

Give Him the Bag. A young female Michiganian was sent to Massachusetts a few weeks ago by her parents to be educated at a boarding school near Boston. Awkward, perverse, illiterate, and very green; she was at once the aversion and butt of the girls. It happened that a frequenter of the boarding school was a good looking Boston dentist, of some pretensions, who wished to get himself a rich wife from among the pupils. Aware of his mercenary motives, and determined to punish him, the young ladies led him to believe that their new classmate from Michigan was an heiress.—This was enough for the dentist. He immediately laid siege to the heart of the "Volvantine," and confiding in her ignorance of etiquette made her a present, among other things, of some money to buy her a bag with, meaning something of the reticule order. Highly delighted with the liberality of the "bags with store clothes on," (as she first called him), the girl confided the fact to three or four of her new companions. Coffee bags had already become quite fashionable for skirts, her companions requested her to procure one "to make her dress to stick out," as he was pretty smart himself, and doubtless desired "his girl" to appear so. A few evenings afterwards the dentist escorted the Volvantine to an evening party, which was a fair representation from the boarding school. Every thing went on smooth with him, until his partner threw off her cloak and bonnet, and entered the room where the company were assembled. Here his attention was attracted by the half suppressed tittering of the school girls, and the wonder of the others. Glancing inquisitively at his companion, who felt as grand as Lucifer, he was mortified and enraged to see her age marked complexion set off in horrible contrast with a profusion of green ribbon bob knots on her head, while her dress stuck out like the famous Spouting Horn at Nahant. Mad as a March hare, he soon left her with an expression of disgust, and passed the remainder of the evening at a whist table in another suit of rooms.

The Michigan girl was true grit, was mad enough to tear the eyes out of her "true hearted false lover," but she was by her confidants persuaded not to do any thing violent. Their advice was that she should return his presents, and "give him the sack," or dismissal. "Return him the presents, and give him the sack too!" said one.—"Dod-rot him, I'll do it, 'fore the hull crowd." She went out, and in a few moments went into the room, where her companions were gathered around the card table expecting a scene. A wonderful change had taken place in her dress and she was straight up and down as a loon's leg. Advancing to the astonished dentist with a queer looking bundle under her arm, she threw down a pencil, chaip and looked on the table, exclaiming contemptuously, "There's your presents, Mr. —," continued the indignant Volvantine, unfolding the mystic bundle, before the astonished company, and throwing it over the head of the petrified dentist, "here's your old coffee bag! I won't wear it another minute!" Every body was convulsed with laughter at this new method of "giving the sack," except the unfortunate dentist. He sloped immediately and has not been seen in the village since. Boston Bee.

PLAYING THE ADVANTAGES.—A late number of the Louisville Morning Courier contains an amusing account of the way a backwoodsman played a strong game of the 'advantages' over a professed thimble-ringer. The former happened to be at a place where the knight of the thimbles was looking out for prey, and, as he was dressed in homespun was at once put 'down as a 'soft snip.' Linsey, as the supposed 'green 'un' is termed in the story, had just tossed off a glass of whiskey, when Thimberlig commenced his operations with—

"Well, stranger, it's cold and dark out; suppose we play some small game to pass away the time,"—all the time fingering carelessly a dirty pack of cards that lay on the table at which he was sitting. Linsey replied—

"I can't say, stranger, I'm all the way from Bullit, and I've heard tell you folks in town are as keen as briars, and I'm only a 'cider nag,' 'howsomever, I don't keer if I do play, provided I understands all about it beforehand."

"That's right," says Thimberlig; "we play fair, with all the 'advantages' in; and if you beat me, why, well and good—there's no more of it."

"Well, then terms is fair enuff, and I sint the fellow to canvort or make a fuss when I agrees to a thing from the start," says Linsey; "what'll you play?"

"What do you say to 'seven up' at a dollar a game?" replied Thimberlig, his eyes glittering with the certainty of making his expenses.

"A word of the sort's enuff old hose! Put up your money," says Linsey, at the same time logging at a long leather purse which he had in his pocket. Thimberlig laid down a dollar, which he had no sooner done than Linsey cooly put it in his pocket, saying—

"Well, that game's done! What'll you play next?"

"But," says Thimberlig, "we've not played for the dollar yet?"

"Yes we have; I placed in the advantages the first lead—steal was in you know!"

The gambler was best at his own game, and not liking the looks of the 'bitter water' chap, quietly submitted to his loss.

"Ood fellowshup!"—Oh dear! exclaimed an urchin who was chewing a green apple, "I've swallowed an odd-fellow!"

"An odd-fellow!"

"Yes, he's giving me the grip!"

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP. THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others: every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla. Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 6th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons: In Northumberland County.—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Mixel, McEwensville; D. Krauser, Milton. In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutlus, Milliford. In Columbia County.—R. W. McCay, Washington, Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I most conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcers sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal. JOHN MOYER, Tailor, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading. Douglassville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiestor, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which, done by the directions out of his system, the sores healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who saw him during his affliction. I have thought my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine. Yours truly, AMELIA D. LEAF. Sept. 16, 1843.—ly

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER. RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS. THE following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application. PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838. FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetters on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Sassafras, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep furrows formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it. JAMES DURNELL, No. 156, Race St. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY. PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839. THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetters in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, clearing away all the returns of it, although I had never been rid of it any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROPRIATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT for Tetter. ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation above all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Daugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836. I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing that he had been successful in my trying his preparation, of which he attended me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums (aimed upon by the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications.
