J. J. ROW, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 7, 1870.

REPUBLICAN DISTRICT TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS Hon. G. W. SOOFIELD, of Warren Co.

FOR ASSEMBLY W. E. LATHEY, of Forest County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

FOR SHERIFF JOHN SWAN, Sr., of Jordan township.

FOR COMMISSIONER JAMES GLENN, of Ferguson township.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY DANIEL W. M'CURDY, of Clearfield.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER ROBERT MITCHELL, of Clearfield.

FOR JUDGE JAMES HUGHES, of Morris township.

FOR CLERK GEORGE L. WAY, of Curwensville.

We sincerely pity the Democratic party and its journals in Pennsylvania.

A Republican Administration in a little over one year has reduced the public debt nearly one hundred and sixty millions, and a Republican Congress in one session lightened the burdens of taxation over eighty millions.

The miners of Pennsylvania, through their representatives at the late Labor Convention declared emphatically for protection to native industry.

We see it announced from the Treasury Department that the civil estimates for 1871 are sixteen millions of dollars less than those of 1870.

The first plank of the platform of the Democrats of Georgia declares that the Democrats of that State, "standing upon the principles of the party throughout the Union bring into special prominence, as applicable to the present extraordinary condition of the country, the unchangeable doctrine that this is a household divided that cannot stand."

Notwithstanding the Democracy are charged with having agents in the Workingmen's National Congress at Cincinnati, who were commissioned to draw the Congress into a support of the Democratic party, it seems they have really made but little headway.

The Philadelphia Press says: It is really refreshing to hear of the Maine Democracy mercilessly ridiculing Grant's administration by solemnly resolving that "it has violated its sacred pledges to the people."

The bonds of the State of Alabama, which were generally below par under Democratic rule before the war, when the Republic was as the Democracy love to boast, at the height of its prosperity, are now, under Republican rule, "sometimes above and never below par," as the papers of that State testify.

THE FRENCH PRUSSIAN WAR. What is Doing.

A series of battles were fought between the French General, McMahon, on last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and the Prussians, resulting in a defeat to the French and driving them into Sedan.

The Emperor Napoleon, who was in Sedan at the time, also surrendered himself to King William. The French engaged in the battles at Sedan numbered near 200,000, and Prussians about 240,000. McMahon was among the wounded. The loss on both sides was very heavy.

Bataine is still cooped up in Metz, after having made a fruitless attempt to cut his way out during the engagements at Sedan. His capitulation is now looked for.

Whether this signal defeat of the French will end the war remains to be seen, but, evidently, the reign of Napoleon is at an end.

France revolutionized. The Republic has been proclaimed with Gen. Trochu at the head. On Sunday the Tuilleries were sacked by a mob, and all the Imperial bees and other Napoleonic insignia—including busts, statues and pictures of the Bonapartes,—thrown into the Seine. The French Council of Ministers have issued a proclamation announcing the disastrous defeat of McMahon, and their determination to continue the war. What the end will be, time will only reveal.

THE UHLANS.—The Uhlans, who are creating so much alarm in France by their raids upon towns and villages far ahead of the line of march of the Prussian army, also give rise to perplexing reports as to the position of the German forces. The Uhlans are light cavalry, of Asiatic origin, and were introduced into the north of Europe along with the colonies of Tartars, who established themselves in Poland and Lithuania. The name is derived from a Tartar word signifying "brave." They are mounted on light, active horses, and are armed with sabre, lance, and latterly with pistols or carbines. The lance, from six to seven feet long, is attached to a stout leather cord fastened to the left shoulder, and passed around behind the back, so as to allow it to be couched under the right arm. Immediately behind the point of the lance is attached a strip of gaudy colored cloth, designed by its fluttering to frighten the enemy's horses. The early dress was Turkish, and the regiments or "polks" were distinguished from each other by red, green, blue and yellow uniforms. The Austrians and Prussians first borrowed this kind of light cavalry from the Poles, and in 1734 Marshal Saxe attempted to introduce the Uhlans into the French service, and a "polk" of 1,000 men was organized, but it was disbanded after the Marshal's death. Russia, Prussia and Austria are the only governments maintaining Uhlans regiments, which are recruited from Western Russia, Poland and Galicia.

THE DEMOCRACY.—This nondescript party is an enigma. What is it now? What does it amount to? What are its principles? The Democratic party, as remembered forty or fifty years ago, was a respectable party and stood upon a good foundation. To-day it does not know itself, and no one else knows it. It is a household divided that cannot stand. Its tents differ in the East, in the North and in the South. The only thing upon which it agrees is opposition to Republican principles and Republican rule, and this is harmless, because the Democratic party, weakened by its own dissensions and want of principle, can nevermore be formidable, unless there is a miracle wrought and the party is thoroughly regenerated.

Hon. James L. Orr, one of the old time Democratic leaders in the South, has announced his intention of voting for the Republican candidate for Governor. He declares that "if good and true men will consent to accept the reconstruction acts of Congress and the legislation, State and National, growing out of them; if they will accept the new conditions surrounding us; if they will affiliate with the Republican organization, we will profit largely by what they have done already; and much can be done to correct abuses and malfeasance that may have grown up in the anomalous state of affairs surrounding us."

A NEW HOUSE.—The New York Democrat says: It is with pleasure we notice the establishment of the new publishing house of Bible Brothers, 432 Broome street. These gentlemen were formerly connected with the newspaper press, and have ample capital and experience to conduct the publishing business successfully. They are thoroughly acquainted with the public wants in the book-line, and will bring out at regular intervals new, standard and popular works. They are now publishers of the "Youth's Illustrated Bible History." In a day or two they will have out an interesting work on the French Prussian war.

HERDIE PARK, WILLIAMSPORT, PA.—The Horse Fair of the Herd Park Association, on the 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th of September, promises to be a great attraction. The best horses in the United States and the Canada have entered, among them a large number of the best running horses. The premiums to be contested for amount to $35,500. Extension tickets will be issued by the different Railroads to Williamsport and return.

Minority Convention.

A State Convention of the minority counties convened on Wednesday, August 31st, in the city of Reading.

The Convention was called to order by E. J. Moore, of Allentown, who moved that George Lear, of Doylestown, be appointed Chairman.

Joseph Riner, of Cumberland, was then appointed Secretary, and Morgan R. Wills, of Montgomery county, Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

John H. Oliver, of Lehigh, moved that a committee of five be appointed by the President to receive the credentials of the delegates, which was agreed to.

On motion of John H. Schwartz, of Cumberland, a committee consisting of one from each Representative district was appointed on resolutions.

A. H. Chase, of York, moved that Democrats have the same privileges in the convention as Republicans, which was ruled out of order, as the previous resolution had not been disposed of.

J. A. Schwartz moved that all resolutions be placed before the Committee on Resolutions without debate.

Mr. Chase asked that his resolution be taken into consideration by the convention, which gave rise to a debate on the subject, when, at the suggestion of the President, the resolution was withdrawn until after the organization of the convention.

The Secretary then proceeded to read off the counties in which members delegates from the following counties answered for their counties were called off:

Berks, Bucks, Carb., Clinton, Columbia, Cumberland, Lancaster, Lehigh, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Philadelphia, Pike, Schuylkill, Wayne, Westmoreland and York.

Col. Fisher, of Lancaster, stated that if Democrats were not to be admitted into the Convention, he then alone represented Lancaster county, but two gentlemen, Democrats, were present, and he would like to see them admitted to the Convention.

Wm. H. Ainey, of Lehigh, moved that representatives present, not accredited as delegates, be invited to take seats in the Convention as advisory members, with all the privileges of delegates, except the right to vote, which was referred to the Committee on Credentials.

The President then announced the various committees, and the Convention adjourned until afternoon.

In the afternoon the Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following officers, viz:

President—George Lear, of Bucks.

Vice Presidents—S. W. Geer, Schuylkill; Gen. Wm. S. Lilly, Berks; A. W. Fulton, Westmoreland; Hon. William M. Heister, Berks; A. J. Fry, York; Henry Dittmer, Philadelphia; C. C. Jadin, Wayne.

Secretaries—Jos. Riner, Cumberland; Morgan R. Wills, Montgomery; E. J. Moore, Lehigh; J. W. Wood, Northampton; Benj. L. Berry, Philadelphia.

The President made a few pertinent remarks upon assuming the duties assigned to him.

J. S. Rickards, Esq., Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the practice which has grown up in the Legislature of Pennsylvania, of admitting to the floor members of the press, and of allowing them to participate in the legislative process, is hereby disapproved, and the Legislature is recommended to take such measures as may be necessary to prevent the recurrence of such a practice.
