R. PITCAIRNS, Superintendent Middle Division.

THE "CAMBRIA COUNTY SPY" TURNS UP AGAIN!—His Capture by, Adventures with, and Escape from the Rebels!—Our readers may recollect an account published in these columns some ten or eleven months since, concerning the adventures at Pensacola and Fort Pickens, Fla., of a young man named Joseph A. Kerbey, son of Geo. W. Kerbey, Esq., the worthy agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Wilmore, this county.

Returning to New York shortly after, Mr. Kerbey came home and spent some time with his friends. A life of inactivity being foreign to his nature, however, he took an early occasion to shape his steps for Washington city, with the intention of finding employment in the army of the Potomac.

Young Kerbey, or "Joe," as he is familiarly called, has truly had an adventurous time of it during the past year, and the tales he tells surpass in interest many romantic inventions of fiction. On arriving at Washington, after his return from Fort Pickens, he found his peculiar plans in that department spoiled by the then recent Bull Run blunder, so he wended his way to Harper's Ferry.

Since February last, Mr. Kerbey has been engaged as an artist at Cumberland Pass, and has been promoted from a private to a responsible command with one of the batteries. He asserts that he had almost given up all hope of escape from his detested associates until the late Federal advance toward Cumberland Gap.

all the Rebel troops in East Tennessee, their positions, guns, &c.

During a portion of his "strange, eventful career," Mr. Kerbey was stationed at Knoxville, Tenn., where he frequently formed one of the guard detailed to watch over Parson Brownlow's house.

Mr. Kerbey professes to be thoroughly acquainted with the rebel lines of defence at Yorktown, the position of the batteries, the number and calibre of the guns, and much other valuable information, which he this week intends laying before the proper authorities at Washington.

THE TEACHERS' COUNTY INSTITUTE.

A Decided Success.—We last week mentioned that the Teachers' Institute of this county had convened at Wilmore, on Wednesday, "with every prospect of success." This assertion was based upon the fact that a perfect exodus of Teachers from this section had taken place thither; and, keeping the well established educational reputation of the county at large in view, we were confident that when called upon, the profession elsewhere would not suffer themselves to be found wanting.

A temporary organization was effected on Wednesday by the election of D. W. Evans, Supt. of the Ebensburg Union School, as President. Subsequently, the Institute was permanently organized by the selection of the following officers:

The proceedings during the entire continuance of the Institute were of an exceedingly harmonious as well as interesting character. The Teachers seemed to participate in the various exercises as though they meant business, and not—as is unfortunately too often the case—as if they intended putting in the time on the unbecoming principle.

The addresses of Deputy Supt. Bates added greatly to the general edification of the association. He touched upon almost every conceivable educational topic, and let fall many valuable practical suggestions.

The essays of Misses Louise E. Vickroy and Mary M. Swank—the former on "Our Country's Glory," and the latter on "Music"—attracted much attention.

We failed to secure a copy of the minutes of the association, and are therefore unable to give a detailed account of the proceedings. They will probably appear in our next issue.

Prior to adjournment—which took place on Friday afternoon—it was decided that the next session of the Institute be held at Johnstown, in conformity with a call to be issued by the Executive Committee.

Godey's Lady's Book for May has been received. It is full to overflowing with good things. Every lady in the land should become a subscriber to it—the sooner the better.

CAMBRIANS IN THE BATTLE OF PITTSBURG LANDING.

One Killed and Three Wounded!—Mr. Jerry Powell, a captain of a gun in Taylor's Chicago battery, and who participated with marked bravery in the Fort Donelson battle, was killed outright at Pittsburg Landing on the first day of the fight.

By letters received here, we learn that Co. C, Capt. Williams, 19th regular infantry—composed almost wholly of Cambrians—participated in the above engagement and covered themselves with glory.

CONTINENTAL HOTEL.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of the above excellent hotel. The Continental, being situated directly opposite the Pennsylvania Railroad passenger depot, at Pittsburg, is one of the most convenient places to stop at in the city.

FROM THE 55TH PENNA. REGIMENT.

On our opposite page we copy a letter from Edisto Island, S. C., to the Harrisburg Telegraph, giving the particulars of the recent skirmish between a portion of Col. Dick White's regiment, and the Rebels, as also our list of killed, wounded and prisoners.

NEW FIRM—NEW GOODS.

By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that the new firm of E. J. Mills & Co., at their store, on High street, have just received a large and well selected assortment of Spring and Summer goods.

MARRIED—On Thursday, 17th inst.

by the Rev. L. Powell, Mr. THOMAS G. DAVIS to Miss LYDIA CLEMENT, both of this place.

Peterson for May is on our table.

No lady of taste or discernment can afford to be without its invaluable teachings.
