband seventy-five years after the marriage ceremony is performed.

She can go to church and afterward conclude on fourth page.
