FUNERAL OF GEN. ORDWAY

Elaborate Preparations Made for the Obsequies.

IMPOSING MILITARY PAGEANT

Religious Services to Be Held at St. John's Episcopal Church and at the Grave—Regular Troops and District Guard in the Cortege—Salutes to Be Fired.

The remains of Brig. Gen. Albert Ordway, commander-in-chief of the militia of the District, will be interred at Arlington Cemetery today with military honors. All arrangements for the funeral were made at a meeting of the regimental and Lattin command and general staff officers held last evening at National Guards armory. The arrangements were discussed in detail.

According to the general order issued yesterday, the District troops were to have attended the funeral in full dress regulation uniform, but the change in the weather made it advisable to change this order last night and it was decided that the militia would wear their fatigue uniforms and overalls. In case the change in the weather this morning will warrant it still another order may be sent out in reference to this matter.

The religious service will be held at St. John's Episcopal Church at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. Dr. Mackay-Smith, rector of the church, officiating. The body of Gen. Ordway will be conveyed to the church from his late residence on a caisson in charge of a sergeant from the Fourth Cavalry.

The procession from the home of Gen. Ordway to the church will move along M street to Sixteenth street, then south to the church. As the procession passes the military bands are ordered to assemble and form at 1:15 p. m. on Sixteenth street, facing east, the right resting on I street and the left on H street.

The District militia, together with a platoon of cavalry from Fort Myer and a platoon of field artillery from the Washington Barracks, are ordered to assemble and form at 1:15 p. m. on Sixteenth street, facing east, the right resting on I street and the left on H street.

GERMANY SENDS WARSHIPS. She Intends to Keep a Foothold in China. Berlin, Nov. 23.—It is rumored that it is the intention of the government to dispatch the war ships Deutschland, Kaiserin, Zingst and Gefion to the China station to reinforce the squadron of Admiral Diederichs, which a few days ago seized Kiaochow Bay, on the Shandong coast.

The report seems to be true, and it is probable that the vessels will sail on December 10. It is possible that the barbed wire will accompany the other warships. It is further suggested that the new contingent will be commanded by Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of Emperor William, but this is conjectural.

Whether Germany will retain Kiaochow Bay depends largely upon the attitude of Russia, which country, it is understood, has already acquired from China the right for her warships to winter in the bay. It appears to be a fact, however, that Germany will not abandon her intention to obtain a foothold at Kiaochow Bay or elsewhere in China.

It becomes increasingly evident that the recent murder of two German missionaries furnished a pretext which the government had long awaited. In fact of the more important prospects in China the Italian affair has receded into the background.

It is announced that the training ships Charlotte and Giesendorf are quite ready to enforce the German claims at Port au Prince. It is concurrently explained that Capt. Scherwin, the German minister to Haiti, will not demand indemnification for the empire, but only for Herr Loeders personally.

GEN. BLANCO DISPLEASED. The Election of President Maso Will Retard Antonomy. Havana, Nov. 23.—The news of the election of the Cuban president has greatly displeased Gen. Blanco, because Senor Bartolome Maso, the new president, is well-known in Cuba for his uncompromising hostility to Spain, and during the two years he will be president there is not the least hope that any arrangement will be made between Cuban and Spanish governments.

Even an attempt to treat with the military commanders scattered throughout the island without regard to the cabinet, is considered useless, as Bartolome Maso will be a decisive influence over the army from Gen. Gomez down to the last soldier.

Gen. Blanco has sent the following dispatch to the minister of the colonies, Senor Moret, in Madrid: "The election in the Managua of Bartolome Maso, as president, greatly complicates matters with regard to a peaceful settlement in the East. He is stubborn and proud of his tenacity, which gives him so much popularity among the young men in the Cuban ranks. Any attempt to approach him will, in my opinion, be unsuccessful, and, furthermore, the risk would also be incurred that he would avail himself of the occasion to make a noise and pose once more as an irreconcilable."

Consultation Free. BULLET PIERCED HIS LUNG

Young Fred Burligh Is Found Wounded by the Roadside.

Indications Point to Suicidal Intent, Though He Claimed the Shooting to Have Been Accidental.

Fred Burligh, seventeen years old, lies in an unconscious condition at Freedman's Hospital with a bullet hole through his lung. The wound was self-inflicted, but whether done by accident or only suicidal intent is not known, and only the lad himself can tell. The boy's father, John Burligh, is a horticulturist and lives at Mount Eber, Montgomery county, Md. Mrs. Burligh lives apart from her husband, somewhere in Washington, but her exact address is not known, as the boy has not been able to state and impart to the authorities the whereabouts of his parents.

The indications pointed to his having attempted suicide while he was making his way along the railroad. He was taken to Gaithersburg, to the office of Dr. McCormack, who temporarily dressed his wounds, and sent the injured youth to Freedman's Hospital, where he was placed in a ward. A message had been sent in advance, and an ambulance met the train at the Baltimore and Ohio depot and conveyed the boy to Freedman's Hospital. When first admitted, Burligh told Dr. Warfield and Dr. Williams, who attended him, that he had carried the pistol in his pocket and had taken it out to repair his gun, as it would not work well. In doing so, he had inadvertently placed the muzzle against his breast, and while he was looking down at the weapon it was accidentally fired.

There is much reason to believe that the boy attempted suicide, as the story of the alleged accident is not a plausible one, though no reason can be assigned for the deed. It is supposed that strained relations between his father and mother, and that he had carried the pistol in his pocket and had taken it out to repair his gun, as it would not work well. In doing so, he had inadvertently placed the muzzle against his breast, and while he was looking down at the weapon it was accidentally fired.

YOUNG BRIDEGROOM KILLED. His Body Picked Up in Dead Man's Gulch.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 23.—On Saturday morning John Koser and his bride, Miss Guse, stood in St. Mary's cathedral and were made man and wife. This morning the young husband's mangled body was found in a trench near the railroad station. The body was picked up in a trench known as "Dead Man's Gulch," owing to the many killings there.

A photograph of his bride was found in the dead groom's hand. The man was found about thirty feet by the engine and, evidently regained consciousness, but died before assistance arrived.

GOVERNMENT TO MAKE A BID

At the Sale of the Kansas Pacific Railroad.

Reorganization Committee of the Union Pacific Will Not Oppose Such a Bid When Made.

New York, Nov. 23.—Interest was taken today in a report from Washington to the effect that the Government intended to bid for the Kansas Pacific Railroad, and that a representative of the Government would qualify for that purpose before depositing with the court the necessary amount of cash ($200,000, or cash and bonds, $100,000 of each), five days before the sale.

The report could not be confirmed. E. Elery Anderson, one of the Government receivers of the road, who was in conference with the Government yesterday at Washington on the subject, returned here last night, but was detained at his home today by an attack of gout, and could not be seen. The other receiver declined to express an opinion or say anything on the question.

In view of the possibility of the Government bidding for the Kansas Pacific Railroad, that it is for part of it which is known as the governmental aided part of the road, which begins at Kansas City and "ends nowhere," as it has been said, or at the 394th mile post, at a place called Boggs, it can be stated on trustworthy authority that the Government bids for that road, which is to be sold in two divisions, the Union Pacific reorganization committee will not bid against it.

The first mortgage claim is $7,368,000. In addition to that there is the debt due to the Government, which is a second mortgage, and which principal and net interest together amounts to $12,901,329. The court has, however, made the upset price, which must be bid for the two divisions of the road ($94 miles) $360,000. The road should be sold for that price, the Government would lose $10,549,000.

Should the Government buy the road in the reorganized Union Pacific Railroad Company would have to get another connection between Kansas City and Boggs. That, they say, they can easily build at less cost than they can buy the present road.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A TRAIN. Safe-Crackers Try to Draw Attention From a Contemplated Job.

Southold, L. I., Nov. 23.—This town is in a state of terror. Last night a dastardly attempt was made to wreck the evening mail and passenger train. Isaac Osborn, assistant depot master, was riding a railroad bicycle along the single track west of the depot when he suddenly, in the darkness, crashed into several heavy loads of mail and packages, placed on the track with the intention of derailing the train. Osborn was hurled from his machine with terrific force, while the bicycle received severe damage.

Osborn hurried to ascertain the cause of his accident. Large spikes were securely driven in the joints between the rails and the big rocks piled in place around the spikes would have certainly thrown any train from the track. He was able to flag the train in time.

To add to the excitement this affair caused, the Southold Savings Bank was notified yesterday by Pinkertons, acting for the American Bankers' Association, that a gang of safe-crackers was contemplating a visit to the bank. The commission went on to state that a noted safe-cracker had visited the bank a week and had reported that it was an excellent subject for an attack, as no watchman was kept on guard at night.

A deputy sheriff and armed force patrolled the streets and kept guard over the big safe all night, but no burglar appeared. Watch dogs, revolvers and shot-guns are in demand today. The banks at Greenpoint and Riverhead have also ordered out extra police protection.

It is thought the safe-crackers sought to wreck the train to draw people away while they robbed the bank.

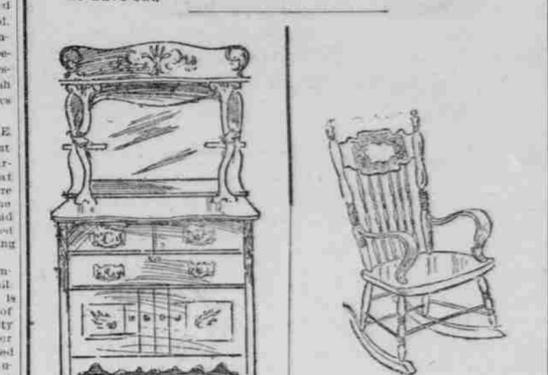

SMELTERS AND REFINERS. Endeavoring to Devise Plans to Better Their Business.

New York, Nov. 23.—A meeting of the representatives of the smelting and refining companies, who are endeavoring to make plans for bettering the smelting industry, and in particular the sale of the metals produced by them—silver, lead, and copper—was held in this city today and further meetings will be held.

The interests at the meeting represent about 80 and 90 per cent of the smelters in the United States. One of the suggestions that has been made is that there should be a consolidation of all the plants. The representatives of the various companies have not been authorized to take such a step.

ALGER ON LUMBER TARIFF. Believes the Duty Should Be Reduced One-Half.

New York, Nov. 23.—Secretary of War Alger, who is himself one of the largest lumber dealers in Michigan, in an interview today made a statement regarding the Dingley law tariff on lumber that will probably attract attention. He said: "I would advise that one change be made in the Dingley tariff law. That is in relation to the duty on white pine which is imported from Canada. In the McKinley law of 1890 the duty was placed at $1 a thousand feet. That seemed to be a simple duty from both a protective and a revenue-producing point of view. In the Dingley law the duty was raised to $2 a thousand feet."

This extra duty seems to me to be unnecessary. Most of the white pine used in the United States comes from Canada, and an immense quantity of it comes across the border. We have been afraid that the Canadian government might attempt a retaliatory measure and place an export duty on logs. This would be a hardship. As yet, however, the Canadians have not shown any disposition of retaliatory sort."

It is said that influential interests all at the coming session of Congress endeavor to have the tariff on white pine changed to the rate of duty suggested by Secretary Alger.

THE LOVERING COURT-MARTIAL. The Officer Admits Pricking Hand-mirror With His Sword.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The officers and soldiers at Fort Sheridan were at the sound of reveille this morning with the impression that with the adjournment of court-martial today all the testimony against Capt. Lovring will have been presented to the trial. Lovring will introduce little, if any, testimony, depending on the arguments of his attorneys for justifying his treatment of Private Charles Hamblin.

"There is little dispute as to the facts in the case," said Attorney Blair. "Lovring admits pricking the prisoner with his sword, but the effect was no worse than contact with a belt pin. Our fight will be to show that instead of the captain's conduct being prejudicial to good order and military discipline, it was conducive to discipline and good order."

Lovring, while technically a prisoner, enjoys all the freedom hitherto accorded him, and is wearing sidearms. He apparently does not worry about the outcome of the case.
