Co. League Issues 10,000 Booklets

Dawson County Will Make Credit- able Showing at St. Paul Land Show--Bring In Your Samples

We are unable this week to give a list of the premiums and trophies to be awarded at the St. Paul Land Show, owing to the delay of the management in mailing them out. The time for entering exhibits has been extended to December 1st, which will be of special benefit to Dawson county, as it will permit of more time in which to gather the display to be made at St. Paul.

Farmers having products of the soil suitable for the exhibit are requested to deliver them to the nearest member of the executive committee, or bring them to the office of the League, 306 Beasley Block, Glendive, Mont.

The Northern Pacific railway will furnish free transportation for the exhibit from this county, which will be shipped by express, leaving Glendive on December 1st.

Among the special prizes offered of interest to Montana exhibitors, are the gold trophy cups offered by Chas. W. Clark, son of ex-senator Clark, as follows:

One for the best county exhibit from Montana judged for number of samples and arrangement and comprehensive character of the exhibit as well as the quality.

One for the best bushel of potatoes grown in Montana.

One of the best half bushel of wheat grown in Montana and one for the best half bushel of oats grown in Montana.

The St. Paul Association of Commerce are offering forty solid silver trophy cups valued at $4,000 one of which is for the best county exhibit in Montana.

The Great Northern railway offers a silver cup to the person who furnishes the best sample exhibited in any display from Montana.

Dawson county will go to St. Paul with a creditable display. The gentlemen in charge of the exhibit are receiving loyal support from the people who are interested in the improvement development and advancement of Dawson county.

You can help make the Dawson county exhibit more attractive if you will send the choice products raised on your land during the past year. It ought to be a matter of personal pride with every resident of Dawson county to help make the exhibit at St. Paul next month the finest display at the Land Show.

A new booklet, consisting of 10,000 copies descriptive of Dawson county and all towns and settlements in the county, is being edited by C. D. Harlow, manager of the League. These booklets will be distributed from the Dawson county booth at the St. Paul Show.

The county commissioners at their meeting Thursday appropriated $150 towards the exhibit to be made by the state of Montana, and $650 for the Dawson county display. This amount will not pay the expenses of the exhibit at St. Paul and it is necessary to solicit from the public funds to cover the entire expenses, which is estimated at $1,500. There has been a most generous response to this request for funds to be used to advertise the resources and advantages of Dawson county. The time being so short it was deemed advisable to make the temporary organization, which met in this city Thursday, Nov. 2nd, and which was attended by men selected by the commercial organizations of all the towns in the county, permanent. The organization as it now exists will stand until the second Monday in January, 1912, when a new set of officers will be elected by members of the league to serve during the year 1912.

The Dawson County Development League is an organization whose object is to furnish authentic information to inquiries regarding the resources of Dawson county; to attract farmers to the county; to aid all sections of the county; to furnish the best obtainable information regarding the proper cultivation of the soil.

The League is non-political, representing no private enterprise and is being organized on lines big enough and broad enough to eliminate all personal prejudices and selfish desires. Every person interested in Dawson county is entitled to membership in the League. The membership fee is $1.00. If you desire to join in this movement for a bigger and better Dawson county sign the petition in the hands of the executive committee member in your district, or send your application and membership fee to C. D. Harlow, Manager, Glendive, Montana.

Recent Homestead Decision

The initial entry of public land under the homestead laws is merely a declaration of intention to acquire title to the land by performing the conditions required under the laws. By such entry a settler is protected against intrusion by other settlers but as against the Government his right is only conditional and inchoate. Citing Whitney vs. Taylor (158 U. S. 85, 95); Frisbie vs. Whitney (9 Wall., 187).

Old School Building Being Vacated

Will be Converted Into Public Hall --New $30,000 Brick Building to be Occupied by First of Week

The old frame school building which served Wibaux for many years is this week being vacated, and the furniture and fixtures are now being installed in the new, commodious $30,000 brick building in the Wibaux addition on the north side.

Liveryman Sutherland, who has charge of the transfer work, informs the Pioneer that in all probability everything will be in readiness to resume school work in the new building the first of the week.

The old building was recently purchased of the school board for the consideration of $3,000 by R. L. Biffle, of Camp Crook, S. D., who expects to convert the first floor into a public hall, while the second floor will be utilized for living rooms by him and his family.

Mr. Biffle informed the Pioneer this morning that work of remodeling the interior of the building would be started at once and within the course of another month he will start an up-to-date moving picture show in the same part which is also to be used for a public hall.

From the fact that Wibaux is at present without a suitable hall for dances, shows, etc., Mr. Biffle's movement will be greatly appreciated—especially by theatre-goers and lovers of dancing.

Talking to the Chronicle man, he said he harvested 2553 bushels of flax off 32 acres this year, averaging about seven and a half bushels to the acre. ## Captures 4 Out of 5 Prize Awards

Treasure State Farmers Made Wonderful Record at National Land Show Recently Held in New York

New York, Nov.—In true western style Montana did herself proud at the national land show now holding forth at the Madison Square Garden.

Mr. F. M. Lawrence of the Bitter Root valley district, who is with the Montana exhibit, was so overjoyed at the success of the exhibits that he could hardly talk about it without a whoop, when seen by a Miner representative.

The prizes captured by Montana were very important ones to that state, for it demonstrates beyond all doubt the superiority of Montana soil from a productive view point.

On winter wheat James Todd of Geysers, Mont., won first prize, a beautiful $1,000 silver cup. The prize grain was of a yield of 75 bushels to the acre and weighed 65 pounds to the bushel.

On oats the earling silver cup went to Messrs. Patton and Hartman of Bozeman. The oats of their exhibit were of a yield of 154 bushels to the acre, of a weight of 45 pounds to the bushel.

The third prize captured by Montana was the Pabst cup, for the world's best barley, by the exhibit of R. Eisinga of Manhattan, Mont. His yield was 668 1-10 bushels to the acre and of a weight of 57 1-2 pounds to the bushel.

On alfalfa Mr. Van Cleave and Dr. Suddeth of Broadview, Mont., won the silver cup making four of the five first prizes awarded.

Bozeman, Nov. 4.—There was general rejoicing in Bozeman tonight when it was learned through a telegram from Prof. A. A. Atkinson of the state college, one of the judges of grain at the national land show in Madison Square Garden, New York, that Gallatin county had won two out of the three trophies offered for the best grain raised in North America.

Dr. W. J. Hartman was awarded the $1,000 trophy offered by President Earling of the Milwaukee road for the best oats grown in the country, and A. Eisinga was awarded the $1,500 trophy offered by Pabst Brewing company for the best barley.

Dr. Hartman's oats are of the "Big Four" variety and were raised on the ranch, 10 miles west of Bozeman.

Eisinga's prize barley is of the "Chevalier two-rows" variety and was raised near the Holland settlement, a few miles from Manhattan. The prize acre of oats produced 121 bushels, 40 pounds to the bushel, and the barley crop was 66 1-2 bushels to the acre.
