LIVINGSTON, MONT., JUNE 22, 1883.

We have endeavored to place before our readers as full and accurate account of the Clark-Rogers tragedy as was obtainable. The affair is of more than ordinary interest, in that it is an instance of what, in these days, is comparatively rare in Montana—a premeditated and coolly executed murder for the purpose of robbery. The miscreant who committed the dastardly crime seems to have betrayed all the senselessness that usually characterizes the brutal shedder of human blood. Under the semblance of escaping from the consequences of his deed, he actually walked into the jaws of death, and it is, we believe, only by the accident of his waiver of examination that he is now, in a manner, safe from the hands of an avenging mob. By this chance, and the promptitude of the officers in removing him to the county jail, our town has probably escaped the stain of being temporarily ruled by mob law. The idea that Lyman is implicated in his partner's murder and robbery is apparently erroneous, so far as appears from present evidence. His story of Clark's effort to induce him to go into the brush after the shots that killed Rogers would appear like a scheme to compass his death, and if the story be true his refusal to comply with Clark's request saved his life. We trust that by due legal methods the criminal may, at an early date, meet the penalty he so richly merits.

MONTANA NEWS.

Helena is to have a German newspaper.

About thirty horses are in training for the Fourth of July races at Butte.

In front of the Theater Comique in Helena is an electric light of 2,000 candle power, elevated on a tower twenty-five feet high.

On the Fourth of July a special train of fifty cars will leave Helena freighted with 1,000,000 pounds of bullion from the Gregory and Wickes mines bound for Newark, N. J.

The Cree Indians who have been causing so much trouble to the northern Montana people are to be removed by the British authorities to the North Saskatchewan to prevent any further raiding by them this side of the line.

The Irishmen of Butte held a meeting last Saturday night and organized a branch of the Irish National League of America. The meeting sat down on the Pope on account of his interference in Ireland's troubles, and upheld Parnell.

George Finlay, who lives near Fort Benton, was called to his door one night last week by three drunken Indians who demanded his money or his life. Mr. Finlay gave up what small change he had, and the reds took their departure.

Sunday's Miner says: Passengers from the valley last night bring the story of a life convict in the penitentiary named Conway, who, by feigning insanity, succeeded in securing his removal to the asylum at Warm Springs, and yesterday morning made his escape from that institution, stealing a valuable span of horses to expedite his flight.

NEWS NOTES.

At St. Paul, on the 20th, Thos. Murray shot and killed Anthony Meyer in a street row.

Mrs. Scoville, Guiteau's sister, lately divorced from her husband, has changed her name to Frances Mary Howe.

A great fire is reported in the royal dockyards in Amsterdam, Holland. Several large war vessels were destroyed.

The boiler in H. E. Penny's, Minneapolis, machine shops exploded on Wednesday, and killed Willie Sunburn, a twelve-year-old boy.

Four Clarksville, Ark., train robbers were hanged to-day. They killed an engineer in the course of robbing the train and so became murderers.

On the afternoon of Wednesday a passenger train on the Omaha road ran off the track in East Minneapolis, owing to a misplaced switch. William Harrington, the engineer and baggageman Roberts were instantly killed and a brakeman named Vanderport badly injured. A few passengers were injured but none seriously.

Pedigree of the English Draft Stallion,
HONEST ABE.

This English draft horse was the property of E. Dillon, of Illinois. Honest Abe was foaled June 23, 1872; he was sired by Glasco, an imported English Card horse, as was also his dam, the celebrated mare Darling. Glasco is a pure bred English draft horse, a dapple bay in color, foaled in 1866, stands sixteen hands high, and was sired by the celebrated horse Mosstrooper. Mosstrooper was a pure bred English Card horse. He was bred by Burrell, Guard Farm, Cumberland, out of a pure Card, by Sterlingshire Champion. Champion by Mr. Brownley's Lofty, which gained prizes to the amount of $300; never was beaten and allowed to be the best stock horse in England in his day. Mosstrooper gained the first prize at East Cumberland show in 1861, and prize same year at Newcastle, beating twelve. He is allowed by competent judges and considered by public opinion in general to be the best and purest English draft horse that has traveled this country for the last thirty years. Glasco was purchased by the Ohio Society for the sum of $2,000. When imported to this country he weighed 1,900 pounds. Glasco is a half brother to the imported horse that took first prize at the Centennial. Glasco was bred by Mr. Fowkes' Anlurtown Annan Dumfriesshire, who also owned his dam, Jess, by Byron. Darling, Honest Abe's dam, is three-fourths English draft and one-fourth Norman, bred by Mr. Jas. Arney, sired by Young Card, by Prince Royal by Old Card, all first prize winners. Her dam, Belle, gained the first prize at the Highland Society Fair, Edinburgh. Belle was purchased by the Ohio Society for $2,000, and when imported weighed 1,700 pounds.
To be found at the barn Monday and Tuesday; at Mr. Hathorn's, up the Yellowstone, Wednesday and Thursday; at Mr. Ringleby's, Friday; at upper bridge on Yellowstone, Saturday.

Willard A. Smith & Co.

GENERAL AGENTS FOR THE

PARK AND PALACE

Additions.

All wishing residence lots, come and investigate for yourselves before purchasing elsewhere, and buy only first-class property. Be sure and do not buy property which will separate you from the best part of the town, and those who have examined the Park and Palace Additions acknowledge them to be far superior to all for residences. We have already sold lots to persons who will build immediately, and in some instances bring their families. We aim to constantly keep houses for sale and rent, thus to accommodate those who wish to go to housekeeping in great haste and not having time to build. We are selling houses very cheap, and wish those who anticipate buying would carefully examine ours, and see for themselves we do not prevaricate.
