The report is again afloat that the Northern Pacific dining cars are to be taken off and eating stations established in their stead. However, the ENTERPRISE does not believe it.

For heavy and shell hardware of all descriptions, go to Lawrence & Stuffs, Main street.

What is meant by the "C. B. E. Club," is the repeated enquiry since the appearance of the carnival advertisement. The ENTERPRISE gives up the conundrum and the members of the club refuse to give up the solution.

Delicious beef tea and all kinds of hot drinks at Jim Kane's place.

The "prominent republicans" upon whose advice Governor Crosby appointed A. F. Burleigh to the district attorneyship, are suspected to reside in Livingston. Our people are making their influence felt.

The Park train that went out this morning is the last train that will run under the regular time-table for the traffic.

ing on Second street, near the Brunswick, and will conduct it connect-into rooms which Mrs. Murphy has furnished as sleeping apartments in the facilities for comfortably accommodating guests.

For we are bound to assist the deserving.

Gallatin county this year has 173 persons, firms and corporations who pay taxes to the amount of $100 or more on a levy of 17 mills to the dollar. In 1882 the number was 101; in 1881, 70; in 1880, 87; in 1879, 73 and in 1878, 59. The large increase of the number from last year is due in part to the increased tax levy of 3 mills, and in part to the growth of wealth in the eastern portion of the county, where a large number of the published list reside.

Hot drinks and beef tea at Jim Kane's place.

A. B. Curry leaves on Sunday morning for Miles City, where he will remain until about the first of the new year, and in future will gravitate between Livingston and Miles, attending to business in both places, but still considering this town as his home. He has become warmly attached to Livingston, and it is needless to say that his fellow citizens are glad it is so, and that he will always be one of them.

Holland at the Skating Rink.
The Holland Dramatic company arrived in Livingston by this morning's train, and will appear this evening at the skating rink instead of Wetzstein's hall, as at first announced. We have made repeated reference to the reputation of this strong company and of its leader Mr. George Holland. Those who fail to see Lord Dundreary this evening will miss such a dramatic treat as may not be placed in their way again for many months to come.

Handsome Martin.
In describing the opening of congress, and the attitudes of famous members of the house as they congregated on the floor, the Washington correspondent of the Pioneer Press says: "The handsome Martin Magin-nis, of Montana, leaned far back in his chair, and seemed to run his eyes over the ladies' gallery." Come to think of it, the major is not a bad representative of the rosy health and manly beauty of Montana's sons, but he ought not to look at the ladies' gallery when he presents such a noticeably handsome appearance.

Appointed.
Yesterday afternoon a telegram arrived from Governor Crosby, addressed jointly to A. B. Curry and F.
D. Pease, stating that in deference to the wishes of prominent republicans in the district, Andrew F. Burleigh had been appointed district attorney of the First judicial district, vice T.
R. Edwards deceased.

So all speculation is at an end, and Mr. Burleigh succeeds quietly and easily to the office for which a year ago he strove laboriously and unsuccessfully. Death, the great revolu-tionist, seconded by a stalwart apostle of the doctrine "to the victor belong the spoils," has placed him at the goal of his ambition.

Birdseye Views of Livingston May be obtained at the ENTERPRISE office at $1 each or less for quantities.
These views are lithographed on a fine quality of paper, 18x26 inches in size.
They will make a beautiful and most acceptable present to friends living at a distance, and to secure their general distribution we place them at this low price.

Daring Robbery.
On Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock four men entered T. S. Hamilton & Co.'s store at Butte, and one of them presented the muzzle of a revolver to the face of Mr. Pfouts, the only man in the store, and ordered him to unlock the safe. He did so, and the robbers obtained $1,200 in cash and left the store and the city. The robbers were not masked, and for barefaced audacity their act is without a parallel in the history of crimes in Montana.

Taken Up.
At J. A. Oliver's ranch, Little Timber, Gallatin county, one bay horse, with white right forward foot, one white spot on his left side, three saddle marks on back and white stripe in forehead, on left thigh. Owner can have above animal by proving property and paying expenses of advertising and keeping.

Hotel, having leased the Donnelly building on Second street, has elegantly furnished the rooms, and is now prepared to furnish board nominal price. Rooms all plastered and carpeted throughout.
