CHICKORY!

Gallatin County, M. T.

Is situated on the National Park Railroad, twenty-eight miles from Livingston and about the same distance from the National Park. At this point the Northern Pacific Railroad company are building a Dept. Section House, Water-Tank, Etc., and many other substantial improvements are going on. The town is indorsed by the railroad company, who own a one-half interest in the same, and will do all in their power to further its interests. The lands lying north and south are exceedingly fertile, and well-cultivated ranches are numerous; east are the celebrated Mill Creek, Emigrant Gulch and Six Mile Mining Districts and in the place itself thrift, energy and intelligence are to be found among its citizens. The Villard Mining Co's claims adjoin the town on the east. The Gold and Silver bearing quartz mines in Emigrant Gulch are very rich, as are the Placer mines. Coal mines within one mile of the town are being vigorously worked; and Iron, Lime and Sandstone abound. Before the town was platted, lumber was on the ground for a number of buildings, and before the town was entirely surveyed buildings were in course of construction.

THE TOWN IS YOUNG YET!

And thereby affords opportunities for securing lots at low figures, and we feel confident that the constant and increasing demand for the same will advance prices from twenty-five to fifty per cent. within a short time. Full particulars, prices and plats will be furnished upon application to Food for Thought.

Young man did it ever occur to you, as you wander homeward from some down-town "booze shop," at a late hour at night, that winter is almost upon you, and that before the plaintive notes of the bullfrog shall blend in a blissful harmony with those of the seductive mosquito, that you will have kicked yourselves several times for reducing yourselves to the condition of paupers. Instead of putting your time and money to a use that would enable you to be independent. A young man without a good business or plenty of money makes a great mistake when he spends the proceeds of his daily labor for whisky, and the entertainment of lewd women, and don't you forget it. —Exchange.

More Horse Stealing.

Yesterday Hank Beaman, deputy sheriff at Gardiner, returned from lodging in Bozeman jail two men, Charles Brown and Hiram Andrews, the former charged with stealing a span of mules, and the latter with being accessory after the commission of the crime. The mules belonged to a man at Gardiner named McDougall, from whom they strayed while he was laid up with a dislocated shoulder. Sheriff Beaman found them at a ranch near Cooke City, where hay is being put up for Fitzgerald & Co., by the Andrews Bros., for whom Brown was working. Brown claimed to own the mules by virtue of a bill of sale, which was proven to be forged by himself. Andrews was arrested on the charge of having been aware of the theft of the mules, and he and Brown were taken to Cooke City, examined before Justice Potter, and committed for trial. Andrews will probably get bail to-day and be released. He formerly lived in Livingston, and his parents are still residents of the town. Through an evident desire to screen Brown from the consequences of his crime he has placed himself in an awkward position, and however much sympathy may be felt for him, he will find it difficult to clear himself just now when persistent horse stealing is aggravating the public mind.

MONTANA NEWS.

The Butte racing meeting will begin to-day and continue four days.

Forty-five cattle Otto Franc lost, instead of 100, by a stampede into the Stinking Water river.

There are over 100 tons of military freight at Bismarck awaiting shipment to Fort Assinaboine.

There is some prospect of a large smelter being erected at Dillon by a wealthy Colorado company.

C. A. Lewis is amusing himself at the Dillon jail by painting very neat small signs for those wishing them.

Howard Eaton is in Bismarck superintending the transportation across the river of 2,000 sheep destined for Little Missouri.

The Northern Pacific will not grant special rates for the delegates to the next session of the Grand Lodge of Montana.

A band of some 2,800 Nevada sheep passed through here, en route to the Musselshell for winter grazing.—Dillon Tribune.

Special Agent Tullis, of the land department, is in the Yellowstone valley investigating the validity of desert land entries.

The Helena papers are urging the city fathers to provide a better and more plentiful supply of water. Artesian wells are proposed.

A special election to fill the offices of city attorney and alderman, made vacant by the death of Judge Laspeyre, will be held at Butte on the 22d.

It is stated as probable that the Wickes branch from Helena may be extended to Butte. It could run all the way through a good mining region.

William McKnight and others propose locating a sulphur spring on Deep creek, with the purpose of conveying the water to Townsend by means of a ditch.

The farmers of the section of country tributary to Benton want a flouring mill. A meeting has been called for the 29th inst. to take some action with regard to the same.

Bell, the Benton brunette who took a dose of croton oil internally instead of externally as instructed by the doctor, had a hard struggle with death, but got through all right.

The Mullan tunnel on Saturday had just 249 feet of bench to remove, which will give way under the drill and dynamite at the rate of ten feet per day, or a completion of the work by the 15th of October.

The name of the new town on the east side of the Little Missouri river at the crossing of the railroad is to be Madora. About seventy acres of land belonging to the Marquis de Mores are now being platted. There will be 500 lots.

A company formed of Virginia City capitalists have located seven miles of placer diggings along Grasshopper creek, Beaverhead county, and are making preparations to push the mining operations vigorously. Their capital stock is $45,000. The company intends to put up a saw-mill in the vicinity to supply lumber for their own and others' use.

The McKenzie cattle company has been organized in this city, with the following gentlemen at its head: Hon. Alex. McKenzie, George P. Flannery, R. B. Mellon, Dr. Porter, George H. Fairchild and H. F. Douglass. The capital stock already paid in is $30,000, which will be early increased to $150,000. A range of over 600 acres has been purchased at the south fork of Burns creek, northeast of Glendive. A thousand cattle will be put on next spring, about 200 being there now.—Bismarck Capital.

Sitting Bull, who has lung disease and fears that he may not live long, said to a correspondent of the St. Louis Republican: "I don't know how to speak to the white people. We were once enemies, but now we are friends. I was not in the fight with Custer, being in my camp over the hill; but I commanded the tribe with my chiefs. I do not know who killed Custer, nor do any of my braves, because we knew that he wore long hair. We afterward learned of his death, and that a few days before the battle he cut off his hair. One of my men got his buckskin coat, but the brave has since died and they buried him in it. This is all I know about the battle."

NEWS NOTES.

Hon. J. B. Morse, a prominent Massachusetts journalist, is dead.

Junius Brutus Booth, the veteran actor, is dying at Manchester, Mass.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway will run trains into Bismarck early next spring.

The seventy-third anniversary of Mexican independence was celebrated in Mexico on Sunday with great enthusiasm.

Moody, the Evangelist, is preaching in Chicago. At one of his meetings there was such a crush that several were injured.

Gov. Sherman, of Iowa, fell down stairs at Council Bluffs, where he was about to make a political speech, and was severely injured.

Two wealthy Mexicans, Vidal and Cantee, fought a duel at San Antonio with stiletos. Cantee will probably die, and the victor has been arrested.

A Seattle (W. T.) dispatch of the 16th says: The Villard party arrived here to-day. The city is illuminated in their honor. Addresses of welcome were presented, and responded to by Villard, Carl Schurz and others.

On the same day New Tacoma sends word as follows: A party of journalists, who accompanied Villard's party, arrived this afternoon and were entertained by the citizens. Speeches in behalf of Tacoma were made by General Sprague and the mayor. Wm. Henry Smith, general manager of the Associated Press, Gen. Boynton and E. V. Smalley spoke on behalf of the journalists. The party will visit points of interest in Washington and Montana Territories not touched by the general party, and expect to reach the east on their return by October 1st.
