OUR STREETS.—The Borough authorities are still greatly improving some of the streets. Let the good work continue, but don't save the stones; they are plenty and convenient.

THE CONCERT.—The concert given by Mr. C. H. Jones' class of boys and girls, on Thursday evening last, was a success, both musically and financially.

THE RIVER.—The water in the river is unprecedentedly low, and the logs and rafts are still safely moored on the sand bars and on the beach.

REMOVED AT LAST—the rubbish that has been lying in front of the new buildings on Second street. Messrs. Sackett & Schryver have also covered the ditch in front of their store-room, which adds to the general appearance of the street in this locality.

SORE EYES.—The following recipe for the cure of inflamed eyes is given by an exchange: "Take a potato, and after quartering it, grate the heart as fine as possible, and place the grating between a piece of cambric muslin. Place the poultice over the eyes inflamed, and keep it there fifteen minutes. Continue the operation three successive nights, and a perfect cure ensues."

LARGE OATS.—Abram Tate, of Lawrence township, informs us that he cut some oats one day last week, among which he found bunches measuring 54 feet, the heads alone being 21 inches long. Daniel Krise, of Girard township, also brought some oats into our office, which measured 5 feet 9 inches in height, having been sown on the 1st of June, and cut on the 17th of August.

BASE BALL.—The Rough & Ready, of Pennfield, this county, played the Brookville, of Brookville, on the grounds at the latter place, on Thursday last week, the Brookville team winning by a score of 34 to 52. Ten, because the Umpire is said to have been the best man they had, and as the R. & R. boys were not accustomed to playing Ten men they deserve considerable more credit than the score allows them.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice, at Clearfield, Aug. 21, 1871: Arrier, Delany M. McCully, A. D. Aston, James McCann, John Miller, Anna Chisholm, John O'Brien, Mrs. M. E. Comertford, John(2) Smith, Lewis Collins, Frank Spackman, E. B. Dorwin, Charles Trester, John Graham, Mrs. E. Wollridge, J. BACK AGAIN.—We would notify our friends and patrons, and the public generally, that we are back again in our old "quarters," in Graham's three story brick building, where we are fully prepared to execute all kinds of plain and fancy job printing. Our office, as well as our "sanctum," (the latter not yet quite finished), are commodious, neat, and pleasantly situated, where we shall be pleased to have our friends call at all times. We embrace this opportunity of saying that Mr. Graham is one of our most enterprising and accommodating citizens, and that he is doing a full share towards improving and building up the business interests of our borough. We commend his example and enterprise to others.

MAL-GEN. MEADE.—In the hurry to issue our paper last week, we inadvertently neglected to state that Major General Meade, the hero of Gettysburg, passed through this place, on his way to visit a son at Brookville. A large number of our citizens, accompanied by the Cornet Band, repaired to the depot to receive the General on his arrival, and Ex Gov. Bigler, in a few terse remarks, welcomed the old hero on behalf of, and extended to him the hospitalities of our citizens. The General briefly and appropriately acknowledged the compliment and thanked the citizens for the honor conferred, but regretted that previous arrangements precluded his remaining and partaking of their hospitalities. After tarrying a few minutes at the "Shaw House," and exchanging congratulations with such of his friends as called, the General accompanied Major Hartshorn to Curwensville, with whom he dined, and then proceeded on his way to his destination, where he arrived in due time, and was appropriately welcomed and entertained.

ATTENTION.—We would remind our readers that Mr. John Dressler will sell his valuable farm in Union township, on Thursday, August 24th, at public sale. This is one of the best improved farms in the county. For full particulars see advertisement.

A LIVE HOME JOURNAL.—NOTABLE CHANGE.—Last October Health and Home passed into the hands of Messrs. Orange Judd & Co., of 245 Broadway, New York, the well known publishers of the American Agriculturist—a journal long without a rival in sterling value and circulation. The marked improvements then expected to appear in Health and Home have been fully realized, and it is now one of the choicest illustrated journals anywhere issued for the family circle—adapted to both the juvenile and adult people, and meeting the special wants of the housekeeper. Besides it supplies very useful chapters for the garden and farm and an important news sheet, giving a valuable resume of the news for a week, up to the moment of issue. From $500 to $800 worth of very fine engravings beautifully each weekly number. We notice now a still further mark of enterprise on the part of the publishers; they have secured the exclusive editorial services of Edward Eggleston, so widely and favorably known by his writings in Scribner's Monthly, and many other Magazines and Journals, and especially as the chief superintending Editor of the New York Independent for some time past. With this notable addition to the previously large and strong editorial force, Health and Home can not fail to merit and command a prominent place in every household, in city, village and country. Specimen copies can doubtless be obtained of the publishers as above. Terms only $3 a year. Single numbers 8 cents. Health and Home and American Agriculturist together, $4 a year. Better add one or both of them to your supply of reading; they are each worth infinitely more than their small cost.

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The Third Annual Exhibition of this society (formerly Altoona Park Association), will be held at the City of Altoona, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th, 1871. The grounds are the largest and most complete, and the driving course equal to the best, in the State. The very liberal premiums offered by the managers must command the attention and attendance of all parties rearing good stock, or interested in agricultural and other inventions. The following summary of premiums will convey an idea of their magnitude: Thoroughbred horses, $399 00 Roadsters, 80 00 Horses for general purposes, 125 00 Draft horses, 105 00 Matched, driving and saddle horses, 60 00 Jacks and mules, 57 00 Thoro bred, native and grade cattle, 912 00 Sheep and swine, 204 00 Pigs and yard fowls, 149 00 Farm implements, 150 00 And all other premiums to correspond.

The speed premiums amount to $2,000, divided into seven purses: One of $25; one of $400; one of $100; one of $50; one of $700; one of $500; one of $250—the whole making over $6,000 in premiums for the present season. The complete success of former exhibitions of the society, and the general satisfaction given, should guarantee a larger turnout this season than heretofore. Entries of blooded stock and valuable inventions are being made, and there will be beauty and diversity to look upon. Excursion tickets will be issued from all stations on the main line and branches of the Pennsylvania Railroad, from Monday until Friday, good for return trip on Saturday.

DEBILITY AND EMACIATION both result from the lack of ability to convert the food into nutriment. How necessary, then, for those suffering from these alarming symptoms to immediately resort to a remedy that will strengthen the stomach and digestive organs. For, as soon as this desirable object has been accomplished the health improves, and the patient resumes his usual personal appearance. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has attained a world-wide popularity in such cases, and have been proven the best and safest means of giving constipation, toning the stomach, relieving energy to the liver, and relieving every symptom of nervousness and depression of spirits. Its cheering and beneficial effects are highly spoken of by thousands, who own to their restoration to health. No restorative in the annals of medicine has attained the same popularity in the short space of time it has been before the public, or has won the high endorsements accorded to this excellent tonic. Many other preparations, purporting to be correctives and restoratives, have been introduced, and have perished one by one, while the popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters continues to increase, and is now recognized as a standard household medicine. The success which attends the use of the Bitters evinces at once its virtues in all cases of debility and disease of the stomach. Certificates, almost without number, have been published, attesting its truly miraculous power in restoring those painful and fearful diseases. And at this time it seems idle to do more than call attention to the great remedy of the age, in order to awaken public attention to its excellence. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it is therefore worthy of the consideration of the afflicted.

It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In those cases where the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical Hair Dressing ever used, as it requires few applications, and gives the hair a splendid glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.
