

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

Justice Bingham's Ruling in a Requisition Case.

Assistant District Attorney Shillington presented Chief Justice Bingham, sitting in Criminal Court No. 1, yesterday with a requisition from the governor of Virginia for Joseph Heath, David H. Blawie, Geo. Heath and Henry Riley, who, it is alleged, are fugitives from justice from that State.

The granting of the request was objected to by Edmund Burke, attorney for the parties named, on the ground that they had already been tried for the offense with which they are charged and acquitted.

Mr. Shillington stated that the contention of Mr. Burke was premature and could not be entertained until the parties named in the requisition were within the jurisdiction of the court as the result of arrest.

Chief Justice Bingham sustained Mr. Shillington's position and Mr. Burke submitted. Joseph Heath is charged with assault with intent to kill, but it was stated that he enlisted in the army and is now beyond the jurisdiction of the court. The others are charged with keeping a gaming table.

WILLIAMS UNDER ARREST.

He May Be Charged With Causing a Child's Death.

The death of a colored infant Wednesday at Hill Sheridan Avenue northwest, has aroused suspicion, and Coroner Carr has decided to investigate.

Samuel Williams, colored, 34 under arrest at No. 8 police station, and will be held pending the result of the inquest.

The child is Frank Douglas, whose mother, Carrie Douglas, lives at the place mentioned. When the police learned of the death of the baby without medical attention, Policeman Jett secured the body and had it sent to the morgue. Then he arrested Williams. It is claimed that Williams was in the room where the child was lying, while its mother was at work in the kitchen. The woman's attention was called to the boy by hearing a scream. When she reached the room she found that death had occurred.

Lucy Douglas, a six-year-old told her mother that Williams had stepped on the child, causing it to scream. It was this assertion which led to the arrest of Williams. It being alleged that he caused the baby's death.

Other witnesses to the occurrence are Marie Leont, of No. 4 North Court, and Carrie Douglas, the mother. To the police Williams denied having injured the child. He claimed that it had been ill for some time and had frequently suffered with spasms. The baby, he declared, was in a cradle on the second floor of the building, while all day yesterday he was at work downstairs.

MRS. TEGELER'S MARITAL WOES

She Asks for a Divorce, Alleging Cruel Treatment.

The married life of Mrs. Grace Tegeler has not been a happy one. For more than three years she alleges she has suffered ill treatment at the hands of her husband, Robert Graham Tegeler, and yesterday morning she filed a bill praying for a divorce.

The complaint sets forth that the defendant, Robert A. Tegeler, is employed as a fireman in the District of Columbia and receives a salary of $60 a year; that they were married in June, 1891, since which time the defendant has continually ill-treated and abused her, and that in consequence she is afraid that he will do her bodily harm; that about two years ago her husband deserted her and has not since contributed to her support. Mrs. Tegeler asks that she be given the custody of her child, Henry Albert Tegeler, four years of age.

Rock Creek Park Property.

The Rock Creek Park Commission met at the District Building yesterday for the purpose of assessing against property adjacent to the park such proposition of cost of improvements as the commission considers to have been specially benefited by the park. The four members of the commission present were Gen. John M. Wilson, U. S. A.; Gen. H. V. Boynton, Engineer Commissioner Beach and T. Ross Berry. It was decided that property owners should be permitted to submit evidence to show, first, that no property has been specially benefited, and secondly, the amount of such benefit, if any. On the suggestion of Secretary Carvyle, it was also decided to bring up resolution relative to the exceptions to be taken to the Supreme Court rulings on the powers of the commission. The adjourned hearing is set for this afternoon at 8 o'clock.

Free Lunch for Soldiers.

The W. C. T. U. department of soldiers, sailors and marines opened a lunch room Tuesday at No. 31 F Street. Every day from 11 to 2 is served to all soldiers a good, substantial lunch. Persons interested will be welcomed on any day at the room, or contributions for lunch, of money, coffee, sugar, milk, bread, meat, etc., can be sent to the address on any day. The department held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. Progress from all lines of work was reported. A direct appeal from Camp Alger for gray flannel abdominal bandages, pieces of old linen, sheets and pillow cases for cots, has been received. Next Monday evening at 7 o'clock this department will entertain soldiers, sailors and marines, and the public is also invited. It will be a donation party, where the articles named, pooled at Camp Alger, and anything else for the work, will be received.

Vital Statistics.

The following deaths were reported to the health department for the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday: George Preuder, 56 years; Frederick A. Thompson, 24 years; Edna B. Seybold, 27 years; Annie F. Melke, 20 years; Eliza Lewis, 75 years; Sally Johnson, 22 years; Eliza Jones (colored), 65 years; Susan D. Peters, 66 years; John Johnson (colored), 60 years; Julia B. Cook, 55 years; Julia E. Eiam, 39 years; Rebecca W. Wayne, 8 years; Hattie A. Jesifer, 1 year; Mary R. Nelson, 8 years; Henry Clemens (colored), 7 days; Edmond Allen, 1 month.

Sixty Days in Jail.

Edward Johnson, colored, was convicted in Criminal Court, No. 1, yesterday of larceny from the person. The complainant, Catherine Fair, also colored, proved that while attending a Punch and Judy show near the O Street Market, on May 1, Johnson stole 25 cents which she had in her apron pocket. The Government was represented by Assistant District Attorney Shillington. Chief Justice Bingham, who presided at the trial, sentenced Johnson for sixty days in jail.

An Exciting Runaway.

A horse attached to one of Charles Schneider's bread wagons took fright at a piece of paper fluttering in the air at the corner of Fifth and G Streets yesterday and ran away.

CITY BREVITIES.

The commissioners, in a letter to E. G. Lansdale, of No. 1720 M Street northwest, state that all water closets must have connections to the street sewer, and that the extension of the water service pipe, so as to connect with the water closet by means of a hydrant cock, is not permitted.

The District commissioners have refused to grant a master plumber's license to A. R. Shepherd, on the ground that he caused a permit for certain plumbing at 211 Third Street northwest, to be taken out in his own name, when the work was executed by F. A. Walters.

The commissioners, on the opinion of District Attorney Thomas, have granted permission to the Metropolitan Railway Company to place electric feed wires in the conduits of the Potomac Electric Power Company, on Four-and-a-half Street, between Missouri Avenue and D Street.

B. J. Ferguson, of Fifth and D Streets northeast, has entered a complaint against the Eekington and Soldiers' Home Railway Company for using D Street, between Maryland and Massachusetts Avenues, as a route for exchange horses. The District commissioners, in reply, state that, since Congress has passed the bill allowing the company to change its motor power, the annoyance will soon cease.

The will of Sallie Julius Peters, made July 25, 1888, was filed yesterday in the probate court. By the instrument the testator bequeaths all her property, real and personal, together with all she may acquire up to the time of her death and also all she may become heir to through the will of John A. B. Leonard, late of the District of Columbia, to Leonide Delaure. The testator appointed Leonide Delaure and George E. Hamilton executor and executrix respectively of her estate.

By the terms of the will of Ernest Goetzinger, filed yesterday, he bequeathed all his property, real and mixed, to his wife, Margaret Goetzinger, to hold during her natural life or so long as she may remain a widow. In the event of her marrying again she is to receive only her lawful share of the estate. Otherwise upon her death the whole of the property will be divided, part and part alike, between the testator's heirs. His wife is appointed sole executrix, with full power to sell, lease, encumber and convey the whole or any part of the property. The will was made June 15, 1893.

Dog Saves a Child's Life.

Centerville, N. Y., June 23.—Lottie Dix, a four-year-old daughter of Marvin Dix, of Park Corners, fell into the river yesterday. With the child were two elder children, who started to alarm the nearest neighbors. While they were away, a mastiff dog, which had accompanied the party, sprang into the water and brought the little girl to shore. But for the dog the child would have drowned, and but for having some spirits in the house many a man would have lost his life. The best to keep is Tharp's pure "Berkley" eye; it is excellent in Summer complaints.
