GERMAN DRIVE RESISTED.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The new German drive for the coast through Ypres, Lille and Arras, for which a great army of 350,000 men has been concentrated, was started today and met with its first repulse.

The French counter offensive, supported by the new batteries of heavy artillery and augmented reserves from each of the allied armies, was able not only to repel the German advance, but succeeded at several points in making notable progress.

The German attack was not characterized with the vigor and determination which marked the earlier conflicts near the coast, the main dependence of the assault being placed in the artillery. This would seem to indicate the abandonment of the prodigal expenditure of men which has proved so costly to the invaders.

Five Negroes and White Man Held as Suspects

Five negroes and a white man were lodged in the Indiana jail last Friday evening as suspects who had shot at railroad officers on the West Penn division of the Pennsylvania railroad Thursday. A detail of state police visited Indiana Saturday and found that the men did not answer the description of the gunmen. The arrests were made by Railroad Officer Charles Byrne, of Blairsville. All of the men arrested were taken from one freight train. At the time of the shooting there were 15 train riders, of whom five were negroes. The prisoners in the Indiana jail all drew short sentences for train riding.

FIRST DEATH IN NEW HOSPITAL

Logan Kunkle Succumbs After a Year's Illness from a Nervous Affection

Logan Kunkle, aged 43 years, died at the Indiana Hospital, on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Death was due to a nervous breakdown, he having been in bad health for over a year. His death was the first to occur in the new Indiana institution. Previous to his illness and even during the progress of it, Mr. Kunkle had been in the employ of the Huntingdon & Clearfield Telephone Co., where he was known as an expert linesman.

He leaves his mother, Mrs. Nancy Kunkle, of Pittsburgh, and these sisters and brother: Mrs. W. S. Long and Miss Mabel Kunkle of Pittsburgh; Mrs. W. A. Johnston, Miss Kathryn Kunkle and Michael Kunkle, of Indiana.

The funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. Johnston, at 1337 Philadelphia street, this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, by the Rev. W. J. Wilson. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

Lucerne Lad Loses Leg Jumping Train.

John Perotti, aged ten, lost his right leg just above the ankle when he attempted to board a Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh freight train near Lucerne. Brake-man Haley saved the boy's life by placing a tourniquet about the injured limb. The boy was brought to the Indiana hospital. Another lad about the same age succeeded in boarding the train without injury. At the time of the accident the train was going at a high rate of speed.

Prof. H. Cogswell Praised Susquehanna County Teachers Say He "Was Best Musical Director Ever."

The Montrose, Susquehanna county, Democrat, has the following to say of our townsman and director of the Normal Conservatory, and who spent a week recently at the Teachers' Institute in Montrose:

"The Institute was opened by singing some of our old songs, in which Professor Cogswell gave new life and interest in his interpretation of them. Mr. Stearns is to be congratulated in having been able to secure such an excellent instructor of music as Professor Cogswell of the Indiana State Normal school. He has a wide reputation as instructor in both vocal and instrumental music.

"The greatest instructor in music without doubt that has ever been at our Institute—Prof. Hamlin E. Cogswell—born in Bradford county in our own Keystone state."

Brother of Local Merchant Is In Steamer Which U. S. Asked Britain to Release.

Jack Runzo, brother of Frank Runzo, the Sixth street merchant of this place, left here the latter part of last month for Palermo, Italy. Jack sailed from New York on board the S. S. San Giovanni. When the steamer arrived in Gibraltar it was made to anchor by the British for the reason that the Italian steamer carried American copper. A telegram from Gibraltar says that the Italian steamers, Regina d'Italia and San Giovanni, were seized by the British navy as prizes because their cargoes included war material, it is stated. The vessels will be held pending a decision of a prize court. They were bound from American ports to Italy with copper. Their seizure brought a protest to the state department at Washington October 29, from representatives of four copper companies in New York.

18,000 Fish for Indiana Streams.

Eighteen thousand fish will be placed in Indiana county streams during the next few days. The first of 60 cans arrived Friday and consisted of catfish. Other shipments of blue gills, trout, bass and sunfish will arrive early next week. Ross Daugherty, Herman Watson, John Barr and Paul and Clyde Gessler will have charge of the distributing of the fish.

Colver Mines Make Record

A new record for Pennsylvania mining was set up by the mines of the Ebensburg Coal Company at Colver in October, when 102,700 tons of coal were produced. When business increases the mines are to be improved so as to produce 4,500 tons daily.

Alleged Horse Thief Charged With Chicken Stealing

Blairsville is enjoying a series of unusually strange deals in horses and the alleged horse thief is now in the Armstrong county jail at Kittanning charged with stealing chickens.

It seems strange that horses could be stolen in one neighborhood and remain in the same neighborhood for weeks without being discovered, but such was the case. Harry Sheetz brought a team to Blairsville in July that was claimed six weeks later by Liveryman Sholtz of Dunbar. Geo. Cribbs, a Blairsville dealer, had purchased the team from Sheetz. In the meantime a second team had been purchased by Cribbs from Sheetz. Now Liveryman Bright, of Keyser, W. Va., has claimed this team.

Policeman Trainor, of Apollo has arrested Sheetz on a charge of chicken stealing and lodged him in the Kittanning jail. Cribbs says the man sold the two stolen teams to him. Sheetz has been held for court in default of bail.

Hungarian Shot During Riot At Aultman Sunday

Mike Sabo, a Hungarian, is lying at his boarding house at Aultman, near here, suffering of a bullet wound about an inch below his heart, and ten men are in the county jail here as the result of a fight in a mining settlement Sunday morning.

The men had been drinking, it is said. Sabo and Mike Kilgore are said to have engaged in an argument in which a number of others later took part. Kilgore is alleged to have fired the shot that struck Sabo.

Four men were arrested by special officer O. D. Carlton at Iselin following a fight there at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. The prisoners were placed in the county jail.

HARRY W. FEE, P. M.

Remain at Yser's Right Bank. Paris, Nov. 6.—Official reports of the late fighting indicate the allies are firmly maintaining their positions in France where the German attack is now strongest and are gaining ground in Belgium where the German attack has weakened.

Between the North sea and Ypres, the line of fighting in Belgium, the power of the Germans seem to have been decreased remarkably.

The allies are now on the right bank of the Yser and have advanced eastward from Nieuport. Only between Dixmude and the Lys have the Germans displayed any strength, but their infantry charges have been broken and they have been pushed back.

The Germans brought heavy guns into action all along the center from the Oise to the Moselle and kept up a severe artillery action.

Allies Repulsed, Says Berlin. Berlin (By Way of London), Nov. 6.—The German headquarters issued the following statement:

"The Belgians, assisted by British and French troops, made a fierce attack by way of Nieuport between the sea and the inundations, but they were easily repulsed.

"Near Ypres, southwest of Lille and south of Berry-au-Bac, in the Argonne region and in the Vosges our attacks are progressing.

"In the eastern theater of war there have been no material events."

WILL CLEAN UP MINING TOWNS

BIG MINING OFFICIAL SAYS "MINERS MUST OBEY RULES,"

"Our employes will be discharged if they do not obey our rules and regulations," said an official of the Jefferson, Clearfield Coal and Iron Co., in a recent interview.

"We have come to the conclusion," he added, "if a miner does not do his duty he has to leave the village; it makes no difference of what nationality he may belong, he has to take the consequences.

"Some one reported lately that at Ernest and several other places it is not safe to go out doors after night, but I have taken this stand, that all our mining camps will be civilized and it will not be long before our village will be just as safe as Indiana.

"We are not going to give any chance to anybody; when we find out some one who is not doing his duty he will be discharged and sent away from the town. This is the only way of teaching others to prevent them from doing wrong.

"This shooting and trouble which they raise now and then, must be 'cut out.'"

Since this official has accepted his position with the said company he has done some remarkable work. In short, he has cleaned out many of the "bosses" who not only care little for the welfare of the company, but would ask the foreigners to do them private favors, such as asking for drink, borrowing money, after which it was never returned, and these foreigners, not being familiar with the English language, were compelled to keep silent, for fear they would lose their jobs.

We congratulate the officials, and we are fully convinced that if this step is taken we will not be surprised, but that it will prove a success.

The Y. M. C. A. and "The Romanancers."

With the entertainment furnished by the Frank Lea Short Co., at the Auditorium last Wednesday night, as the opening number of the annual Y. M. C. A. lecture the people of Indiana were presented with the best entertainment of its kind that has been given here.

When the curtain went up the actors faced over 1000 people, every seat in the house being occupied, in fact, "packed to the door.

The presentation of "The Romanancers" was classically given. The acting of the lovers, Sylvia and Percinet, was sublime.

Our local orchestra, with Prof. Hamlin Cogswell as director, rendered an excellent program.

The Y. M. C. A. committee is to be congratulated for knowing what to select.
