At the time of his death Mr. Temple was engaged to Miss Mary E. Rose, and, although the engagement was known to but a few intimate friends, the young people were looking forward to a bright and happy wedding.

Very Much Pleased With the Manner in Which the Torpedo Boat Is Handled.

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt has made his official report to the Secretary of the Navy of the trip he took on the Porter.

On reaching Bridgeport I found that the trial of the Nashville had been deferred on account of the weather, and instead of returning by train, I thought I would take the opportunity for a run on the torpedo boat Porter.

When we crossed the sound to Oyster Bay in fifteen minutes, going at an average speed of 25 knots. It was like riding a high-speed train.

There was no bow wave, and when we got out of shoal water hardly any stern wave. Altogether I was delighted with her.
