BOOKER VERDICT SET ASIDE.

The Prisoner to Go Free When His Police Court Sentence Expires.

An order was signed by Justice Cole yesterday setting aside the verdict of the jury in the case of Alexandria Booker, colored, who was convicted some time ago of committing an assault with intent to kill Lafayette Jeffers, also colored. After this action had been taken by the court, on the motion of the District Attorney, further proceedings against Booker were nolle prossed. The action taken by Justice Cole is based upon the fact that at the time Booker was tried and convicted it was not known to the court that he had already been found guilty by the court of assaulting Jeffers, and was at the time he was indicted by the grand jury and at the time of his trial, serving a sentence of 30 days in the District Jail. Since Booker was convicted in the Supreme Court of the District of assault with intent to kill, Justice Cole was acquitted with these facts, and for this reason set aside the verdict. An order was also made for the discharge of Booker from jail at the expiration of the sentence imposed upon him in the Police Court.

Charged With Larceny.

Henry Burgess, colored, twenty-one years of age, was arrested and locked up at the First precinct station last night, charged with grand larceny. He is said to have stolen two diamond rings from Mrs. Addie Rhodes, formerly of the Wellington Hotel, who now resides at 415 Fourth Street northwest. Burgess was arrested at the hotel as a bell boy, but was discharged on the 11th inst., the same day on which the robbery is reported to have taken place. An investigation of the matter led to the arrest of the prisoner and to the recovery of one of the rings. The accused claims to have found one ring, and asserts that he never had the other in his possession.

FOURTH IMMUNE COMMAND.

Officers of a Spanish War Veteran Order Installed.

The Fourth Immune Command, Spanish War Veterans, No. 15, held an important meeting Friday evening at its headquarters, Elks' Hall. The officers elected at the last meeting were installed as follows: Commanding Officer, Lee Lipscomb; First Lieutenant, Charles Barret; Second Lieutenant, William H. Mellich; Adjutant, J. J. Duff; Chaplain, E. L. Robinson; Quartermaster, D. C. Eberly; Sergeant of the Arm, J. L. May. The former adjutant, P. J. Kelcher, submitted a report of work done and receipts and disbursements made during his term of office. The report was very gratifying to the members present, as it showed conclusively that the camp was now in a flourishing condition and had been instrumental in securing employment for quite a number of its members, had relieved several cases of want, and had aided several members who were ill. The Committee on Entertainment reported that the May ball, to be given on May 29, at Odd Fellows Hall, in aid of the sick and unemployed members of the camp, was now an assured success, and the camp hoped to realize a handsome sum for this worthy object. The members of the camp were urged to be ready to take part in the exercises on Decoration Day, and were requested to report at the next meeting, May 25, how many would appear in uniform.

Divorce Asked for Desertion.

A petition for divorce was filed yesterday by Leola Harrison, who asks for a legal separation from her husband, Arthur W. Harrison, on the ground of desertion. The parties were married in New Haven, Conn., in 1882, and soon after came to Washington, D. C. Mrs. Harrison declares her husband deserted her in 1888.

THE COMING BENCH SHOW.

Numerous Local and Out-of-Town Entries Made.

The approaching bench show, opening May 15, at the Washington Light Infantry Armory, is attracting much interest among the lovers of dogs in the District. Numerous entries have been made both of local dogs and of those from other cities. Some of the Washington entries are as follows: N. Carroll Downs will show his Scottish terrier Nosegay Coxcomb; J. H. Fisher, his pointer spaniel Red Victor and Lady Letia; W. J. Fuhrman, his St. Bernard Sir Malcomb; Miss Lucile Fuller, the Boston terrier Miss Snappy Boston; W. M. Garrett, his St. Bernard Sir Madred; R. S. Mather, his pointer Parolan; B. Lowndes Jackson, the English setter McLean; N. Jensen, the English setter Cossack; J. The Senter and Princess Louise; James E. Joyce, the skye terrier John; Miss Mabel L. Lam-borne, her cocker spaniel Bevis of Woodstock II; Mrs. Ben Miller, the skye terrier, the Boston terrier Judy; George N. Payette, his skye terrier, Rag; Miss L. B. Raymond, her fox terrier Ray; Representative John E. Reubner, the pointer Tanager; and Senator W. E. Mason, his fox terrier Dick. Among the out-of-town exhibitors is Thomas Shenbrotts of Baltimore, with a string of ten St. Bernards. This is without doubt the best kennel of St. Bernards in America. In this lot are champion Sir Waldorf and champion Lady Bryn Mawr, the best pair of St. Bernards in any other ring today, having won the Ruppert challenge cup many times. Miss Lillian C. Morran will show a strong kennel of Yorkshire terriers and toy spaniels, including the champion Ashton Premier and Ashton Marvel, a winner at the last New York show. Miss Claire L. Darling will exhibit her toy spaniels, including Marquette, and Lillie Langtry. The latter is probably the best representative of her breed in America. Hastings kennels will show their Airedale terriers, Hastings Clipper and three others. This is the first time any specimen of this breed has been shown in Washington, as it is a comparatively new breed to this country. The Montebello kennels show a string of ten great Danes, including the unbeaten champion Sendorborn Inn, for which they paid $2,500. This is the highest price ever paid for a great Dane in this or any other country. Mr. George Raper, of England, shows his champion bulldog, Ivel Rustic. This dog is a champion of both England and America, having won over 150 prizes here and abroad. Mrs. Seen of New York brings on a kennel of ten toy spaniels. Mrs. Sen is the most successful exhibitor of toy dogs in the country, having carried off premier honors at the New York shows for the last fifteen years. The Swiss Mountain kennels will exhibit their newly imported Pomeranians, Hic-cy-an Nip, Haughty, Brunette, and Nubian Rebel. These are probably the best-known Pomeranians in the world, having been brought from England by Mrs. Smyth at an enormous expense. Mr. G. M. Carmochan, the fox terrier judge, will show, for exhibition only, the sensational wire-haired fox terrier Champion Go Bang, for which he paid $2,000, and the equally celebrated smooth fox terrier champion, Claude Laval, who cost Mr. Carmochan $1,700. There will be two exhibitions daily by Prof. J. W. Hampton's trick dogs. The judging will take place Tuesday, and it is expected that many ribbons will be won by Washington entries.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Charles E. Brown and Mary V. Saunders; Thomas Lewis and Lucy Lomas; William C. H. Borman and Ann M. Dunbar; Charles S. Little, Evansville, Ind., and Alice C. Marble; Mitchell Sullivan and Emma Keene.

Wills of the Davis Sisters.

The wills of Jennie A. and Katie C. Davis, sisters, have been filed for probate. Both decedents are dated January 30, 1899, and each testatrix named the other as legatee. A curious circumstance in connection with the making of the wills is that only that they bear the same date, but that the authors died within a few days of each other.

Assaulted Husband and Wife.

Otto Johnson and his wife, Cecelia Johnson, colored, were the complainants before Judge Kimball, in the Police Court, yesterday, against Simons Johnson, also colored, who was charged with a double assault. For the assault on the woman Johnson was sentenced to serve sixty days in jail, while the penalty for the attack on Otto Johnson was ninety days additional.

Pinned for Pinching a Boy's Cheeks.

Pinching the cheeks of Gibson R. Hollingsworth, Jr., a three-and-a-half-year old boy, was charged against George Sing, a Chinese laundryman, before Judge Kimball, yesterday. It appeared that the boy left a bag of sand on the steps of the Chinaman's laundry, on Thirtieth Street, and thereby annoyed the proprietor. Later, when the child appeared near the laundry, George Sing vented his wrath by pinching the cheeks of the little fellow until blood was drawn. A fine of $10 was imposed and paid.

Certificate of Accidental Death.

Conner Carr yesterday viewed the remains of Edward Minor, colored, who died at Providence Hospital Friday evening, as the result of injuries sustained in a cave-in of a sand bank at the foot of Thirtieth Street southeast, and issued a certificate of accidental death. An investigation of the circumstances attending the accident developed that an inquiry was not necessary. Nelson Jeff and Albert Gibson, colored laborers, who were injured in the same cave-in which took the life of Edward Minor, are still confined at Providence Hospital.

Fined for Altered Larceny.

The larceny of four 25-cent pieces was charged against William Jones, alias Nash, yesterday by John Clark, in the Police Court, yesterday. It was alleged that George Sing, a coal office in Southeast Washington, where Clark is employed, and asked charge for a dollar. Mr. Clark produced four quarters and Jones, it was alleged, grabbed them, and depositing an advertisement, an imitation of a $1 bill, ran out of the office. Complaint was made to the police, and the arrest of Jones followed. Judge Kimball ordered Jones to pay a fine of $10 or serve thirty days in jail.
