COMPLIMENTED ON HER WORK.

The Reception to Mrs. Ella M. Thacher.

A reception was given last night at the Home of the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines, No. 21 Street northwest, to Mrs. Ella M. Thacher, superintendent of this department of the W. C. T. U. work. Those who rendered were Mrs. Cox, national superintendent of Sabbath observance; Mrs. Margaret D. Ellis, national superintendent of legislation; Mrs. Clinton Smith, president of the District W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Chase, superintendent of the home, and Mrs. Sarah D. LaFetra. The reception was largely attended by the members of the W. C. T. U. and others. Conspicuous among those in attendance were many army and navy officers. A number of enlisted men were also present, representing all departments of the service. The large reception room was tastefully decorated with evergreens and national colors. Several addresses were made complimenting Mrs. Chase on her success in establishing the home, where men of all branches of the service may stay during their sojourn in the city. At 10 o'clock the guests were invited to the large dining hall, where an elegant luncheon was served. Several prominent army officers have visited that Congress will be asked to make a small appropriation for the home, but the ladies of the W. C. T. U. express their willingness to bear the entire expense.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Saengerbund Hall was well filled last Sunday evening with an audience composed of the families of the members. This concert was the fourth of the season and an excellent program was enjoyed. The numbers included were: Gloria, Saengerbund; soprano solo, Miss Adl; baritone solo, Mr. L. E. Gathorn; piano solo, Leo Wheat; bass solo, Mr. Harry Hughes.

The pianoforte and song recital by Mr. Eilbert Nevin and Miss Emma Juch at the Universalist Church next Wednesday evening is sure to be a success. To hear Eilbert Nevin interpret his own compositions seems to be the desire on the part of the music public. Mr. Nevin will accompany Mme. Juch on her tour.

The lecture recital at Vermont Avenue Church Wednesday evening was a success. "Handel" was the subject of the lecture delivered by Mrs. E. C. Sloan, with stereoscopic views, was interesting as well as instructive. The musical numbers were by Mrs. Hemphill, Miss Altschu, Mr. Anton Caspar, Mrs. John Porter Lawrence, Miss Leavitt and the Choral Society.

Prof. Miana's musical program at St. Patrick's Church Tuesday morning was listened to with reverence, as it was rendered in honor of the late, sad rites to Gen. Garcia. The program was as follows: Schmidt's Requiem, Gounod's Benedictus. The mass ended with "Nearer, My God, to Thee," the solo being sung by Mrs. Blanche Mattingly Rogers. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Miana's children Mme. Espueta Daly substituted.

Mr. W. G. Wilmard's two step, "Old Dominion," is among the latest additions to the "Ladies' Tunes" for the large size Regina music box.

"The Messiah" will be given the 23rd under the direction of the Choral Society at the Congregational Church.

Haley's popular organization gave a most enjoyable concert at Columbia Theater last Sunday evening. The program was a long one, though every number was appreciated throughout. The band, ever patriotic, gave selections that were very acceptable, at this period especially. Of the numbers, Miss Allen and the Philharmonic Club were very good in the "Inferno," from "Stabat Mater," Miss Blanche Mait's selection, the "Dying Rose" was very pleasing to the audience. The program ended with "I've Only Apper," from the "Redemption," by the Philharmonic Club, Mrs. Anna Craig-Hills, soloist.

Mrs. Margaret Campbell Cameron, of this city, has added to her laurels as a musician by composing a song entitled, "To Burns' Highland Mary." Mrs. Cameron is the author of the words as well as the music. The song is now in the hands of the publisher.
