

BUDDHA WON THE HANDICAP

The Crack Deerslayer Beaten by Hall's Good Colt.

BIG CROWD ON THE LAST DAY

Morris' Glendie Won the Congressional for Two-Year-Olds—Rusler, Miss Lillian Tantrus and the Peer Were the Other Winners—List of Winning Owners and Amounts.

If the Washington Jockey Club could have controlled all the elements that make perfect conditions for successful racing it would have been difficult for them to improve upon the last day of the meeting.

The weather was warm, almost hot, but the grandstand facing north started the spectators from the sun's glare.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel put away in the lead, but stumbled badly in the first few strides and fell back last. He soon recovered the lost ground and had joined Glendie and Torstenen half way down the stretch.

The Washington Handicap, the great event of the day, and of the meeting, was next on the card. The speculation on this event was many times greater than on any race of the meeting, and greater than on any spring event for years.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

It looked as if Atlantis would head the race, but Stanhope led Rusler out and he sailed in an easy winner by nearly two lengths.

Mr. Stoffel put away in the lead, but stumbled badly in the first few strides and fell back last. He soon recovered the lost ground and had joined Glendie and Torstenen half way down the stretch.

The Washington Handicap, the great event of the day, and of the meeting, was next on the card. The speculation on this event was many times greater than on any race of the meeting, and greater than on any spring event for years.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

It looked as if Atlantis would head the race, but Stanhope led Rusler out and he sailed in an easy winner by nearly two lengths.

Mr. Stoffel put away in the lead, but stumbled badly in the first few strides and fell back last. He soon recovered the lost ground and had joined Glendie and Torstenen half way down the stretch.

The Washington Handicap, the great event of the day, and of the meeting, was next on the card. The speculation on this event was many times greater than on any race of the meeting, and greater than on any spring event for years.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

Three favorites, a second choice, a third choice, and one outsider got the money. Of the defeated favorites, the venerable Sage of Hartford furnished the usual lust, and carried off thousands on the Congressional Stakes and the Handicap.

Mr. Stoffel and Mr. Torstenen, both winners of the race, were first away and alternated in the lead to the end. In the stretch, Miss Lillian drew away without trouble and finished first.

IT'S YOUR NERVES

It is the Condition of Your Nerves that Either Makes Your Life a Round of Pleasure or a Useless Burden.

In nervous diseases the physician is dealing with a condition of mind and body that occasions more misery than any other incurable ailment, and which is often the result of the struggle for existence.

Dr. Walker,

2411 Penna. Ave. Adj. Willard's Hotel

Has been treating this class of diseases in this city for many years. He has an extensive reputation for honesty, sincerity and thoroughness.

$5 A MONTH, Including All Medicines.

Is the highest fee charged by Dr. Walker, Daily office hours—10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday.

LYNCH A CANDIDATE

The Colored Leader Wants to Be an Auditor.

An urgent petitioner for the office of auditor for the N.Y. Trust Co. is ex-Congressman John R. Lynch, of Mississippi.

South African Stockbreeders' Needs.

Blank Cartridges for Cadets.

The Breath of the Sea.

COMFORT AND KNOWLEDGE.

(Sent free by mail).

Set aside for twenty-four hours a bottle or common glass filled with urine. A sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, relieves every kind of urinary ailment.

JUDGE HOLMAN'S FUNERAL

Interment Takes Place at Riverside Cemetery, Aurora, Today.

His Body Will Lie in State at His Late Home This Morning—Many Floral Offerings.

The remains of the late Judge W. S. Holman, accompanied by his family and the delegation appointed by Speaker Reed at the House, left Washington yesterday afternoon on the 3:40 train for Aurora.

The Mayor of Aurora yesterday telegraphed to Mr. Paul Holman, son of the deceased, the request that Judge Holman's body be allowed to lie in state at that city today.

The funeral has been arranged for this afternoon shortly after 12 o'clock the body will be removed to Judge Holman's old home, where funeral services will be held.

Many telegrams were received by the family yesterday from friends outside the city who had heard of Judge Holman's death.

Extortionate Charges for Places Along the Line of March.

London, April 9.—It is a little difficult even for me in the midst of the excitement to believe the stories that pour in every day about the preposterous sums of money speculators are paying for places along the route of the queen's procession on Jubilee Day.

Better Water Supply for Navy Yard.

The Commissioners have taken cognizance of the lack of water facilities at the navy yard, as developed on the occasion of the recent fire, and will probably have an investigation made with the view of providing a better supply.

Blank Cartridges for Cadets.

The Commissioners have made requisition upon the Secretary of War for 2,000 blank cartridges for the use of the battalion of the High School Cadets.

The Breath of the Sea.

They were walking up State street, the younger man obliging of the city and its doings, and the gray and grizzled old man stopped—stopped as shortly and as unexpectedly as though his progress had been arrested by a solid wall.

WHAT TO DO.

Reality or Sham! Which? Choose Which You Please!

Thoughtless folks encourage the latter and the frauds flourish. That you like honest, enterprising retailing is evidenced by your response—by the success of this store.

We have no time to give to schemes to temporarily increase this business, but stick to the legitimate—using the power of capital and brains—with an immense outlet to bring you worthy merchandise at the least possible prices.

$1 and $1.25 Skirts, 66c.

Tomorrow we put on sale an immense lot of ladies' "Fruit of the Loom" muslin skirts with fine Hamburg embroidery.

Wash Goods Bargains.

55 pieces fine corded lawns, in light shades, are being sold for 10c a yard about 20c for—

5c yard. 1,150 yards sheer India linen—secured from a jobber, at exactly a third off. You'll find the same quality in the other colors marked 10c a yard—this lot to go for 7c yard. Lining Sale. A few special prices showing the cause of this big lining business. None but the fine qualities here.

Natural genuine fiber chambray—stamped and warranted—the 35c quality for a day—

12c yard. 24-inch gray herringbone haircloth—to go for a day at

33c yard. Black and colored rustic percale including all the new light shades to go for a day at

6c yard. Yard-wide heavy twilled seersie, in black and all colors—to go for

6c yard. French percale in every desirable shade and white and black—the 12-12c sort to go for

9c yard. Best herringbone haircloth—the 12-12c sort to go for a day at

6c yard. Domestic Prices for a Day. Fruit-of-the-loom Muslin to go for a day at

5c yard. Yard wide fine Cambria, as good as Lonsdale, to go for a day at

6c yard. Squarish "Gambage" bleached sheeting to go for a day at

14c yard. Best American Indigo Blue Prints to go for a day at

3c yard. Double-fold feather-proof ticking—fancy striped—for which you usually pay 20c—for a day

12c yard. Wash Goods Bargains.

Monday morning we put on sale 5,000 yards of fine imported and French lawns—in the greatest variety of exquisitely pretty colorings.

8c yard. Goldenberg's, 926-928 7th-706 K Sts.

get to work now, for the jubilee medals alone, which sell for a penny or two—pieces of every form and device and as countless as the leaves of Valhalla.

The plans for perpetuating the day in history are almost as numerous. Every town in England is to have a hospital or a blind asylum or a railway station, a statue, a bath house, a cathedral, or something of the kind.

There is a great deal in the papers about the Queen doing this and the Queen doing that, but as a matter of fact the Queen has nothing to do with the matter at all.

Om Jack's Adieu. Sunday, Uncle Jack Gowdy, consul general to Paris, went out to the barn, slipped the old mare a feed farwell, threw an extra handful of corn to the chickens and looked reproachfully at the rafters decorated with cabbages and hayseed.