ENCAMPMENT WILL CLOSE TOMORROW

One of the Most Successful Ever Held in the State

CONCERTS ENJOYED

The annual encampment of the Second Brigade, N. G. P., which has been held during the past week just south of town, will be brought to a close tomorrow after one of the most successful camps ever held by the state. The boys have been instructed in most everything that the regular army officers, who have been detailed here by the Federal government, could instruct them in during the short time allotted them.

Trench digging has been one of the principal interesting demonstrations, and the aeroplane has added new interest to the work of the troops. This is the first time in the history of the state that an air machine has been used with the troops. Sunday, "bombs" of flour were dropped with great accuracy upon the machine gun company, and showed plainly the efficiency of the air craft.

The outpost maneuvers of Tuesday were most interesting, the feature being the air-scouting of Aviator Luckey and the military observer, James when, formerly first lieutenant of Co. K, 18th infantry, who received messages from Field Co. A. signal Corps, by flag signal, which he wrote on paper and dropped to the commander of another section of the army. The maneuvers were witnessed by a large crowd. The aviator and his passenger went to a height of 3,000 feet and covered about 20 miles. Four regiments of infantry and two platoons of signal corps left camp at 2:30 and were followed one hour later by Aviator Luckey who had perfect control of his Curtis biplane at all times.

Wednesday afternoon the Eighteenth received instruction in trench digging.

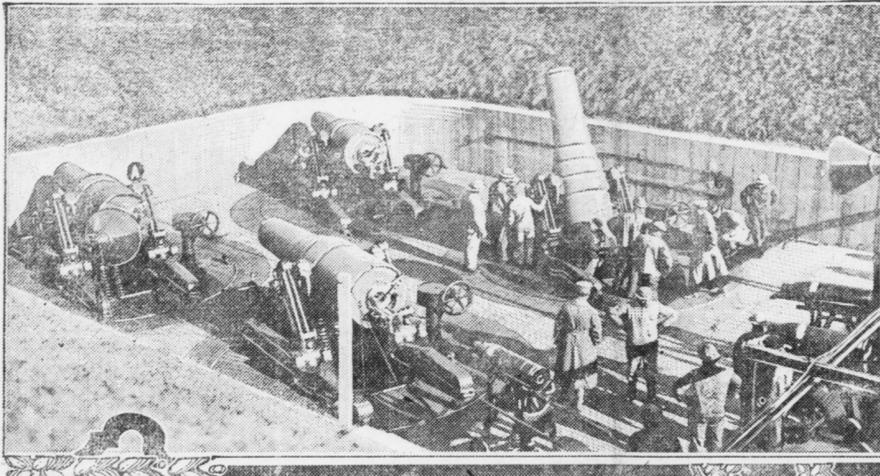

There was much disappointment here on account of Governor Brumbaugh not being able to attend this year's encampment. The merchants closed their stores and the banks also closed at 12 o'clock in anticipation of the visit of the state executive. The different reviews and inspections were gone through with the same as if the Governor had been present. This is the first time in nearly 40 years that any governor has failed to attend the Second Brigade encampment.

The military ball held last evening at the Auditorium was a brilliant social affair, and largely attended. Nirelia's Band was at its best and the dancing was much enjoyed.

At nine this morning the troops paraded the principal streets of the town with bands playing and colors flying.

The athletic events are taking place this afternoon on the old race track and handsome prizes await the

SANDY HOOK GUNS FIRE REAL SHELLS.

These big twelve inch mortars at Fort Hancock on Sandy Hook recently threw up real shells in tests. The shells were, however, thrown only three miles. All ships in the vicinity were ordered out of the danger zone.

Y. M. C. A. Boys Preparing For Camp

Plans are being completed for the Y. M. C. A. Boys Camp which will be held on Plum Creek, near the Idaho Dam from August 18 to 27.

The camp will be under the supervision of Physical Director Speck, assisted by Parker Lytle, who will take person charge of the camp.

The program assures each boy who attends, the maximum of a good time. Athletic activities of all kinds will be on the program, including a field meet at which prizes will be awarded to the ones winning the largest number of points. Baseball, swimming, canoeing, boating, hikes, ground hog hunts, target practice, woodcraft and many other diversions will feature the camp life.

A wireless outfit will also be installed for the benefit of the boys, and the baseball scores and messages to and from town will be made possible by this means.

Train Hits Auto at Coral

Two Blairsville young men had a narrow escape from death shortly after 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by the Cresson passenger at the crossing below the Coral station. The rear seat and top of the automobile were smashed, the rear axle was bent and the mud guards were loosened. The car was able to proceed to Blairsville under its own power.

winner of the many events. A large crowd is in attendance.

The camp this year has been a model one, the order has been perfect, the men behaving in a quiet and gentlemanly manner.

The Coming Fair

Preparations are going on for the greatest fair this year the Indiana Agricultural Society has ever held. The dates, Sept. 7, 8, 9 and 10, are a little later than usual, but this will allow the exhibitors more time to select their prize seeking displays. Good racing will be in evidence and there will be airplane flights and demonstrations of the use of these air craft in time of war, consisting of bomb dropping, etc. Many concessions are being sought and the "Midway" will have more than its usual quota of clean shows. As in years past, no gambling devices, or "skin" games will be allowed on the grounds and there will be plenty of free entertainment. The races this year promise to hold the closest attention of the lovers of this sport, and the musical end will be well taken care of by the Indiana Military Band.

FUNSTON READY TO CALL FOR MORE MEN

Troops are Moved to Border at Brownsville Where Fighting Continues

20,000 TROOPS MOBILIZED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—With 20,000 already at his command, General Funston, in charge of the southern department, is prepared to call for additional troops to quell the Mexican uprising in the Rio Grande valley if the disorder spreads beyond the localities now disturbed. 17,000 troops are on border duty and 3,000 with the exception of the Fifteenth cavalry, are held in reserve at El Paso.

General Funston said today that should the trouble spread beyond the four counties now involved he would ask for additional troops from other departments.

School Fund is Now $150,000

Pennsylvania's school fund, which was established by the framers of the state school code which became a law in the first year of Toner's administration, now contains over $150,000 of permanent investments, the last purchase of bonds having been made Monday. The fund had $70,000 of investments several months ago and since that time over $80,000 has been turned over to it by the State Forestry Department, as under the law all revenue from forests goes to the permanent fund. From this latter sum there have been purchased $10,000 Wilmington, Del. bonds; $10,000 Charlestown, W. Va.; $10,000 Rochester, Pa.; $20,000 Nashville, Tenn.; $20,000 Louisiana State and $15,000 Oil City Bonds. The fund already contained a number of Pittsburg and other bonds.

It is expected that this fund, the principal of which may not be spent, will ultimately amount to millions, as to it must go not only the income from the state forests which now aggregate over a million acres, but all the sales of state property and all escheated estates and money.
