

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA CONCERT

Initial Bow of Indiana's
New Musical Organization Monday Night

Monday night at the Auditorium, Indiana's Symphony Orchestra of forty-five capable musicians under the direction of Prof. Cogswell, of the Normal Conservatory, will make its first public appearance in an excellent concert program.

Rehearsals have been going on for months until this fine organization has reached a high plane of musical efficiency and should be heard by every lover of music in Indiana.

This the first time Indiana ever could boast of a real symphony orchestra with complete instrumentation, and a very pleasant surprise is in store for all who attend Monday night. It is under the auspices of the Indiana Military Band and the net proceeds will go to help maintain that excellent organization.

The price of admission is only 25 cents, so let everyone buy a ticket whether he intends to go or not.

The orchestra will be assisted by three soloists all of whom are favorites in Indiana.

ADVERTISE IN THE PATRIOT

DEER TAKEN TO THE MOOSE FARM WEDNESDAY

The six dainty little Fallow deer which arrived in Indiana Wednesday evening from New Jersey and consigned by the State Game Commission to the Indiana County Branch of the Wild Life League, were the objects of much attention. It was the first time that many people in Indiana had seen a real, live deer, and especially of the Fallow variety.

The little visitors evidently appreciated the attention they were receiving, for they showed no signs of fear. The six are fine specimens and with the proper protection throughout the county will doubtless propagate rapidly.

The shipment was released in the vicinity of Suncliff by Frank Moose and when they were taken into the woods were reluctant to leave their custodians and had to be forcibly driven back into the woods. There is a heavy fine and imprisonment awaiting any person caught running the deer with dogs or in any way injuring them and for this reason it is not expected that there will be any trouble.

Five Are Taken to Morganza

Three girls and two boys, all from Indiana, or near this place, were taken on the 6:05 train Wednesday morning to the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Morganza, to see if the course of training at that institution will have any effect on their morals, which are badly corrupted. The five were: Lew Senebadi, Joe Kalmer, May Woolweaver, Anna Cook and Agnes Miller. The quintette were in the hands of officers, the chief of which was County Sheriff George H. Jeffries.
