MONTANA NEWS.

The improvements at Irvine Park Lake, near Deer Lodge, are completed, and with the exception of a present lack of boats, everything is in splendid condition.

The clergymen of Miles City objected to Dan Castello's circus displaying there on Sunday, and in a published card enjoined all church members from attending the show.

It is estimated that forty horses will take part in the July meeting of the West Side Racing Association. About twenty Deer Lodge and Missoula flyers are already on the ground.—Inter Mountain.

Harry McCarty, the author of that popular air "Bonnie Blue Flag," has got in bad odor in Missoula, where he is running a theatre, by replevying band instruments which he had lent to a snide circus troupe.

A grader on the U. & N. road, near Little Blackfoot, was shooting at gophers, and one ball entered the back of a fellow-laborer, who was concealed by some bushes 600 yards away. The wound was not serious.

Beef steers, four and five years old, are commanding $64 and upward, and the demand is greater than the supply. Every day brings letters of inquiry from Bismarck, Fargo and smaller towns along the line, for such cattle. Minnesota beef is cheaper, but they all appreciate the value of Montana raised beef.—Yellowstone Journal.

The Butte Miner tells a remarkable story of a dog belonging to the late Charles Miller who fell into the shaft of the Gagnon mine and was killed. The dog, it seems, mourned the death of his master, and after a few weeks of despondency, deliberately jumped into the shaft of the same mine and, falling 300 feet, was dashed lifeless. A clear case of canine suicide.

Joseph Cardona, formerly an enlisted man in the United States army, and who was sent to the penitentiary from the east side somewhere for two years for grand larceny—having ridden off the horse of another party while on a spree—was pardoned and restored to citizenship by Acting Governor McCutcheon on the 25th—six days before expiration of sentence. Cardona has been highly exemplary in his conduct while a prisoner, and the executive clemency extended him was highly approved by the prison officers and recommended by a number of citizens here. He intends to remain in Deer Lodge.—New Northwest

We learn from Rev. Mr. Downey of a most lamentable occurrence at Etchetah on Tuesday. Two young girls, Helen and Grace L. Crichton, aged respectively 13 and 14 years, went to bathe in a slough near the residence of their stepfather, Mr. Robert Grierson, about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. As they did not return the family became alarmed and instituted a search which resulted in the finding of their bodies in a pool of water about six feet deep. A neighbor named VanDerpost was the first to discover them. The bereaved parents were utterly broken down by the terrible calamity. They were buried together on Wednesday in the burying ground near the Etchetah school-house.—Miles City Press.

NEWS NOTES.

Bismarck is to have an artificial stone manufactory.

The wife of Dr. Hathaway, the Philadelphia abortionist, made a full exposure of her husband's nefarious practices.

San Francisco bankers consider opium the best kind of security, and have large quantities continually stored in their vaults.

Beirne and Elam, two hot-blooded Virginians, were just preparing to fight a duel when, with their seconds, they were arrested.

The Washington Territory Indian chiefs have arrived in the federal capital and held a conference with the secretary of the interior.

Chas. B. Walk was killed on Friday in Minneapolis by a railroad accident, and on the same day Nels Larson met death from the same cause about two miles out of the city.

At Clarksville, Ark., Gabe and Jim Johnson, Nixon and Henderson, were hanged on Friday for robbing a train and killing the conductor. Several thousand persons witnessed the execution.

Secretary Teller says that Crook's captives will not be put upon a reservation, as the government has enough Indians to care for, and these would only make trouble among those already on reservations.

Bank bills to the amount of $40,000 disappeared in transit by express from New York to Susquehanna, and blank paper was found in their place. The railway officials over which road it was transmitted are mystified.

A Gambler's Chances.

A "reformed gambler" delivered a lecture in New York on gambling. He analyzed each game, showed that the owner of the game had a percentage in his favor which is never less than 6, and which very generally rises to an absolute certainty. The majority of all the dollars which are invested in an attempt to win a game of faro, or any of the games which are open in a modern gambling house, are just as certainly lost by the owner as if he were to throw them into a furnace. Even suppose the game to be a fair one, and the percentage in favor of the game no more than 6; even this is enough to "eat up" any capitalist. What sort of an idiot would a man be who should, in betting at "evens," be willing always to put up $106 as often as his antagonist lays down $100? But what is more infinite than the folly of making a bet, in cases where the chances equally favor both parties, for one of them to be compelled to furnish from $130 to $175 as often as his opponent advances $100? And yet this is precisely what is being done by every man who undertakes to win in a gambling house. In fact, he encounters, as a rule, even larger odds than these; he is compelled to make bets in which he furnishes all the stakes, and in which he has not even the chance of winning back his stakes. It is precisely a case in which one man bets on a sure thing and obliges the loser to put up all the money.

What is still stranger about it all is that men will continue to play when they know just what chances they have to encounter. Men will continue to play, week after week, even year after year, losing constantly, and yet filled with the idiotic hope that something may happen which they know cannot happen. Said a well-known gambler in this city, "Do you suppose that sporting-men can afford to rent spacious rooms, fit them up at great cost, furnish expensive suppers, wine, cigars and all that, and then give customers any chance to win? We're obliged to win, and we do."

The most damaging feature of this nefarious gambling mania is that it affects so many poor men. Were it the case that only rich men should gamble and lose, there would be less cause of complaint than now.—Chicago Daily News.
