

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

GRACE GREENWOOD.—This eminent authoress, who has awakened such a strong interest in the American mind, and been cherished so cordially in so many hearts, a few days ago paid our town a flying visit, on which occasion she was accompanied by Dr. R. M. S. Jackson, of Cresson, and his estimable lady. Although we did not have the pleasure of forming the acquaintance of the gifted Grace, we did nevertheless enjoy the privilege of taking a good peep at her from a respectable distance, and we but repeat the words of high authority when we say that her's is the face of no ordinary woman. As many of our readers have doubtless often been charmed with her writings, and feel in common with us a deep interest in the lady, we have thought fit to publish her Biography on the outside of to-day's paper. This, it will be noticed, was written in January, 1854. We would glad publish a later sketch, if we had it on hand. But this one, while it leaves us in the dark for almost six of perhaps the most useful years of her life, will yetamply repay a perusal.

CRICKET.—Since the "All Eland Eleven" have created such an excitement among the lovers of the game krrn as Cricket, we are glad to be able lay before our readers the following tract from a letter to a member of the "Mountain Cricket Club," from John Milligan, Esq., the well-known "wickekeper" of the celebrated "Grange feket Club," of Washington, Pa., on thsubject. Should Mr. Milligan's play be equal to the modesty of his letter, may anticipate a lively time. Here is t extract:—

Sir—Your favor of the 8th inst. is and. I do take great interest in the game of Cricket, as well as the subject of it generally, and am glad to learn that Club has been started in your town. I kn you will be delighted when properly initia into the mysteries, thumps and rude knocid-ent to a spirited game. But I can ass you personally, and the Club generally, if you are flattering me too highly, when I kn me as a "professional," to teach you its useful complexities. I acknowledge, notwithstanding, your love for the game, that I am not content as you will all perceive, when me. In view of the inducements ("too nouns to mention") which you hold out, I endeavor to comply with your kind request some time between the 23d and 27th inst. I come to gratify myself—teet you on the Cricket turf, not as a sup in the manly art, but as a fellow-cricketeike into yours.

Your friend,
J. L. MILLIGAN.

ELECTION DAY.—The election dased off in this place with more thke usual quietness. The citizens of own and township are proverbial for theneral good behavior on all public dayt on this occasion they quite outdid themselves. After the labors of the dnd closed, however, and the returns frre various districts in the county beo come in, we noticed quite a number "qualified voters" of both political ps amused themselves by imbibing y potatoes of a fashionable beverage, in by the euphonious name of tanglef. All this of course was followed wite usual noisy consequences, and indeen so late as the Thursday following, w several individuals who seemed to r under their original loads, and to mat a desire to keep up the exercises as as possible. But, amid all this ff spirits, the claret we believe was left touched—there not being a single fight to mar the harmony or vary th creases of the occasion.

A FRAGMENT.—Those of our re who have often been delighted with beautiful song of "Woodman, spare tree," and especially those who assist the last Presidential canvass in ra Fremont poles, we know will feel grt to us for giving the following "Pment" a place in our columns. It woa a pity indeed had we not room for it.

A Fragment of an Owd to a Phree Pole What was a Bein Cut Down For Wood:

Woodman! spare them poles,
Touch not a single wun;
Last phall they cheered our soals,
Just let 'em stand for phun.

It was our Phreemont Clubb
That lst did place them there;
Oh! please, sur, let 'em stand,
Or else you'll hear us swear.

T. B. PETERSON & Bro's.—This terprising Philadelphia firm has, as ebody knows, commenced the public in pamphlet form of Dickens' Work. They are to be published in twenty-volumes—one to be issued on Saturda each week, till completed. Price, dollars for the whole series, or twenty-cent for a single volume.

PROSECUTION FOR LIBEL.—We notice that Thomas S. Reid, of the Blairsville True American, has been arrested and held to answer for some alleged libellous matter published in his issue of the 20th ultimo, of and concerning R. B. McCabe, Esq. We have not seen the offensive publication, nor have we been informed of its character. Mr. McCabe enjoys an enviable reputation as one of the literary men of the day; and many of our citizens who have the pleasure of his acquaintance, have long since learned us to regard him as one sometimes heard of, but rarely met with—a perfect gentleman.

VERY ACCEPTABLE.—During a recent visit to Johnstown, we were made the fortunate recipients of a very large box of fragrant Havanas—a present from our young friend, D. S. Bolsinger, of the "Good Samaritan" Drug Store. Having quite a penchant for the good things of this life,—and a good cigar being one of them,—they were speedily disposed of, and found not hard to take. Sturge has a large supply of just the same kind left, which he will sell, with entire willingness, to those who indulge in such luxuries.—Who's next?

PUGILISTIC.—On Saturday last, the monotony of our town was slightly varied by the occurrence of several pleasant little "set-to's" between some of the admirers of the system of "striking from the shoulder," but no extraordinary loss of life resulted from any of the encounters. The contest between Morrissey and the Benicia Boy, for that purse of $10,000, will probably be conducted on more scientific principles, and occupy a longer space of time in being adjusted.

AGRICULTURAL ADDRESS.—The address delivered at our late Fair by the Hon. George Taylor, was pronounced by all who heard it, a masterly effort. Happily conceived and well delivered, and replete with plain, practical common sense ideas, it was just such a discourse as our farmers wanted to hear. The Judge has been asked for a copy for publication, and we trust we shall soon have the pleasure of laying it before the readers of The Alleghanian.

NO PAPER LAST WEEK.—The Fair and the Election pressed so heavily upon our time that we were unable to issue a Paper last week. On the principle that "a half loaf is better than no bread," we thought once of sending forth a half sheet; but, after mature deliberation, we abandoned the idea, thinking it better not to do things by halves. Hereafter our subscribers will receive the Paper weekly.

EBENSBURG LYCEUM.—The question for discussion by the Ebensburg Lyceum, at its next meeting, on Friday night, will be:

Resolved, That Senator Broderick was justifiable in accepting the challenge from Judge Terry to fight a duel.

The question will be open for debate to all the members of the Lyceum.

TAILORING.—We have heretofore neglected stating to our readers that Thomas Devine has opened out a Tailoring establishment, in connection with his Drug Store, and is now ready to "take the measures" of such customers as may favor him with a call. He is a good workman, and merits a liberal share of patronage.

HATS AND CAPS.—Those of our readers who are in want of these very desirable articles of apparel, should endeavor to purchase them of D. C. Morris, of Johnstown, (whose card we this week publish.) He has on hand a very extensive assortment of tiles, which he is bound to sell cheap.

A FACT.—If you want to purchase Ready-made Clothing, you can get it at D. J. Evans & Son's store, as cheap, if not cheaper, and as good, if not better, than at any similar establishment in town. Read their new advertisement, and then drop in and see for yourselves.

PERSONAL MENTION.—E. R. Lewis, the well-known Daguerrean Artist, was in town with his picture-taking apparatus, during the continuance of the Fair. He was overwhelmed with work during his entire stay. The people up here appreciate good artists, and he is one.

LIST OF PREMIUMS.—In consequence of not receiving the reports of the different committees appointed to award Premiums at our late County Fair, we are unable to lay them before our readers. We will endeavor, however, to do so next week.

THE WEATHER, during the past few days, has been cold and blustering—unpleasant and disagreeable.

THE FAIR.—As a general thing, the weather during our late County Fair was favorable, and the exhibition was in some respects very creditable. But, taking the whole thing together, candor compels us to note it down as a failure. The very class of men for whose benefit the institution was inaugurated, seemed to be the last to take part in it. This is not as it should be, and unless a change be had in this respect, we may as well let our Agricultural Society be numbered amongst the things which were. We may say more upon this subject in a future number.

ACCIDENT.—Jacob Yost and wife, of Carroll township, whilst returning home from this place, one day during our County Fair, were thrown from their wagon, and severely injured, the old gentleman having one of his ribs broken, and the old lady her right arm broken in two places. The accident resulted from the frightening of the horse which they were driving. The parties are each about 70 years old, and are both rapidly recovering from their injuries.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—We are sorry to learn that Johnstown was visited by a destructive fire on last Tuesday night, resulting in the burning to the ground of seven houses, besides injury to several buildings adjoining. The loss is estimated at about 5,000 dollars. We have not been informed as to whether any of the property was covered by insurance.

THE WESTERN PENNA. FAIR, held at Pittsburgh, September, 1859, awarded the first Premiums for best Business and Ornamental Writing to the Iron City Commercial College. This is the third triumph at the Fairs of this City over other Colleges.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

MARRIED.—At the Presbyterian Parsonage, in Altoona, on the morning of the 6th inst., by the Rev. A. B. Clark, Mr. JOHN M. CAMPBELL to Miss CORNELIA M. CLARK, sister of the officiating clergyman, and formerly of this place.

FIRE.—The dwelling house of William M'Gahey, of Munster township, was burned to the ground on Monday night of last week. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is about $500, none of which, we believe, is covered by insurance.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The November number of this always-acceptable magazine has come to hand. It is, as usual, filled with an interesting variety.
