LOCAL LAYOUT

There are eighteen prisoners in the county jail.

James Fowle & Co. have the celebrated W. McBrayer whisky.

The new railroad time-table takes effect to-morrow at 6 a. m.

Delicious beef tea and all kinds of hot drinks at Jim Kane's place.

Remember the pie sociable this evening in Bingham's hall. All are invited.

Libert has dry wood in quantities to suit the farmer. Leave orders at the Metropolitan.

The opening of the new Methodist church takes place to-morrow, services being held morning and evening.

Henry Clump's examination, set for yesterday afternoon, was postponed to to-morrow on account of the appearance of witnesses in the defense.

Hot drinks and beef tea at Jim Kane's place.

Rev. F. B. Lewis, Episcopal clergyman, will arrive here on Monday and hold service on that or the following evening, of which further arrangement will be made.

Received 100 cans of fresh, select oysters at the Big Horn Stores.

Tri-weekly mail service from here to Cooke City begins to-day. The days of the week upon which mails will arrive and depart have not yet been determined, but will be very soon.

Simple and fancy groceries at N. C. Matthesen's.

Frank Bush left this afternoon for the Sulphur Springs, taking with Mrs. W. O. Hagy and Mrs. W. S. Gorman who go to spend an indefinite time as his guests at the Springs.

Postoffice Drug Store will be open Monday and day after this date.
 CAMPBELL & MERRILL.

Those whose timepieces are in accordance with railroad time and who wish to keep them so, will at 11:33 a. m. to-morrow, turn their time ahead one-half of a clock noon, to correspond with the new system of standard time indicated by the Northern Pacific.

Those choice cream candies and caramels arrived at John O. Sax's News Depot.

C. Miles, president of the Worcester County (Mass.) National bank, brother of Gen. Nelson A. Miles, father of A. W. Miles, our hard-fighter, came in on this morning's train from the west. He will return in a few days, stopping on his way at Cooke City.

Hot Oysters at the Big Horn Stores.

Under the new winter arrangement running Northern Pacific trains a migrant sleeper will be attached through Pacific train and taken as Helena, where it will probably be transferred to the regular passenger train.

At the Big Horn Stores for fresh oysters from seen Jim Kane's goose?

Meeting to-morrow in Congregational church by W. E. Archibald at 7 p. m. Topic—The Law of Love.

Primary school at 12 o'clock. Also meeting in Bingham's hall at 7 p. m. Temperance Reformation. All invited and non-advocates of temperance are cordially invited to be present.

Billy Miles for beled hay, oats, wheat chop feed, etc. At wholesale or retail.

Comet mentioned a few days ago the ENTERPRISE has been discovered by the people of Butte, and we confess to have watched it anxiously and fruitlessly.

The part of the heavens designated however and may be seen early to-morrow evening if the condition of the atmosphere is favorable.

Orders of all kinds carefully attended to by Cook.

Mr. Sloan has purchased of Allen four lots on Second street opposite Goughnour's lumber yard, and is endeavoring to establish a coal and wood yard. He has a great quantity of cut near Livingston and will haul and prepare it for fuel with a saw. He will also handle coal from the Maxwell mine in Canyon.

Is closing out at cost.

Rev. W. E. Archibald leaves on Monday for Cottage Grove, Minnesota, where he will spend the holidays. By his active and successful work in this city during the months past, Mr. Archibald has earned a pleasant season of recreation and we hope he will enjoy it.

Those choice cream candies and caramels have arrived at John O. Sax's News Depot. Main street.

L. R. Marston, the contractor who put up the brick and mason work on the Northern Pacific shops at Livingston, came in this morning on his way from Portland. He has been there for some time past figuring on the plans to erect the great system of shops to be built by the Northern Pacific Terminal company at Albina, across the river from Portland. He will probably take the work and begin upon it February 1.

Gilbert is closing out at cost.

E. S. Topping, writing from St. Paul to the Bozeman Chronicle, says: George Houston, Joe Keeney and Mr. Fogarty, left here for the east a few days ago, after a stay of several days. They represented Montana quite well, though Keeney nearly paralyzed a waiter at the Metropolitan by calling for the bouquet, when he wanted celery, and Houston will put napkins in his pockets. The latter became lost one night after leaving the opera. Ask him about it when he returns.

Gilbert is closing out at cost.

The people of Gardiner, who had until lately been getting their wood out of the Park at the expense of a liberal toll, are now cut off from that source of fuel entirely, and are forced to fall back on coal mined in the vicinity and sold at $12 per ton. The fact that dead wood was being taken out of the Park was reported to Secretary Teller, and he directed that it be stopped altogether. The Gardiner people think the man who reported it was meaner than he who robbed the poor-house hen roost.

Any one going to St. Paul will find it to their advantage to call at the Brewery saloon for tickets.

Birdseye Views of Livingston
 May be obtained at the ENTERPRISE office at $1 each or less for quantities. These views are lithographed on a fine quality of paper, 18x26 inches in size. They will make a beautiful and most acceptable present to friends living at a distance, and to secure their general distribution we place them at this low price.

This is but the beginning of what promises soon to become one of our leading industries. This shipment is all from the Montana Bell mine.

Black Catfish and His Band.

Correspondence of the Minneapolis Journal: Mr. Bacon of Poplar River, M. T., arrived at Standing Rock agency yesterday, in pursuit of Black Catfish and his followers. About 300 Yanktonais Indians have recently arrived from the Poplar River agency, many of whom are well armed and vehemently declare that they will not return to their reservation. In a conversation with a gentleman at the agency, Black Catfish said the Indians were dissatisfied with the present administration at the Poplar River agency, and that many of the Indians made several ineffectual attempts to run away before. Trouble of a serious character is imminent unless this obstinate chief is persuaded to return to Poplar river peaceably.

It now appears that the two men, Ryan and Berdley, who were arrested Monday night are wanted in several other places besides Dillon as many charges. It may turn out that this was a lucky find for Conley, King and Irvine.—Miles City Journal.

Announcement.

ALIAS SUMMONS.—Territory of Montana, County of Gallatin, ss. In justice court, before Newton Seward, justice of the peace. John P. Nolan, plaintiff, vs. E. F. Coughlin (whose christian name is to plaintiff unknown), defendant. The people of the territory of Montana, to E. F. Coughlin, greeting: You are hereby commanded to be and appear before the undersigned, one of the justices of the peace in and for said county, within ten days after the service of this summons upon you by publication, at my office at Livingston, in said county. The above action was brought to recover in the aggregate the sum of twenty-eight and 50-100 dollars; twenty-one and 50-100 dollars being for board and lodging alleged to have been furnished you at your request by the above plaintiff, at said Livingston, between Nov. 3rd, A. D. 1883, and Dec. 3rd, 1883, and seven dollars being for merchandise sold and delivered you, by Higgins & Ennis, at said Livingston, at your request during the month of November, A. D. 1883, the account of which, is alleged to have been assigned to the said plaintiff, for value, by Higgins & Ennis before the commencement of this action, and in pursuance to a writ of attachment issued in the above action, all money due and owing you from the Northern Pacific Railroad company has been attached. And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer to the plaintiff's complaint, the said plaintiff will take judgment against you in the sum of twenty-eight and 50-100 dollars and for the costs and disbursements of this action.
 Given under my hand this 7th day of December, 1883.
 NEWTON SEWARD,
 Justice of the Peace.
