 Minnesota, has been appointed government examiner of coal lands in Montana.

The case of Sawtell, charged with obswitchback, as commonly understood.

 The line will be like that across the divide mountain-side, and down the range on the opposite side in the same manner.

 row night.—Miles City Press 27th.

Right Rev. Bishop Brondel, First Catholic Bishop of Montana, accompanied by Fra. Cataiko, arrived at Missoula last Wednesday and addressed a large congregation on that day. The Missoulian says: He is a young man, but 41 years of age, a Belgian by birth, a man of high culture, a graceful speaker, and left a very favorable impression upon his hearers. One of his first movements will be to organize the diocese, and after he has looked over his new field he will make a selection of a residence.

Information reaches us from Rocky Point that X. Beidler, while on his way from that point to Maginnis, was attacked by a party of horse thieves who for a long time have had a grudge against him. He was traveling in a buckboard drawn by two mules, to serve a warrant under a special deputisation from Sheriff McDevitt. At the first fire one of the mules was shot and his team rolled over into a coulee.
 X. got upon his feet and opened fire upon the rascals, whereupon they turned and ran. His last shot tumbled one of the crew from his saddle, but he got up again and with some difficulty regained his seat. The party tackled the wrong man.— parations for transportation by wagons, trip on horseback will take ponies with them. They will also go equipped with cooking utensils and will have a cook in attendance. All members of the party seem disposed to enjoy the novel experience, and will spend about two weeks in the Park.

 his trial at Nashville. Out of two hundred persons summoned, only one juror

Gov. Ben Butler made a speech at the alumni dinner at Harvard College, which seems to have been well received. He and Lieut-Gov. Ames went to the college in an elegant barouche drawn by six horses and escorted by the National Lancers.

At Jefferson, Texas, on Tuesday night, 150 horsemen rode up to the jail and re-ored, employed on Pat Judge's farm, was arrested for criminal intimacy with Judge's daughter, a very young white girl, who found buried, was convicted of having performed criminal surgical operations

POTTSVILLE PA., June 27.—The damage to the crops, mines and railroads by the storm through this section is widespread and heavy. Trains on all the branches of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad have been delayed by washouts and land slides. The rainfall was the greatest in twenty years. A number of colliers are flooded; in some cases mules were drowned. The losses can not be estimated. Harrisburgh, Allentown, Wipkesbarre and Lancaster visited by the fury of the storm send in reports of equal damage.

The Little Missouri Tragedy.

LITTLE MISSOURI, June 26.—[Special to Bismarck Tribune.]—A serious encounter took place to-day about a mile west of here between a party of three hunters and some friends of the Marquis de Mores, ending in one hunter named Riles Luff-ce being killed, another named Frank O'Donnell being wounded and the other named Wannegan with the wounded man were taken prisoners and turned over to Sheriff Harmon, of Mandan, who came here to arrest them. None of the marquis' party were injured. Both parties were armed with Winchester rifles. The fight lasted about twenty minutes. Luff-ce was instantly killed, being shot through the heart. The public opinion is that the marshal should have made the arrest. The excitement here is great.
 They took down on the freight train the following persons: Marquis de Mores, Frank O'Donnell, Richard Moore, Frank Miller and John Reinter. It is claimed that O'Donnell has repeatedly sworn to kill the Marquis de Mores and also others at this place. Luffcey is from Missouri, and has been in this country for the past six or seven years. He is a man about six feet high and about 24 years of age.
 When he was shot he cried out: "Boys, I have got it in the breast!" One of his dogs laid down by the side of the dead body and it was impossible for us to get him away. No one can tell the end of this shooting affair, as one can hear all kinds of rumors.
