

NEWS FROM ALEXANDRIA

The Virginia Midland Transferred to the Southern Railroad.

The Deed Placed on Record Yesterday Morning—Disorderly Massachusetts Troops.

Alexandria, Va., June 25.—The Virginia Midland Railway today legally became a part of the Southern Railway. The deed from the Midland Company to the Southern Railway Company transferring the property of the former to the latter company was placed on record in the clerk's office of the Corporation Court this morning.

Capt. White of the schooner A. T. Coleman, which sailed from Washington on Thursday, reported to Police Commissioner Roberts today that his vessel had been robbed of a gold watch, a chain, $5 in notes, a blue coat, by his cook, who shipped in Washington, and is known by the crew as William Shippen. The captain stated that while in passage was anchored at the mouth of the Potomac, and when he returned he found a locker broken open and that the articles mentioned and the cook had disappeared. It is thought that Shippen has returned to Washington.

Mr. S. G. Brent fell down a flight of stairs at his residence, on North Columbus Street, last night and broke his right wrist. He was attended by Dr. Howard.

Dr. C. R. Gray, formerly of this city, died at Front Royal, Va., yesterday.

The case of the men charged with assault and gaining in Alexandria County, and who were surrendered to the county officers in Washington on Thursday, will be called in the county court on Monday.

Mr. E. Elliott, who has been a guard at J. M. Vernon for some time past, has resigned on account of ill health.

Capt. Parsons, who commanded at St. Asaph, has issued orders that those employed by the Government at that place shall work nine and one-half hours a day.

A large field of grass adjoining the residence of Mr. Robert Taylor, near this city, was destroyed by fire yesterday evening.

Margie Richards, a little girl, fell down the steps at her home on North St. Asaph Street, last night, and was quite badly injured.

Rev. Clarence E. Ball, of Grace Church, will preach at the railroad mission tomorrow afternoon. The pulpits of the different churches will be occupied by the resident clergy.

The plans for extensive improvements to the Alexandria Infirmary have been completed, and with the money loaned the institution by the Young Men's Christian Association, the work will be begun at once. The managers of the infirmary have awarded the contract for improving the buildings to Mr. J. F. Hooker.

Owing to the disorderly conduct of the Massachusetts volunteers while in this city last night, Maj. Simpson today addressed a letter to Secretary Alger, requesting him to issue an order forbidding soldiers to leave trains while passing through this city.

Thomas Decker, colored, charged with vagrancy, was given twenty days on the gang today by the mayor, and Robert Williams, also colored, charged with a similar offense, was given ten days.

Mr. J. M. Johnson has returned from White Sulphur Springs.

Miss Helen M. Whitely has been elected president of the Hospital Relief Corps for Camp Alger, and Mrs. O. F. Carter has been chosen vice-president.

THE SECOND DAY OF THE SHOE CLEARANCE SALE.

Saturday's selling was enormous. Shows you what truthful advertising and dependability does for a merchant. When we advertise a bargain and call it such, people know that it is a bargain. When we announce our Mid-Summer Shoe Clearance Sale to take place Saturday, as we did in Friday's papers, people knew that we meant what we printed—and they knew the values we printed were here. That's why the response was so great. It's encouraging, indeed. Here are the offerings for tomorrow:

- 500 pairs ladies' oxford ties, black, tan and brown—made in stylish open, round and common sense shapes, made of soft, easy stock—every pair warranted—regular price everywhere $1.25, to go now for. 87c

Millinery at less than half price.

Half price and less! Is the slogan in the millinery department. The season is about over, and we're content to sacrifice prices to dispose of the balance of the stock. It's a sort of a clearance sale we've started, and we've started it here before we started it in our other departments because the season is about over.
