A DRUMMER'S WISE REMARKS

The Dude's Idea Is All Right, but He Exaggerates It Until He Makes Himself a Caricature—It Takes a Well-Balanced Mind to Strike a Happy Medium.

While waiting for a chance to talk to the great provider the quill-driver happened to get into conversation with a clothing drummer who was quite a philosopher in his way.

"Have you ever read 'Sartor Resartus'?" he inquired.

"The name of the pen had to confess that he had not."

"Of course, it is exaggerated, but there is a good deal of shrewd philosophy in the book."

"In a semi-serious way it makes out that the clothes make the man. Of course, that isn't so, but they have more influence on a man's career than some people think."

"Take my business, for instance. A well-dressed salesman makes a better impression and can do more business than a poorly dressed one. His clothes are part of his stock in trade."

"What sort of clothing do these people buy?" inquired the pen-pusher.

"The very best, brother, and they sell them far too cheap, too."

"I can't see how they can afford to sell so cheap and give credit, too," he continued. "But they are not the grasping sort, who want to make a hundred per cent profit."

GEN. WEYLER LOSING HOPE

Probably Sees the Beginning of the War's End.

IMPORTANT POST ABANDONED

Spanish Residents of Jiguani, Bayamo and Holguin Greatly Alarmed Over the Prospect of Being Left to the Mercy of the Insurgents—Suffering of Spanish Soldiers.

Havana, via Key West, Sept. 17.—That the beginning of the end of the Cuban war is near is undoubtedly the decision forced upon Gen. Weyler. The extraordinary activity of the insurgent army in the six provinces has compelled him to abandon the inland parts of the provinces of Puerto Principe and Santiago de Cuba to the revolutionists and concentrate the Spanish forces at the seaports, where they can be supported by the Spanish navy.

The important military station of Pinaro in Santiago de Cuba province has been abandoned by the Spanish troops. The Spanish residents of Jiguani, Bayamo and Holguin, in the same province, are greatly alarmed by the prospect of being left to the mercy of the insurgents. In spite of the orders he has received from Madrid not to abandon Bayamo, the captain general has replied to the Spanish merchants of that town that the most he can promise them is to do his best, without guarantee.

TAMMANY INVITING DEFEAT

Democratic Voters Much Opposed to the Policy of Evasion.

A Letter From Mr. Bryan Begging All True Democrats to Stand by Their Principles.

New York, Sept. 17.—One of the most prominent Tammany Hall leaders received today a letter from William J. Bryan, in which Mr. Bryan begs all straightforward Democrats to stand by the principles laid down in the Chicago platform of 1896. Notwithstanding this, Leader John C. Shaban has instructed all of the Tammany leaders to see to it that only such delegates are sent to the city convention on September 30 as will obey orders in carrying out the policy to evade all mention of the Chicago national platform of 1896. Bernard J. York, for the McLaughlin organization in Brooklyn, has issued similar orders, and the same instructions have been given to the Democratic leaders in Queens and Richmond counties.

The orders of Mr. Shaban and Mr. York, it was declared, are the direct result of the action of the Democratic State committee in ignoring the Chicago platform of 1896. Those fully acquainted with the situation say that the 551,369 Democratic voters last year will not be so easily controlled. A number of Democratic State committee members gave this testimony.

They said that they had no disposition to appear to criticize the policy dictated by Senator Murphy and ex-Senator Hill. They would not be expected to tell Mr. Murphy on his visit to New York that the Democratic voters in the country districts are very much opposed to the policy of evasion and antipathy.

It is the general opinion that Tammany is inviting a crushing rebuke at the polls.

BERING SEA CONTROVERSY.

Lord Salisbury's Reply to Secretary Sherman Made Public.

London, Sept. 17.—The foreign office has issued a Blue Book of 130 pages, containing the correspondence with the United States government respecting the seal fisheries in the Bering sea, containing 107 dispatches, covering the period from the beginning of 1895 to July, 1897.

Lord Salisbury, replying to Secretary of State Sherman's famous dispatch of May 10, 1897, sent a short note to Ambassador Hay on July 28, in which he said:

"I have to state that His Majesty's government are willing to agree to a meeting of experts, nominated by Great Britain, Canada and the United States in October next, when further investigations to be made on the islands during the present season will have been completed."

"The only objection would be to arrive at correct conclusions respecting the numbers, conditions and habits of the seals frequenting the Pribyloff Islands at the present time, as compared with several seasons previous, and subsequent to the present season."

"It seems to her majesty's government that Washington would be the most suitable place for such a meeting."

"The other portions of Mr. Sherman's dispatch, in so far as they require any reply from her majesty's government, have been answered by anticipation in dispatches which I addressed to her majesty's ambassador at Washington, on April 2 and May 7 last, and which have been communicated to the Government of the United States."

A "MEDIUM" ARRESTED.

Robert Lang Charged With Poisoning a Woman.

Louisville, Sept. 17.—Robert Lang, a spiritualist medium, was arrested today on the charge of poisoning Mrs. Sabra M. Gates, a widow sixty-three years old, who died Wednesday night. Her son, Rufus, says that she was a believer in spiritualism and was anxious to become a medium. She had met Lang at seances and he had persuaded her that he could teach her to have a mediumistic power. He did so by administering medicines and putting her into trances. In the meantime he induced her to let him have all the money she had in bank, about $200, and her watch.

On Wednesday morning he gave her a glass of "manicotti" water, after which she was to go into a trance. She felt consciousness, but she never woke up and died a few hours later. Coroner Hood was called and after an investigation ordered Lang's arrest. Some of the dead woman's property was found in his possession, but he denied that he had poisoned her.

Lang is in jail. He will be given a preliminary hearing after Coroner Hood has reported the result of his autopsy.

SPREAD OF YELLOW FEVER.

Nine New Cases in New Orleans and Two in Mobile.

New Orleans, Sept. 17.—The State board of health today reported nine new cases of yellow fever here and one death. Mobile reports two new cases of fever, three suspects and one death. Ocean Springs reports three new cases.

The reports of the State board of health today reported nine new cases of fever. The nine cases reported here today were very widely scattered, and there are now sixteen localities in which the disease is prevailing.

ARROYO HACKED TO DEATH

President Diaz's Assailant the Victim of Mob Law.

BREAK INTO THE CITY HALL

Lynchers Battered the Unfortunate Man With Stiletos and Then Slashed His Lifeless Body—Number of Persons Arrested Charged With Participating in the Crime.

City of Mexico, Sept. 17.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning, Arnaldo Arroyo, who assailed President Diaz yesterday, was literally hacked to death by a mob in the city hall.

Yesterday afternoon the examination of Arroyo was conducted by the chief of police, Col. Velasquez, in order to determine the antecedents of the prisoner, his motive in the assault on Gen. Diaz, and, if possible, whether or not, as was broadly hinted, there was a conspiracy to take the life of the President.

When Arroyo was taken into the office of the chief of police yesterday he was in a desperate condition. His clothes were torn, he was hatless and his long hair was disheveled. His face was distorted with pain and his eyes had been bruised. He showed no signs of fear. On the other hand, he began to act like a madman and finally worked himself up to such a frenzy that it became necessary to put him in a straight-jacket.

He fructed at the month like a wild animal and lashed out that he had really intended to kill Gen. Diaz and wanted to do it with the president's own sword. Arroyo, becoming exhausted towards the evening, was given some food and later the straight jacket was removed, so that he could sleep, the intention being to continue the investigation early this morning.

Accounts vary as to the number of lynchers, but from one hundred to two hundred, judging by the condition of the rooms this morning, must have entered the city hall. The mob had gathered as if moved by common impulse. The men broke through the doors and rushed into the front room, where the covering would be as easy as a feather. The cell doors offered little resistance to the determined lynchers, having been constructed of wood with glass panels. They were broken into splinters.

Martin Sanchez, an officer, and Antonio Milner, a policeman, attempted to stay the advance of the mob, at first pleading in the name of the law, and then threatening to fill the invaders, but they were hunted to one side and pummeled by the citizens. The lynchers, with drawn stiletos, then proceeded to ruthlessly butcher their victim. Those who failed to get an opportunity to stab the prisoner while alive satisfied their thirst for vengeance by hacking his lifeless body to pieces.

Not a single member of the mob left the hall until he had thus individually shared in the execution of one who had dared to assault the president of the republic.

Special Officer Cabrera, who was taking a nap in his office, when the mob entered the hall, was powerless to check its advance. After being repeatedly assaulted he ran to a window and fired his pistol for assistance. A number of police fearfully responded and succeeded in arresting about a score of persons after the lynchers had left the city hall, and there is doubt as to whether these arrested participated in the crime at all.

They will be subjected to a thorough examination in the police station in Callesverre tomorrow, and if sufficient evidence is adduced upon which to hold them in trial, they will be confined in jail upon a charge of murder.

Such a trial would be a novel proceeding, as the charge of lynching has never been preferred against any person in the annals of criminal jurisprudence of this republic.

TRAGEDY AT PORT ALMA.

Three Young Girls Lose Their Lives in a Fire.

Chatham, Ont., Sept. 17.—A terrible tragedy took place at Port Alma, on the shore of Lake Erie, early this morning, whereby the three daughters of Preston Warnock, a well-to-do farmer, lost their lives.

This morning, about 3 o'clock, Mr. Howard awoke, suffocating, and found the house a mass of flames. He escaped with his wife and three sons through the windows. One of the three girls got out of the house, but was unable to reach the flames, attempting to save her sisters, and by her heroism sacrificed her life.

Two of the boys are badly burned, and Mrs. Howard, who also rushed into the flames in a vain attempt to save her daughters, is seriously burned, though not fatally injured. The cause of the fire is not known.

BRAVE MRS. HERRICK.

Engaged in a Victorious Combat With a Burglar.

Wellington, Ohio, Sept. 17.—At 1 o'clock this morning Mrs. T. R. Herrick, mother of Col. Myron T. Herrick, the Cleveland banker, who is a close friend of President McKinley, was aroused by a noise in her house. She quickly made a light and secured a revolver. She found the front door forced open, and as she stepped out a man jumped from behind a clump of shrubbery and attempted to seize her. She fired point blank and as the rascal started to run, she aimed carefully and hit him. This time the man fell but regained his feet and escaped.

HOLIDAYBURG'S BLACK FRIDAY.

Holidayburg, Pa., Sept. 17.—This is black Friday in Holidayburg. One year ago today the late of Gardner, Morrow & Co. failed with $400,000 in debts and assets only sufficient to pay 3 cents on the dollar. Black flags floated on the fronts of business establishments, while mourning bands were pinned on the front doors of the residences, and these symbols of financial sorrow were seen in evidence. On the bank's front door was posted a red letter notice: "This institution will pay 100 cents on the dollar. Nt."

A DISASTROUS WRECK.

Mistake in Orders Results in the Death of Five People.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Sept. 17.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the Wisconsin Central six miles west of here at 4 o'clock this morning, resulting in the death of five people and the serious injury of four others. Two freight trains, through a mistake in orders, while going forty miles an hour met on a curve. The dead are: Engineer Warren; Engineer Smith; Fireman Miller; Brakeman Miller.

Two brakemen were rescued from the wreck about 7 o'clock. Both are seriously injured. Two passengers in the coaches are slightly injured. The names of the latter could not be learned, but it is reported that they were stockmen from Minneapolis attending the fair in this city. It is not known where the blame lies, but it is presumed that both trains were given the right of way.

AN ACTOR'S DRUNKEN DEED.

Augustus Cook Stabs His Wife in the Back of the Head.

New York, Sept. 17.—Augustus Cook, an actor in a drunken rage today picked up a knife and slashed his wife around the house. When Lizzie Hunter, the servant, tried to wrest the knife from him, he stabbed her in the right hand. He then stabbed his wife in the back of the head.

Cook was locked up. Mrs. Cook, it was said, was not seriously wounded, the stab wound being three inches in length, being superficial.

Cook played the role of Napoleon in Katherine Kloder's company in "Sardanios."

THE VERSAILLES LYNCHING.

Judge New Refers to the Mob in Scathing Terms.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 17.—The grand jury investigation into the lynching of five men at Versailles, early Wednesday morning, was begun today.

Judge New instructed the jury fully in the law, and referred to the mob in scathing terms. He expressed confidence in the jury and urged them not to let anything stand in the way of the discharge of their duty, no matter upon whom suspicion might fall. Subpoenas were issued for a number of citizens who are known to have witnessed the hangings and who are believed to have recognized members of the mob. It is said a number of voices were recognized and the prosecutor appears to have learned in some way the names of many citizens who had the opportunity of seeing who composed the mob.

Deputy Attorney General Moore, who was sent to the scene of the Versailles lynching by Gov. Mount, returned today and submitted his report to the executive. He said that he had conferred with the judge and the prosecutor of Ripley county, and was satisfied that they could leave nothing undone to bring the mob to justice. Upon receiving the report, the governor addressed letters to the judge and prosecutor, commending their zeal and of feeling any assistance that might be necessary to preserve order and vindicate the law.
