CHICKORY!

Gallatin County, M. T.

Is situated on the National Park Railroad, twenty-eight miles from Livingston and about the same distance from the National Park. At this point the Northern Pacific Railroad company are building a Depot, Section House, Water-Tank, Etc., and many other substantial improvements are going on. The town is indorsed by the railroad company, who own a one-half interest in the same, and will do all in their power to further its interests. The lands lying north and south are exceedingly fertile, and west cattle ranches are numerous; east are the celebrated Mill Creek, Emigrant Gulch and Six Mile Mining Districts and in the place itself thrift, energy and intelligence are to be found among its citizens. The Villard Mining Co's claims adjoin the town on the east. The Gold and Silver bearing quartz mines in Emigrant Gulch are very rich, as are the Placer mines. Coal mines within one mile of the town are being vigorously worked; and Iron, Lime and Sandstone abound. Before the town was platted, lumber was on the ground for a number of buildings, and before the town was entirely surveyed buildings were in course of construction.

THE TOWN IS YOUNG YET!

And thereby affords opportunities for securing lots at low figures, and we feel confident that the constant and increasing demand for the same will advance prices from twenty-five to fifty per cent. within a short time. Full particulars, prices and plats will be furnished upon application to Probably Incorrect.

A report comes from Billings that Mel. Powers, who ran a variety show in Billings a year ago, and before that did a similar business in Glendive, was hanged last Thursday at Sioux City, Iowa. The story says that he suffered the capital penalty for having shot a man with whose wife he was criminally intimate. We have taken pains to investigate the truth of the report and so far as it applies to Sioux City believe it incorrect. Will. O. Hagy and L. D. Letellier, both of whom are from Sioux City, knew Powers in that town and here in Montana; they have visited Sioux City lately and constantly receive papers and letters from there, but neither of them have ever heard that Powers killed anyone or was sentenced to be hanged there. He may have been executed last Thursday, but not at Sioux City, and we are inclined to believe the whole story a canard.

The Republican Delegate at Large.

The First Judicial district convention will be held in Bozeman to-day. The district comprises Gallatin, Madison, Yellowstone, Custer and Dawson counties, but it is doubtful if all the counties represent. At the county convention the delegates virtually conceded to Livingston the right to select the one delegate at large to be nominated for the district, and it is believed that this selection from Livingston will be the choice of the convention. The leading men of the republican party met last evening to decide upon a proper person to invest with the honor, and it is understood that their voices went unanimously for A. B. Curry, Esq. We trust that this is the case. If nominated by the convention Mr. Curry is practically elected, as two delegates at large are to be elected and only two will be nominated—one by the republicans and one by the democrats. If elected, Mr. Curry will represent Livingston with honor and faithfully serve his trust as one of the constitution-makers for the territory. No better selection could possibly be made from the party ranks throughout the length and breadth of the district. Mr. Curry will, if elected, forget that there parties in Montana and work only to assist in framing a constitution that will be acceptable to the people of the territory, and to the congress of the United States.

More About the Baggage Theft.

The Bismarck Tribune has it that Lottie Adsit alias "Scar Face Charlie" "peached" on Staples and Shannon, and caused their arrest for the Teller robbery in St. Paul. She was arrested after having displayed a handkerchief bearing upon it the initials "H. M. T.," and after selling a brown silk dress to a sporting woman of Bismarck, telling her that it was a present from her mother and cautioning her to say nothing of the sale. It is surmised that "Charlie" was the recipient of these and other of the stolen goods from Staples who, it seems, was striving to supplant McGraw in her affections. Andy Adams says all he knows of the affair is that one night Staples came into his room in Livingston at a late hour and said he had "beat the hotel," and wanted to leave two trunks there.

The Minneapolis Tribune's St. Paul page of Thursday contains this item:

"A number of prominent citizens of Stillwater were in the city yesterday on business connected with the arrest of David Staples, of that city, who, with Michal Shannon, is charged with stealing Secretary Teller's daughter's trunk during the Northern Pacific excursion. Young Staples is well connected in Stillwater, being the son of Hon. Isaac Staples, and a great effort is being made to compromise the matter without its going into the courts. An attempt will be made to prevent the requisition being granted for the removal of Staples to Dakota, and considerable influence, it is understood, is being used both here and in Washington to effect this end." Just how the issue of a requisition can be prevented we do not understand; in fact we regard it as imperative that a requisition be issued by Gov. Crosby if the proper steps are taken, and as equally imperative that the prisoners be transferred upon presentation of the papers to the governor of Minnesota. The "influence in Washington" is presumably being exerted with Teller, but as the Northern Pacific has taken the matter in hand it is doubtful if the effort at compromise is successful.

More Indians.

From Charles Barber we learn that last week a band of seventy Ogallala Sioux crossed Powder river near Richard Fran's ranch on their way north. The band was composed almost entirely of braves, they having but three squaws with them. They were without teepees or pack animals, each led a spare horse, and all were armed to the teeth. They acted very independent, were not begging, and paid for what they wanted. They said they were on their way to visit the Crows. Now a visit of the Sioux to the Crows means horse stealing and probably bloodshed, as relations existing between these tribes are anything but amicable. A small band of Crow braves is now in the mountains a few miles west of this place, and an encounter between the two would no doubt result in trouble. The Sioux were evidently not on a hunting or usual foraging expedition, and future developments will alone reveal their intentions.—Buffalo Echo.

MONTANA NEWS.

J. C. Pickering of Meagher county, grew some fine grapes this year.

The returned members of the Musselshell round-up report a good fall branding, range good and cattle doing well.

Wm. Carter had a valuable horse killed by a monstrous grizzly a few days since on the Shoukin.

Wm. Turner is under arrest in Helena for selling whisky to the Blackfoot Indians.

No further developments concerning the U. & N. and N. P. freight transfer this week. Freight is still being hauled over the hill in wagons, and passengers are skirmishing around the intersection till they get a train. The failure to erect a joint station and provide for interchange of freights is discreditable to whichever road is occasioning it.—New Northwest.

A train of young cattle from the states passed through yesterday afternoon, for the Steel Brothers, at Gray creek.

In traversing the Missouri valley the Northern Pacific railroad passes diagonally over ten farms, appropriating about one-sixth of each. The farmers there have bought and paid for the land and have government deeds for the same. They are curious to know who is to pay for the one-sixth of their lands which they are prevented from cultivating.

A new arrangement has gone into effect by which Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express will be forward express matter from Salt Lake to all points in Montana. The arrangement does not give Montana competitive rates, as the business is said to be pooled between the express companies.—Miner.

It is expected that the completion of the Mulian and Bozeman tunnels will make a considerable reduction in the time of running trains across the continent by the northern route.

It is understood that no term of court will be held at Boulder, Jefferson county, this fall. The time set for convening was to-day, but for some reason it has been postponed.

"Escape of Prisoners." is a regular pick-up head with the printers of the Deer Lodge New Northwest, and comes into use almost every week. The last issue of that paper tells of the escape of two prisoners from the penitentiary—Murphy and Du Bost. The former had about a year to serve and Du Bost four months.

Mullan tunnel may be said to be finished, practically speaking, as the last of the "bottom work," or bench, was removed Thursday, leaving the tunnel open, full size, for its entire length.

All that now remains to do, before laying the ties and track is to dig trenches along at each side for drainage, and to do a little timbering in one or two places. Trains will be run through the main range of the Rockies soon.
