MEMORANDA.—A woman named Duffer made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide at her residence, Beirdstown, Westmoreland county, on the 8th inst. She was laboring under mental despondency at the time...A barn near Bolivar, Westmoreland county, was struck by lightning and burned down, with its contents, on the 4th inst...Some unscrupulous scoundrel robbed the Presbyterian church of McVeytown of twenty-five yards of carpet, lately...Potatoes are selling at from 25 to 40 cents a bushel in Millin county...Blackberries are plenty in our market, at ten cents a quart...A young boy in Indiana, while going through some gymnastic performances lately, fell and broke his collarbone. A warning to those of our Ebensburg boys who affect the horizontal bar, &c...The residence of a widow lady named Mathers, residing in the "Loop," was destroyed on Tuesday week, and valued at $500...A woman in Hollidaysburg bought a bottle of a quack nostrum called "Kunkel's Pain Slayor" took a dose of it; got sick; sent for a doctor. The doctor tasted the nostrum, and found it to contain aconite of monkshood, a powerful vegetable poison. The proper remedy was administered and the woman's life saved. Beware of quacks and quack medicines...A mother and three children named Moore, residing near Blairsville Intersection, were poisoned recently by eating cooked mushrooms of the poisonous variety, and two of the children, aged respectively one and three years, died in about six hours after partaking of the dish...Bedford has a ghost...A young girl lately died in Huntingdon county from the effect of a coal oil explosion...A Presbyterian church near Petersburg, Huntingdon county, was nearly blown away by recent storms...Hollidaysburg is going to have an agricultural fair and Altoona a horse show this fall...Cresson is crowded with summer visitors, Loretto Springs has a goodly number, and Ebensburg has as many as her hotels can accommodate. Apropos of this, we hear that a party are negotiating for the purchase of Lloyd's beautiful grove, on the western outskirts of town, with a view to erecting therein a large summer hotel...The Altoona Democracy have got into a fierce local fight. One faction is led by Campbell of the "Indicator," and the other by Councilman Rockett. The fight appears to have grown out of some question connected with the "spoils" of that city, and the way the parties are pitching into each other. The Kilkenny cats bid fair to be repeated...John Monagan, a miner, was instantly killed by a fall of slate, near Oscoda, last Wednesday week...Dr. John Morrison, an old resident of Greensburg, died suddenly on the 4th inst...The Altoona incendiaries have been assigned comfortable quarters in the Western Pennsylvania...A stone turnpike from Ebensburg to Cherrytree is among the possibilities of the near future...Indiana and Huntingdon are bothered by burglars...Christ Hains, while under the influence of rum, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat, in Huntingdon, on Sunday morning, but didn't succeed.

THE STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association, which met in Greensburg on the 10th inst., was by far the largest educational meeting ever held in this State, perhaps the largest ever held in the Union. It is believed that not fewer than eight hundred persons were in attendance. But two hundred and forty names were enrolled at the meeting of the same association at Allentown last summer.

To provide for such an influx of strangers, most of whom were ladies, was no easy matter. An adjourned court was also in session at the same time, and this complicated the difficulties of the situation still more. At the hotels, one could hardly find standing-room. Many private houses were scarcely less crowded. One gentleman who had agreed to entertain two young ladies, suddenly found himself billeted with no fewer than eleven. Whatever fault may be found with some features of the convention, due credit must be given to the generosity of the people of Greensburg, and especially to the active, patient industry of the local committee, Rev. T. N. Boyle, J. S. Walther, Esq., and Prof. M. B. Gaut, A. B.

The convention was too large. Its size contributed greatly towards defeating in some measure its own objects. The court room being occupied by the court, it was necessary for the association to hold its sessions, except in the evenings, in the Methodist church, a building not half large enough, and most inefficiently ventilated. We think that if the attendance at the late State Association is to be taken as an exponent of future associations, the best thing to do will be to divide the State into two educational districts, and organize two associations, one for Eastern and one for Western Pennsylvania. C.

NEW SUMMER RESORT.—We learn that a joint stock company, with a capital of $100,000, has been organized to erect a large hotel, for a summer resort, at Summit, one mile east of Cresson. On Thursday last, a committee on behalf of the company visited that place and purchased some thirty or forty acres of ground for the site of the proposed hotel. Summit is a quiet little village on one of the highest peaks of the Alleghenians. Its air is pure and invigorating, its waters clear as crystal, and its scenery most picturesque.—With a suitable hotel, it cannot fail to become one of the most renowned watering places in the country.

BRASS BAND.—An effort is being made to organize a brass band in this place. A meeting of citizens was held in the Court House Thursday evening last and a committee appointed to solicit contributions for the purchase of the necessary instruments. We understand the committee are meeting with remarkably good success in collecting, and are glad of it.

NEW LIVERY STABLE.—Messrs. Lem. Davis & Co. have just opened out, in the stables formerly occupied by Mr. Charley Gibson, a livery and sale stable. We have looked in at the stable, and are free to say that it is the most complete establishment of the kind ever started in Ebensburg. Mr. Lem. Davis, the senior member of the firm, is one of the most experienced horsemen in Cambria county, and is therefore peculiarly qualified for the business in which he has become engaged. The firm also buy and sell horses on commission. See advertisement.

OUR TELEGRAPH.—What's become of it? It was to have been finished inside of ten days ten different times since spring. But it is not finished yet. The poles are distributed along the line of the route, (the E. & C. RR.) and the wire is on hand—and that's all. We are anxious for the speedy completion of the line, for it will come handy on election evening to bring us the returns of Geary and Williams' majority in the State.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE.—By a card in another column, it will be seen that Mr. Thomas McKernan (Democrat), of Cambria boro., is an independent candidate for the office of Register and Recorder of Cambria county. Mr. McKernan is represented to us to be a good, reliable citizen, and will no doubt give Mr. Oatman a close race on the second Tuesday of October.

CHEAP STORE.—M. L. Oatman makes a specialty of the flour business. He sells more flour than any other dealer in town, and is thereby enabled to sell cheaper. In addition to flour, Mr. O. keeps a full line of fresh groceries, provisions, &c. Everything on his shelves is marked at the very lowest figure. Buy from him once, and you will buy from him always.

A GOOD SELECTION.—The board of Directors have chosen Rev. B. M. Kerr principal of the Union schools of Ebensburg for the ensuing term. Mr. Kerr, by thirty years' experience in teaching, is probably as well, if not better qualified for the position than any man in the county. The other teachers have not yet been selected.

NO PAPER LAST WEEK.—In consequence of the non-arrival of our supply of white paper at the right time, no paper was issued from this office last week. We trust a like mishap will not occur again soon.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.—We will send a copy of The Alleghenian to any person desiring it from now till the October election for forty cents. Circulate the documents.

DEAD.—Mr. Henry Hughes, the popular landlord of the National Hotel at Summit, died at his residence one day last week.

DIED.—In Loretto, on Thursday last, Mr. William Ryan, Sr., aged 80 years.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—MILITARY FIRE-BASE BALL—A SET-UP HORSE RACE—FIRE, BURGLARY, ACCIDENTS—DRAMATIC AND EDUCATIONAL, &c., &c.

JOHNSTOWN, Aug. 16, 1869. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: Johnstown has caught the military fever. We have now two Zouave companies. One was organized about six weeks ago, and, I believe, is styled the "Johnstown Zouaves." On Saturday evening week, the other was organized by the election of Daniel Jones Captain, Jacob Glass First Lieutenant, and William R. Jones Second Lieutenant—all old soldiers, who understand their business.—The name of the company is the "Campbell Zouaves."

Frank Rivers & Co.'s theatrical troupe, of New York city, have rented Parke's Opera House for two years, at a yearly rental of $2,500. The Forrest Dramatic Association will give three entertainments in Union Hall on Friday, Saturday, and Monday evenings, 20th, 21st, and 23d inst. The Hall, by the way, is now undergoing a thorough overhauling, and when completed, the interior will excel anything of the kind in the State. The Athletic base ball club of Philadelphia will visit Johnstown shortly, for the purpose of playing a couple of games of base ball. Speaking of B. B., everybody down here would like to know the reasons of your Mountaineer club for declining to accept the challenge of the Senior Independents of Johnstown to play a match game. Are they afraid of Johnstown muscle? A horse race came off at the Johnstown Race Course on Saturday week between a sorrel horse owned by Henry Gore and a sorrel mare owned by Dr. C. Emerson. The race was won easily by the latter. The whole thing was a "blind," gotten up for the purpose of fleecing the Doctor at some future time. The house of Mr. Culbert, in Perkinville, with its contents, was destroyed by fire on 9th inst. The fire originated from defective stovepipe. On Monday, A. Sweitzer, of Conemaugh borough, met with a serious accident. He was sitting on the bumper of a car, intending to uncouple it from another, when the forward car jumped the track, bringing the bumpers of both cars together and catching his leg between them. The leg was amputated. The house of Mrs. German, in Conemaugh boro., was entered by thieves on Monday night. They got some valuable jewelry and regaled themselves liberally with the contents of the pantry and the bar. Oliver J. Young, a machinist working for the Johnstown Mechanical Works, met with a painful accident on Monday last. While working at a piece of machinery, his hammer burst, and a splinter struck him in the ball of one of his eyes. The physician thinks he can save the eye. The examination of teachers for the Millville boro. schools took place on Tuesday last. The following named persons were awarded the schools, at salaries ranging from $35 to $50: S. B. McCormick, principal, Misses Dickey, Carpenter, Lardin, Davis, Young, Lardin, and Zech. A match game of base ball came off at the Point on Saturday, between the Senior Independents and the Kicks. Score, Kicks 52, Independents 26. Wesley J. Rose, Superintendent of the Johnstown Mechanical Works, has resigned his position. He intends visiting California soon, to stay some time. The School board of Millville borough have contracted with the Johnstown Mechanical Works for the erection of a new brick school house, which is to be completed by Sept. 1, 1870. The building will cost some twenty thousand dollars. DIO.

LETTER FROM CARROLLTOWN.—IMPROVEMENT ON IMPROVEMENT—PROPOSED PIC-NIC—A FREE BLOW, &c., &c. CARROLLTOWN, Aug. 16, 1869. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: After an interval of several weeks, I again assume the role of correspondent, for the purpose of keeping you and your readers posted on the news from this portion of the county. In the way of improvements, Mr. Edward Binder has now in course of erection a commodious plank dwelling and shoe-shop adjoining his present residence. Immediately opposite, and in close vicinity to the church, the masons are just finishing the substantial foundation for a convent building, and the brick and other material are being located on the grounds, with the view of pushing forward the completion of this structure. Mr. Henry Blum has a large force of workmen engaged in excavating a cellar adjoining his brewery. This vault is to be used as a storage room for lager beer, and its dimensions will be about 30 feet square by 18 feet deep. The large and elegant building of Mr. Fred. Snyder is rapidly approaching completion. It will be the finest building in this town, but whether designed for a hotel or as a private residence, we have not learned. From its size—30 by 50—we should suppose the former. Arrangements are being made for holding another pic-nic here at the close of the present month. It promises to be a grand affair. Doctors McClure and Zeigler, Surgeon Dentists, have opened their respective offices in this place, to remain during the week. Whether there is a sufficient number of people in this neighborhood suffering with enough decayed molars and incisors to justify their sojourn amongst us, remains to be seen. Saturday evening last was the occasion of quite a lively scene at the hotel of Mr. Lawrence Schroth. That gentleman had procured a new and very tasteful sign for Johnstown, and on the evening named his friends assembled to elevate it to its place. Mr. Schroth had secured the attendance of the brass band, and while the inspiring strains of the able performers floated out on the evening breeze, the sign was raised to its position. This popular hotel, formerly the "Washington House," has been re-named, and in golden-hued letters, so that he who runs may read, will be found the inscription "St. Lawrence Hotel." Mr. Schroth gave a "free blow" to the large crowd present, and everything passed off pleasantly. Mr. D. Eger has improved the exterior appearance of his hotel by several coats of paint, and has also renovated the interior. Mr. Elwanger has also expended a large sum in enlarging and otherwise improving his well-known tavern, and our town can now boast of three of the finest hotels and a trio of the most clever landlords in the county. Yours, FUZZY BUZZY.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Is composed of the purest juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant, agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable. The stomach, from a variety of causes such as indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases: Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swallowing of the Food, Hurred or Difficult Breathing, Flitting at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, dull or pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Face, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of Spirits. The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit; it skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—Hooflan's German Bitters, and Hooflan's German Tonic, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public. These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chron. Diarrhea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines. DEBILITY RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE whatever; Prostration of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fever, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being. PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the vigor and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years. NOTICE. It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN. Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few.—Those, it will be observed, are from men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed. TESTIMONIALS: Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:—Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.—"I have used Hooflan's German Bitters in a variety of cases, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. "Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward." Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866. "I consider Hooflan's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, &c. "JAMES THOMPSON." From Rev. Joseph Leonard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a new clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the use of Dr. Hooflan's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, "J. H. LENNARD."

CAUTION. Hooflan's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit.
