"It's just as Christy" good as the Christy!

Is the refrain you hear from manufacturers and agents of cheap bicycles, whose judgment, possibly, may be influenced by the fact that the CHRISTY ANATOMICAL SAFETY BICYCLE can't be bought for 50 cents—the average cost of the ordinary leather hammock saddle.

Insist that your wheel be fitted with the GENUINE CHRISTY SAFETY SADDLE, and no agent will lose a sale on account of your preference.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

Leo Wicka bears watching at Elkhorn. The nag is running in good form. Jockey Harrison was thrown at Aqueduct and badly injured yesterday. Overton received a bad scalp wound by being thrown off Tigerine at Newport. "Australian" Billy Murphy expects to leave for the antipodes in a few weeks. "Kid" Lavigne and Eddie Connolly will fight for the lightweight championship in New York tonight. First runner of "Philadelphia Free", after a scuffle with the "bullwags" in Maryland, has joined the "real birds". It is becoming more and more evident that racing on the Maryland track is nothing short of robbery. Demagogue, who ran away at Aqueduct on Monday, will not be allowed to run again at this track this meeting. At Elkhorn yesterday A. Dorsey was suspended for riding Reform with a battery. Southern, at 10 to 1, was given the race. Reform was heavily backed. Ben Eder and Harry Reed were sent a mile yesterday at a racing clip, and the former had much the best of the trial. When he starts it is good betting at any price, in any company, and at any distance. Charley McKeever will probably start for San Francisco tomorrow. He is to box George Green, better known as "Young Corbett", some time next month for a purse of $2,500. Billy Edwards will go to the coast with McKeever. At Victoria Hall, Melbourne, Australia, April 13, "Young Fitzsimmons," a nephew of the world's heavyweight champion, defeated Harry Raff in quick order in eight rounds. "Young Fitzsimmons" is a promising lightweight, and intends joining "Lanky Bob" at an early date. The London Sporting Life says that Larry Burns, of Newark, who went abroad with Sammy Kelly, and who is now in England, has been matched to box twenty rounds with Harry Greenfield, the late Alf Greenfield's nephew, at 125 pounds, at the Olympic Club, Birmingham, on May 3, for £250.

Ian Stuart said that arrangements have been made at Washington for a copyright of the pictures of the Fitzsimmons-Corbett fight. In order to make the copyright secure it was necessary to place with the Government two full copies of the fight. It requires five copies to secure the English copyright. A representative will be sent abroad next week to fix matters up there. The copyrights will cost $17,000. The judges at Memphis yesterday refused to permit the owner of Bannockburn to scratch his horse, which was quite lame. Opening at 1 to 3, the odds receded to even money. Bannockburn became a 4 to 5 favorite. Lambeck took the lead at the fall of the flag, and although practically running on three feet, won easily by two lengths from Inabe. Bannockburn pulled up extremely lame and hobbled back to the judges' stand.

GAMES TODAY.
Boston at Washington.
New York at Baltimore.
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
Pittsburg at Cincinnati.
Chicago at Louisville.
Cleveland at St. Louis.

With the score tied at the close of the tenth inning, and with night drawing its sable curtains over the landscape, Umpire Hurst very judiciously called the game between the Senators and the Bostons at National Park yesterday afternoon.

There was no complaint on account of the verdict of the "Master of the Field," and the fans went home to cold dinners fully satisfied with their afternoon's entertainment.

It was a fairly good expose of the game and that the score remained close kept the audience on the qui vive from the start until the last batter had been retired in the extra inning.

It was not so much the remarkable playing of the clubs either that held the rapt attention of the spectators as the decisions of the umpire. A couple of decisions by Hurst put Boston beyond the pale of winning, and he stayed the Senators from victory in the same manner.

Hurst called Duffy out on strikes in the fifth, as he should, the score would have resulted 3 to 2 as things turned out, or had he declared Reilly safe at first in the tenth, which he was, the Senators would have won. That is the home side of it.

But on the other hand, Timothy gave two close decisions against the visitors, either of which awarded in their favor would have allowed them to win.

However, leaving what might have been, an abiding discussion of the contest in the abstract and coming down to plain, cold facts, Capt. Tom Brown saved a defeat and in another way repeated his brilliant work of the day previous. It was his bold, daring run home in the seventh, amounting almost to a steal, which tied the score and blocked a beating.

"Doc" McJames and young Mr. Sullivan were pitted against one another on the rubber, and the boys fully maintained their reputation as "warriors" of the "Whirling Fraternity." The disciple of Esculapian was hit the oftener and a trifle harder than the Emersonian, but Jimmy kept his hinges scattered, and only suffered a succession of shots in the fifth, when Gannett pounded him for a three-batter and Sullivan and Hamilton followed with singles.

McGuire caught in "old reliable" form, the stand-by having six putouts and three assists to his credit. He threw Champion base-runner Hamilton out twice at second on attempts to steal.

Johnny O'Brien and Charley Reilly were strong factors in the game, both playing in the most brilliant manner. In fact, the infielders of both teams accepted a large number of chances and left the guardians of the outer gardens very little to do.

The President's box was occupied for the first time, Attorney General McKenna and Mr. Hazelton, of the editorial staff of the San Francisco Chronicle, christening the neat little pagoda on the roof. The distinguished gentlemen enjoyed the contest to the utmost and remained until the last man was out.

It was ladies' day, and the fair fans were present by thousands. The prognostication of April showers by the Weather Bureau had a tendency to make them curtail a display of their finery, and the grand stand lacked the effulgence of color seen on other days less threatened by the clouds.

Neither side scored in the opening inning and the Senators drew a blank in the second. In the third Reilly took a hit, but Capt. Brown could not come to the aid of the runner on base. Reilly got in the way of a pitched ball, and after making a great ad over the matter, walked to first. Sullivan continued his witness and gave McJames a free kick to Tenney's corner, passing Reilly to second. Abbey whisked the ball to short, but Long erred and booted it about the field and Reilly scored. "Doc" went down to third during the melee, but Abbey, in trying to reach second, was caught from Collins to Long to Lewis. DeMontreville then came up and stung the leather hot for Long to handle with good aim to Tenney, and McJames scored. Gene tried to steal second, but was nailed from Gannett to Long, retiring the side, with two tallies to the good.

The Senators harvested their third and last tally in the seventh. After O'Brien had been put up by Tenney, unassisted, at first and Cartwright along by which Stahl squared, Brown hit down the first base line and by a wonderful burst of speed beat

WE ARE DESPERATE!

Four Floors of Summer Clothing to Be Slaughtered in Fifteen Days.

As an evidence of good faith, we reproduce the permit which has been issued for the rebuilding of the New York Clothing House. Upward of $10,000 is to be spent in remodeling the interior of this store, and the work MUST begin May 15. A passenger elevator, metal ceilings, large skylights in every floor and a complete remodeling of the front is a part of the work that is to be done. Every dollar's worth of our new summer stock is being sacrificed—Men's Suits, Boy's Suits, Children's Suits—EVERY THING! You will never see prices like these again.

LUSH GOES TO TORONTO.

Ashe and Kimble Also Relinquished to Minor Leagues.

The ax fell in the Senators camp yesterday and three players lost their heads. Outfielder Billy Lush was notified to report to Toronto and Pitchers Ashe and Kimble were informed that they, too, would have to take further seasoning in minor company before they could be considered safe enough for the big league. Ashe will go to Newport, R. I., and Kimble will probably join Lush at Toronto. Lush left for Toronto yesterday afternoon.

Cornell's Spring Games.

Ithaca, April 30.—The annual spring games of Cornell Athletic Club were held here this afternoon. Summary: Mile walk, won by E. C. Zeller, second, R. L. Hastings, time, 7:22. Two-mile bicycle exhibition, paced, R. L. Ludwig, broke Cornell record by 4 1-3 seconds, time, 8:45. Broad jump, won by G. B. Backer, distance, 21 feet 1 inch. Sixteen-pound shot put, won by A. Buerder, distance, 37 feet 3 inches.

The Last of Boston.

The popular Boston team will wind up their spring series in Washington with the Senators at National Park this afternoon. The visitors will try hard to take one victory away with them, and Capt. Duffy will put in his star pitcher, Charley Nichols. For the Senators either King or Norton will toe the rubber.
