GEN. LEE'S ARRIVAL

Washington Turns Out En Masse to Welcome Him.

IS CHEERED TO THE ECHO

Americans Gather by Thousands at the Depot and Follow Him to the State Department - Accompanied by His Family - Trip From Tampa an Ovation.

All along his flying journey from Tampa through the Southern Coast States, he was greeted with a spontaneous outburst of patriotic enthusiasm.

The train arrived at 2:15 o'clock, by which time the depot and all the streets approaching it were crowded with a vast mass of people.

The train was made up of three coaches. The two immediately in the rear of the engine's tender were filled with an escort of loyal Virginians from all parts of the State.

When the train stopped there was a rush of friends to the rear coach and in the crush Chief Clerk Michael was left on the platform.

CUBA IN THE SENATE

Absolute Freedom of the Island Is Demanded.

MASON'S IMPASSIONED PLEA

Messrs. Pettus and Butler Also Raise Their Voices in the Cause of Liberty - A Field Day for Patriotism in the American Congress - Mr. Lindsey to the Front.

After a number of resolutions had been submitted by senators yesterday in the Senate, Mr. Pettus obtained the floor.

Mr. Mason, who had given notice on the day previous that he wanted to speak, arose and said he did not want to cut off any senator who wanted to talk on Cuba, but that he wanted a little time before the expiration of the morning hour in which to state his views.

Mr. Pettus then proceeded as follows: "It is declared in the Good Book," said Senator Pettus in the Senate today, "remove not the ancient landmarks, which our fathers have set."

Mr. Pettus declared that he wanted to call the attention of the Senate to some of these landmarks.

Mr. Pettus also has the power to limit the war which it declares.

The Supreme Court has decided that a war may be limited.

Half the Country 'Round Is Buying Perry Stock!

We're having our hands full in the mail-order department, as well as on the floors of the store. Everybody wants a chance at what were universally considered the best goods ever brought into Washington.

The Perry Shawls were better qualities than most stores could find an output for. But there's always a warm spot in a woman's heart for a handsome, soft, time-enduring Shawl.
