

Lansburgh & Bro.

It is wonderful to see the crowds of eager shoppers always in our busy store. We keep 350 people pretty well occupied all day long waiting on our patrons. It is a pleasure and a satisfaction, and yet with all the good values, We Give Trading Stamps.

The green ones—the original kind. The kind you have started your book with. Every ten cents' worth you purchase entitles you to a stamp. It is so easy to fill a book and secure some useful article in exchange for your book. Try it. It really is fascinating. You surely are an exception if you have not already started a book.

You can save money by buying our Linings. They are today, and always have been, of the finest quality and at the lowest prices.

DEBUTANTES AND BRIDES

Innocent Rivalry of These Two Favorites of Society.

FOR SOCIAL RECOGNITION

Weddings That Will Be Solemnized During the Week—Doings of the World of Fashion—Buds That Will Soon Blossom Into Belles of Washington Society.

Brides are interesting beyond words, but the time has come when they can no longer monopolize social attention and must share their honors with the debutantes who are developing a pleasant activity in sending out cards. The dates so far announced, however, do not conflict with the weddings, which seem to grow more numerous as the month wears on.

Among the marriages set for Tuesday is that of Miss Maud Noble to Mr. James S. Barjan, which will take place at St. John's Church at noon. Two little girls, Yale Noble and Elizabeth Barjan, niece, respectively, of the bride and groom, will attend as flower girls, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Edgar, of New York, Miss Constance Satterlee, daughter of the bishop of Washington, Miss Rowell, of St. Louis, Miss Ernest, Miss James and Miss Harlan. The ceremony will be officiated by a wedding breakfast at the Feltan residence on Massachusetts avenue.

On Tuesday morning, also, will occur the wedding of Miss Henrietta Coulson and Mr. Franklin C. Conant, which will take place at St. Abbot's Church, Rev. Father Gillespie, officiating. The bride will be given away by her uncle, Gen. Le Fevre, at whose residence, in Le Droit Park, a breakfast will be given to the wedding party prior to the departure of the couple for Chicago.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the New York Avenue Church, Miss Frances Lane White, daughter of Mr. George H. B. White, and Louise M. White, daughter of Mr. Charles Morris Ireland, formerly of Maryland, but for several years past a resident of this city.

Two little nieces of the bride, Mariel Kendall, daughter of Mrs. George Kendall, of New York, and Louise M. White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. White, will be her only attendants. The ushers will be Messrs. Albert W. Thompson and Artemus B. Paul, of Baltimore; J. S. Busk, of Boston; J. Clement, of Philadelphia; Mr. W. P. Lockwood and Harry G. Moore, of New York. Mr. Grant Burroughs will act as best man.

Also on Wednesday, at the Sixth Presbyterian Church, Miss Dora Newton Knight and Mr. Edward A. Muir will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony, by the groom's father, Rev. Dr. J. J. Muir, assisted by Rev. Dr. W. Skellenger. The brother of the groom, Mr. John G. Muir, will attend as best man, and the maid of honor will be Miss Clara B. Knight, sister of the bride.

At Christ Church, in Georgetown, on Wednesday evening, Rev. Albert Rhettt Sturt, pastor, will solemnize the marriage of Miss Mary Howard Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Peck, to Mr. George Baker Hillman, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Miss Elizabeth Wright Davis, of New York, will be maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, and the groom will be served by Mr. Frederick Thompson, a best man. The ushers will be Mr. John Turner, Mr. Ralph Hillman, of South Bethlehem, Pa.; Dr. Charles A. Minor, Mr. H. E. Higgins, of Louisville, Ky.; Assistant Engineer George W. Laws, U. S. N., and Mr. John Farinham. A reception to the bridal party and intimate friends will be given at the Peck residence, 1639 Thirty-first street, after which the couple will leave for their future home in Wilkes-Barre.

St. Peter's Church will be the scene of a wedding on Wednesday next, at 3:30 o'clock, when Miss Mary Grace Coleman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Coleman, will become the wife of Mr. Charles W. Semmes.

Miss Jennie Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brown, of Rock Creek Church road, and Mr. William T. Abbott will be united in marriage at 7 o'clock, on Thanksgiving eve, in the Rock Creek Church, Rev. Edward M. Mott officiating.

Miss Grace Virginia Guard, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guard, and Mr. Hugh Raymond Insley, will be married Wednesday at Calvary Baptist Church.

Miss Marion Maude Fellows, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fellows, and Mr. John Webster Davison will be married at 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening, at St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral Church.

Miss Sarah Bessie McManis and Mr. Thomas Howard Brooks will be married at noon on Thanksgiving Day at St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

A farewell party, in honor of Mr. Howard S. Mather, who is about to leave for a bicycle trip to the West, was given last night at his residence, No. 616 M street northwest, by Miss Mildred E. Johnson. Among the guests present were the Misses Bertie Huxley, Katie Brown, Etta Webster, and others.

Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, 1825 Massachusetts avenue, will present her daughter, Miss Charlotte Hopkins, to society at a reception to be given Monday, November 29, from 4 o'clock until 7.

The All-Club, as is their gracious custom, will celebrate Thanksgiving Day with a tea next Thursday afternoon at their club house, 1806 I street.

Mrs. Cassella has sent out cards for a 5 o'clock tea to be given December 3 in honor of her youngest daughter, Miss Elsie Cassella, and her niece, Miss Grace Edes, both of whom will be presented to society on that occasion.

At the marriage of Miss Julia Halsey Meen, the daughter of Gen. John G. Meen, of Virginia, and Mr. Randolph Harrison, which occurred at Lynchburg on Tuesday
