LEAVE CRESSON—At 10.45 A. M., or on departure of Thro' Accommodation West.

OBITUARY.—Capt. Daniel D. Jones.

We have refrained from particularly mentioning the death of this gallant soldier, who was reported killed in the battle of the Wilderness, May 6th, in the hope that he might turn up only temporarily missing; but the flight of over a month since he was last seen or heard of forces upon us the sad conviction that he is gone and forever!

While in Pittsburgh, one day last week, we were so fortunate as to become acquainted with the Colonel of the 11th, S. M. Jackson. We found him what we had so often heard him described, to wit, not only a thorough soldier, but a genial and accomplished gentleman.

ETCHINGS.—Make it known to east and west, and give it to the breezes north and south; post it on the pillars, and bulletin boards, and empty store-boxes, and let the characters be such that he who runs may read; station sentinels on the highways and byways, to whisper the glad tidings to all passers-by; in short, scatter it broadcast throughout Gath, and fail not to inform the people of Askelon, that—butter has fallen to 15 cents per lb.

The gallant soul has passed from earth; the brave heart, once filled with patriotic emotion, now beats not even responsive to his country's good. While we mourn the sad necessity which thus consigns to an early grave one we knew and loved so well, we rejoice that it is allowed unto man to die in so glorious a cause as the vindication of the thrice-blessed principles of Union and Liberty.

A MAGNIFICENT SPECIMEN OF PENMANSHIP.—The Harrisburg Telegraph pays the following compliment to the chirographic skill of our fellow-townsmen, A. C. Mullin, Esq., now Secretary to Governor Curtin: "One of the finest and most elegant specimens of penmanship we remember ever to have seen hanging on the walls of the main reception room of the Executive Department."

MARRIED: On 7th inst., by Rev. D. Harbison, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. DAVID E. DAVIS, of Summerhill, to Miss JANE DEVEREAUX, of Cambria township.

THE ELEVENTH PENNA. RESERVES.

This brave old regiment, or rather the sparse remnant which is left of them after their arduous three-years campaign, are now in Pittsburgh, waiting to be mustered out of service. We do not know the exact number of men who have lived to come home with the regiment, but we do know that, compared with what went out, they are a mere handful.

It is supposed that Co. A will arrive here during the present week. While in Pittsburgh, one day last week, we were so fortunate as to become acquainted with the Colonel of the 11th, S. M. Jackson.

ETCHINGS.—Make it known to east and west, and give it to the breezes north and south; post it on the pillars, and bulletin boards, and empty store-boxes, and let the characters be such that he who runs may read; station sentinels on the highways and byways, to whisper the glad tidings to all passers-by; in short, scatter it broadcast throughout Gath, and fail not to inform the people of Askelon, that—butter has fallen to 15 cents per lb.

"THAT'S WHAT'S THE MATTER!"—The Hollidaysburg Standard says that the renomination of Cyrus L. Pershing for the Legislature by the Democrats of this county is a compliment to a "tried and faithful representative." We have heard of several Democrats hereabout, with no special objection to serving as Legislators themselves, declare that that's just what's the matter—that Mr. P. has been tried too often!

"A little well done" should be the motto of every beginner in the path of knowledge, sagely observes the Johnstown Democrat. "Very little well done" seems to be the motto more extensively patronized by the Democrat.—Alleghanian.

We have "well done" the Democrat on more occasions than one of late. But perhaps, after all, in so doing we are only "doing nothing!"

ICE CREAM.—If any of our readers possess a desire to keep cool these hot evenings, and don't know how to do it, we will let them into the secret. It is simply this: go to Mrs. Stahl's, on High street, and indulge in a saucer of her ice cream. If a superior article to this is manufactured anywhere, we would like to know who by and how!

Usually a scavenger or scullion: a snapper-up of unconsidered trifles.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

DISMISSED THE SERVICE, AND WHY.—SOLDIERS KILLED AND WOUNDED—THE 21ST P. C. AND THE 54TH P. V. REPORTED IN A FIGHT—EXTRAORDINARY FRESHET IN STONY CREEK—OUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE SANITARY FAIR. Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

JOHNSTOWN, June 12, 1864.

Capt. M. F. McDonald, Co. M, 12th Pa. Cavalry, was last week dismissed the service for duplicating the pay-rolls of a discharged member of his company. The facts of the case are these: A short time since, a private of his company was discharged for disability, and his descriptive list, with other necessary papers, was given him, upon presentation of which he could secure his pay from any paymaster in the service.

In one of Sheridan's late cavalry raids, Capt. D. Hamilton, of the 18th Pa. cavalry, was wounded in the hip, and Wm. Haynes, a private in same company, was killed. The latter fact was not known until the regiment had reached their bivouac for the night, when young Haynes was missing.

The body of Robt. Sherman, of the 21st P. R. C., was brought home to this place on Thursday, and buried with military honors on Friday. He was wounded in both legs, in one of the Wilderness battles, and it was found necessary to amputate one of them.

The heavy rains of last week produced an extraordinary rise in the Stony Creek. In the course of a few hours, it rose fully seven feet. Great quantities of drift wood, lumber, &c., were floated down with the current.

The amount realized here for the Pittsburgh Sanitary Fair will probably reach over $2,000. Active efforts are also in progress in behalf of the Philadelphia Fair. A large number of our citizens have visited both cities, and express themselves highly pleased with the display at each.

THE FASHION.—The following stanza is lively, satirical, and good poetry: There was a young lady who said, "I seldom wear hair on my head; I carry my locks about in a box, For such is the fashion," she said.

FIRE!—On Sunday last, a house in Belsano, this county, owned by William Simmons, and tenanted by Mrs. Rager, was burned to the ground.

DIED: At the residence of Mrs. Catherine Roberts, Ebensburg, on Sunday, 12th inst., Mr. JOHN THOMAS, aged 92 years.

DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT.—More testimony! This is to certify that for the last five years I have used in my family Dr. Tobias' celebrated Venetian Liniment, and in every instance have found it fully equal to his recommendations.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes preparatory to the use of them.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them.

J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILA'DA., JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region.

Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO BLACKSMITHS.

Four-fifths of time and hard labor saved by using

ISAAC C. SINGER'S NEW AND COMPLETE TIRE AND BAND BENDER.

Patented March 10, 1863. Its chief advantages are

1st. Having strong gear wheels to obtain power, one man can operate it to bend cold wagon tire, any size under 1 by 4 inches.

2d. Having movable collars, to hold the bar square on the portable rollers, it takes all twist out of the bar, while bending in a regular circle.

3d. It can be shifted to bend to any desired circle, from one up to twelve feet, in one minute.

4th. Having a movable centre post, which can be quickly taken off, tires and bands are easily taken out.

5th. The upper ribbed roller will always draw the bar through.

6th. Being gauged and numbered, a card with directions accompanies it.

The Machine in good (oil the journals) running order, bolted upon a strong piece of timber, without leg or crank, for $25, or with legs and crank for $30.

All cash orders promptly attended to. State and County Rights for sale.
