To Sell Your Property.
What he has done for others, he can do for you.
The backbone of the ranching business is broken now.
Better sell while the eyes of moneyed men are turned this way. When they begin to turn elsewhere for invest-

Local Happenings of the Week.

For quick results, advertise in the Pioneer.

R. J. McArthur, of Sidney, was here on business, Monday.

A. A. Vincellet, of Preston, was in town on business, Tuesday.

Miss Cora Long, of Hodges, visited with friends here over Sunday.

Chas. Burns, of Ekalaka, was registered at the Pickering on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Beamer departed on Friday evening for their home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Waldo are the happy parents of a baby girl, born Tuesday, Nov. 12.

The Misses Sommerfeld and Wallace were guests at the home of Miss Lucile Knautz, Sunday.

W. F. Lucas, of the Sentinel Butte Saddlery Co., came to Wi-boux on Wednesday and left for Chicago today.

J. C. Parker, of Belmond, Ia., who came out here a short time ago to file on a homestead, left on Saturday for his home.

Sam Gable departed on Thursday morning for an extended visit with friends and relatives at his old home in Pennsylvania.

W. H. Bixby accepted a position as depot agent with the N.
P. at Almont, N. D., and left for that place on Sunday evening.

W. E. Williamson departed on Wednesday for an extended visit with friends and relatives at his old home in Sundance, Wyoming.

Andrew Eiken, who has been here for the past several days looking over the Schuster land, departed for his home in St. Paul on Sunday evening.

Messrs. Terholland, C. Conway and Ludwig Cubeort, of Sioux Falls, S. D. were here last week looking over some Beaver valley land with a view of buying.

A dance will be given in the hall at this place on Friday evening, Nov. 15, which promises to be just a little better than any previous one. Don't fail to come.

Julia Accart and son, Elmer, purchased two steamship tickets at the First Nat'l Bank on Wednesday and will leave soon for a visit in Belgium and other parts of the old country.

Miss Lucile Knautz, who has for the past year made her home with her sister, Mrs. Anderson, at this place, departed on Thursday morning for her former home in Minnesota.

Another stock shipment was made from this place to the Chicago market on Thursday. Those who shipped are as follows: A.
G. Parson 3 cars, Ed Manaugh 3 cars, A. A. Harris 4 cars and Ab Owings 2 cars.

Dr. Benedict expects to leave in a few days for two month's post graduate work in Chicago.
He has secured Dr. E. E. Gaines to look after the work here during his absence. Mrs. Benedict and son will accompany the doctor as far as her Iowa home where she expects to spend the holidays.

Messrs. Gupton, Vincellet and Perry returned the first of the week from Chicago where they have been marketing a trainload of cattle which were shipped from Lemon, N. D., over the Milwaukee road. The forty-hour run, and the through sleeper which was promised to these stockmen by the above mentioned road did not materialize, as they were 64 hours on the road and their palace sleeper turned out to be box cars. However, in the future, the boys say that the old N. P. is good enough for them.

Dance in the hall Friday evening, November 15.

Mrs. J. M. Ingle, drove in from the former's ranch, near Gossett, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kinney will depart for Chicago on Sunday morning where they expect to spend about ten days.

Morris H. Rice, who just recently recovered from an attack of typhoid fever, returned to his home in St. Paul on Sunday.

A large party of young folks were out trying their skates on Beaver creek for the first time, this season, Tuesday evening.

Claude H. Moulton and A. C.
Davis drove up from Beach in an auto, which was recently purchased by the former, on Monday.

Kerney Bervin, of Rose Bud, Montana, arrived here last week to assume the position, as operator, which was vacated by W.
H. Bixby.

Dr. Melvin came up from Beach on Wednesday to receive a horse from H. D. Dennis, which was located through an estray notice in the Pioneer.

slowly improving.

Any one wishing to have watch or jewelry repairing of any kind done may leave same at my store as I have made arrangements with J. H. Miskimen, the well known Glendive jeweler, to take orders, which will receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed.
C. M. Allen, Wibaux, Mont.

Much excitement was aroused on Monday evening when the fire engine and a number of men rushed down Main street in response to a fire alarm which was sent in from the north side.

It seems that a light or reflection of a light was seen in the attic of Mr. Faltermeyer's residence, by a certain party, which looked like a flame, and, to be safe, rather than sorry, sent in an alarm which proved to be false.
But the next time, however, there may be a real blaze, and one that will not wait while you decide as to whether or not it is false.

Gathering of Scottish Clans.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald celebrated the eleventh anniversary of their marriage on Wednesday evening, Novemebr 6, when a number of friends gathered at their home, and the evening was very pleasantly spent.

After supper songs and dances were given by the following.

Mrs. McDonald, "Rolling Home to Bonnie Scotland; Mrs. M. Cameron, Robin Adair; A. McDonald, (comic) Where Did You Get That Hat; M. Cameron, The March of the Cameron Men; J. McRae, My Bonnie Jennie Shaw. D. Southerland sang "The Plains of Waterloo" in fine style, and was loudly encored. He responded with "Coming Through the Rye."

A. McRay, I'm Always in the Way, was also very good. R.
Cameron, (dressed in full Highland costume) danced the Highland Fling; R. Bell, Sailor's Horn Pipe; John McRae, Sword dance; J. Riley, (Irish jig) I'm off to Philadelphia in the Morning; John Southernland danced a jig and also furnished music; Miss Bell, Lochlowland; Miss Keith, Jamie Raeburn.

Throughout the evening the following dances were taken part in by all:

Grand March, Scotch Reel, Scottis Bardance, La va, Inverness Gathering, Coming Through the Rye, two step, Polka, Flowers of Edinburg, Teviot Bridge, Pateron Ella, Circasue Circle and several others. Several of the party were photographed.
Mr. Bell acted as M. C. and deserves much credit for the manner in which he performed his duties. The dancing continued until the sma oors of the morning. The party broke up by singing "Auld Lang Syne."—Contributed.

Lake Yellowstone on a Summer Morning.

Lake Yellowstone in early morning Of a perfect summer day, When the sun's first rays are peeping And the night has flown away; Oh, then life is at its sweetest In this charming inland water.
With the wave, the shore, the forest—Nature all in merry laughter.

Clear and bracing as a tonic Is the glorious atmosphere, Cloudless sky and sparkling wavelet Drawing earth and heaven so near, Flocks of wild fowl skim the water, Ducks are feeding on the beach,
And the fishes jump and frolic Near the angels' easy reach.

Here and there some little birds, Swiftly flying, you may see;
And tree branches, leaning outward, Shyly kiss the inland sea.
Pretty launches, skiffs and steamers Dot the water as it flows, While the stream from the Lake Geysers Shows how far the West Arm goes.

To enjoy life at its fullest, See the lake at break of day, Listen to the voice of nature As the shadows flee away, Glide upon its crystal waters, View the mountain's snowy peak, Feel the glory of the grandeur, Far too great for tongue to speak.

School Notes.

The above poem was written by one of the freshman boys and we believe he should continue as a poet.

Miss Baird was on the sick list this week, but there was no vacation for her pupils.

Walter Sommerfeld is absent this week.

Skates accompany books to school this week, and skating is reported to be excellent.

The well on the corner of the school grounds is still in need of a cover for the winter.

We have finally decided to drop school literary since the town literary society has been organized.
Our last meeting in school will be held next Friday afternoon.

The First National Bank of Wi-boux writes fire insurance on all kinds of farm property.

Remember the dance in the hall next Friday. Music by the Hougen orchestra of five pieces.
