Billie Duke Training Fast.

Billie Duke, who will have a go with Larry McDonald early next month, writes a friend in this city that he is getting him-self in fine shape and is confident of besting the District boxer. McDonald is training near Martinsburg, W. Va., and will be in the best of condition when the fight comes off. There will be plenty of McDonald coin in town, as Larry's friends feel that their man will win out That the two will make a rattling bout es without saying, and the sports in town will get a good run for their money.

Mackey Will Back Burton. wreatler, is ready to back Samuel Burton against Jake Luskey for $100 or $200 a side, and is ready at any time to draw up articles and post a forfeit. Mackey says that if Luskey does not accept the Burton challenge, he will himself agree to wrestle the northeast lad, and back himself. As Luskey claims the amateur championship of the District, Mackey feels as though his challenge should be accepted. Mackey also stands ready to meet Harry Lee, and is pre-pared to sign almost any kind of articles of agreement. Some one of the numerous wrestlers should accommodate this youthful gladiator.

A NEW CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

WHAT A PHYSICIAN SAYS.

It gives me pleasure, after having satisfied myself of the therapeutical efficacy of Oil Polynice, to give it my conscientious innorsement.

I have assisted in various experiments which were made at the Hospital Civique, of which I am in charge at Montreal, the cases experimented on including rinematism, dyspepsia, pneumonia, etc., and I must say in all sincerty that I was astonished on each occasion with the marvelous and prampt efficacy of this treatment, and with the radical cures which usually followed its employment.

I must forther say that this oil, notwithstanding its power, has had no deleterious effects in any of these cases.

Clement Willis, who died on Wednesday, was buried yesterday from the Sineteenth Street Baptist Church. In point of length of service Clement was the oldest employe of the Columbia Athletic Club, in the ervice of which he had spent many years His bonesty and faithfulness gained him the respect and friendship of all the mem-ters of that organization, as was testified in the last days of his illness. The clui has signified its intention to arrange for the payment of the funeral expenses and also the expense incurred during his last

NATIONAL GUARD TARGET SHOOT

Good Scores Made by the Fifth Bat talion at Ordway. The Fifth Battalion of the District Na tional Guard shot at the rifle range at Ordway yesterday afternoon, in the regular annual parade and target practice of the trigode. Lieut, George C. Shaw, inspector of rifle practice for the Fifth Battalion was the officer in charge of the ritle range. About forty men were out, and as a rule the shooting was very good, high scores in a way that the marksmen could not let as unnoticed. As it was, the gentle breeze was just strong enough to swing many of the bullets a fraction out of the direct course. The wind was not far deflection, however. The annual parade and target practice of the bugads, which has been on during with the annual meet of the National Rifle Association of the District. The present shooting is merely for the purpose of getting every man in the brigade out to the rifle wikes and Royal streets today, fell from range and compelling him to shoot his a ladder about eighteen feet and was annual outdoor score, so that it can go down on the records of his command. It is in the nature of a final test examination to see what scores the men can make as the result of their preliminary practice So far five battailons have shut, and today and tomorrow the Engineer Separate Battalion will for their sco. Next month the second annual meeting of the National Rifle Association will be held at Ordway, when a number of matches will be shot off for prizes.

RECORD-BREAKING TRIALS.

Gentry and Robert J. Perform on the Syracuse Track.

Syracuse, Aug. 26.-Fully 35,000 persons attended the State fair today and 18,900 crowded into the grandstands, while the majority of the remainder thronged about the half-mile track to witness the record-breaking trial of John R. Gentry and Robert J.

The track was fast and the day fair and cool. The trial of speed by Gentry and Robert J. was satisfactory to the big crowd and elicited roars of approval when the time was announced. Gentry broke the track ecord. His time by quarters: 0:32, 1:04, 1:36, 2.06 1-2.

Robert J. broke the State record by a performance of 0:31 1-4; 1:01 3-4; 1:34 and 2:05 3-4. For the appearance of the famous pair the fair managers had to put up a guarantee of $1,000 and 50 per cent of the gate receipts on the day of the trial, which Receiver Appointed for the Old Dominion Insurance Company.

Explosion of Gasoline Stoves-Examinations for Public School Teachers.

Alexandria, Aug. 26 .- As stated in The 3 2 5 Times, an attachment was levied yester-Pority Wilkes, Chazy Boy, Nicola, Phil- day against the Old Dominion Insurance Company, of this city, to secure the payment of a claim. Capt. Mushbach, attorney for the claimant, has secured from Judge Nicol, of the circuit court, an injunction restraining the company from dis-posing of its effects. He also had the affairs of the company placed in the hands of a receiver, Mr. Douglass Stuart being appointed to take charge of the affairs of the company.

It is shown by the stock books of the ompany that the original issue of capital stock was divided up among the in corporators of the company and their wives to a considerable extent, Thomas A. P. Chamberlin and Mary E., his wife; Willis B. Smith and Evangeline C., his wife: E. W. McCormick and Mary S., his wife, having several hundred shares each. The parties named were all residents of Washington Among the present stockbolders are I. H. Evans, A. W. Henderson and C. H. Burroughs, of this city. The last statement made to the auditor of public accounts was on March 31, 1897, when it was claimed that the assets consisted in part of $30,000 of first racingage liens on property worth $65,000, and stocks and bonds of the market value of $95,775.

Shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon a gasoline stove exploded, at the residence of Mr. F. L. Entwisie, on South Fairfax street, and set fire to the building. Mr. Entwiste put out the fire with an extinguisher, not, however, before a lot of clothing had been descroyed. Mr. Entwiste secured an ax and demolished what remained of the stove, declaring that he would never permit one to be brought on his premises again.
