SCRUBS DEFEAT REGULARS.

The Wibaux first and second base ball teams played a very interesting game on the home diamond last Sunday. The game was called at 3 o'clock by umpire Payne, with the second nine at bat, and considering the fact that it was the initial game of the season for the second nine, they undoubtedly done some nice playing. Securing two hits in the opening inning, both resulted in runs. The boys of the first nine, however, were unable to reach first base during the first three innings. By bunching the hits in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings they succeeded in getting five runs. The main features of the game were the fine catching by Chapman and the batting by Horton. The score was:

Crude Thoughts As They Fall From the Editorial Pen: Pleasant Evening Reveries.

A Column Dedicated To Tired Mothers As They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

WHAT becomes of the honey after the honeymoon is over?

KEEP the home-fires bright if you would have the winter of life warm and pleasant.

THE best use we can make of our life is to live so that we shall be a benediction to every one we meet.

THE happiest persons in the world are not those who have the most done for them, but those who do the most for others.

SOME of the people who are the most anxious about the recognition of friends in heaven are the ones who shake hands with two fingers in church

LIFE is hard for many people and we have no right to withhold any word or touch or act of love which might lighten the load or cheer the heart of any fellow struggler.

You get "down in the mouth" too often, my friend. Cheer up; walk on on the sunny side of the street; live where you can catch the south winds. Sunshine always warms and cheers, get more of it and give it out, you have lived in the frigid zone too long already. We would like to send a gulf stream of joy into your life.
Give us a chance. Read the Home Circle Department and you will always wear a smile. It is the best known tonic for the "blues."

DID you ever stand in the golden sunlight of a warm day with your eyes turned upon a sheet of fly paper? If so you may have noticed how when one fly adheres to the sticky surface, its companions, instead of profiting by the horrible warning, immediately buzz down and go to destruction in the same manner, and in a little time there are hundreds in the throes of death. They are fools, to be sure, and so are men. Men see their associates caught in the nets of vice. There are examples and warnings all about human beings, but they treat them as lightly as do flies and step down to death just as instantly.

THE FOLLY OF THE DAY.

There is a dreadful ambition abroad for being "genteel." We keep up appearances too often at the expense of honesty; and tho we may not be rich, yet we must seem to be "respectable," tho only in the meanest sense—in mere vulgar show. We have not the courage to go patiently onward in the condition of life in which it has pleased God to call us; but most needs in some fashionable state to which we ridiculously please to call ourselves, and all to gratify the vanity of that unsubstantial, genteel world, of which we form a part. There is a constant struggle and pressure for front seats in the social amphitheatre; in the midst of which all noble, self denying resolve is trodden down, and many fine natures are inevitably crushed to death. What waste, what misery, what bankruptcy, come from all this ambition to dazzle others with a glare of apparent worldly success, we need not describe. The mischievous results show themselves in a thousand ways—in the rank frauds committed by men who dare to be dishonest, but do not care to seem poor; and in the desperate dashes to misfortune, in which the pity is not so much for those who fail as for the hundreds of innocent families who are so often involved in their ruin.
