

Angelo D'Amico Found Guilty of Manslaughter

Jury Recommends Prisoner to the Mercy of Court; Sentence Probably Monday

OTHERS SENT TO THE WORKHOUSE

Monday morning, the jury in the case of Angelo D'Amico, returned a verdict of manslaughter, and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court.

D'Amico was charged with murder on November 20, 1912, of Mike Mino; according to D'Amico's story, said that after the shooting occurred he left Lucerne with $2.50 in cash, and that when he got to Twolick Creek and wanted to cross, thinking that he could jump to the opposite side of the creek he fell in and had to stay there for two days drying his clothes, he then left there and walked to Middleford, N. Y., which is 25 miles from Buffalo, according to his story, he arrived there after three weeks journey and worked as a cleaner with the city police; from there he went to Boston, where he secured employment as a barber. He then was married and after living with his wife for two years he confessed to her his crime.

It was she who helped to convince him to surrender to the police. D'Amico may be sentenced Monday.

Com. v. Mary Palmer.—The sentence of the Court is that you pay the costs of prosecution, pay a fine of $25 to the Com. for use of Indiana Co., and be in the custody of the Sheriff for the execution of the sentence.

Com. v. Nicoli Liberatto.—The verdict of the jury was not guilty, but that the def't pay one-half the costs and the prosecutor, J. M. Cook one-half the costs. The sentence of the Court is that you, Nicoli Liberatto pay one half the costs within ten days; that J. M. Cook pay one half the costs within ten days.

Commonwealth vs. Charles Kuntz.—The def't entered a plea of guilty to selling liquor without a license, the Court paroled the def't on the following conditions: That you pay the costs of prosecution, that you refrain hereafter from the sale of intoxicating liquors of any kind, and from any infraction of the liquor laws of the Commonwealth; that you pay the sum of $100 in the nature of a penalty for use of Indiana County. Said payment to be made on or before the first Monday of May.

Commonwealth vs. Alex Bar-to.—If these def'ts violate this parole they will be brought into Court and sent to prison on this indictment.

Com. vs. Edward Bako.—The sentence of the Court is that you pay the costs of prosecution, pay a fine of $20 to the Commonwealth for use of Indiana Co., and undergo an imprisonment in the County Jail for a period of 60 days and be in the custody of the Sheriff etc.

Com. vs. Andy Kizk.—The sentence of the Court is that you pay the costs of prosecution, pay a fine of $100 to the Com. for use of Ind. Co., and undergo an imprisonment in the Allegheny County Work House at Hoboken, Allegheny Co., for a period of 6 months.

Com. vs. Sam Capira.—Sentence of the Court is that you pay the costs of prosecution, pay a fine of $25 to the Com. for use of Indiana Co., and undergo an imprisonment in the Allegheny County Work House at Hoboken, Allegheny Co., for a period of 6 months.

Com. vs. Masua Jiorjiana.—The def't having entered a plea of Nolo Contendere the Court will parole this def't on payment of costs.

Com. vs. Ivan Swauger.—Now, March 20, 1916, the sentence of the Court is that the def't pay the costs of prosecution, pay a fine of $100 to the Com. for use of Indiana Co., and undergo an imprisonment in the Allegheny Co. Work House, at Hoboken, Allegheny Co., for a period of 6 months.

"The Store" Is the Name of the New Gents' Furnishings House

Fine Establishment Was Recently Opened in North Homer City

What will be known to the public hereafter as "THE Store" is now open for business in the northern part of Homer City, familiarly known as Yankee-town. The store which is without doubt one of the leading ones of its kind in Homer City, is magnificently equipped with modern floor show-cases, and other store fixtures. Its many lights together with other improvements, are a credit to its owner, Mr. Charles D. Ettinger, who has great business ability and is a man of wide experience. We believe his new venture is one that will undoubtedly prove a success.

B., R. & P. NEW TOWNS ARE ANNOUNCED

Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Railway officials have just announced that effective March 14th the name of "Ernest Shaft" Pa., located on the Indiana Branch has been changed to "Shafton," Pa.

Aultman, Pa., station located on the Aultman Branch, will be opened as a regular freight and passenger station and Mr.

C. E. McAfoose is appointed as agent.

W. F. Broderick is appointed agent at Cowan, Pa., vice R. A. Lindenmuth, who has been appointed agent at Valier, Pa., in place of C. C. Smith, who also has been transferred.

R. R. Wagenman has been appointed agent at Renfrew, Pa., vice F. W. Johnson.

Best stores advertise in The Patriot.

Major General Leonard Wood, Commander Eastern Department, United States Army

City News of Interest to All

Local Girl Nurse.—Miss Mary Willey, of North 8th street, who has been studying in the U. of P. Hospital in Philadelphia, has passed her final examinations satisfactorily in that institution and expects to return here the latter part of June.

New R. E. Firm.—Fleming & Sloan is the name of the new Real Estate and insurance firm located in the room formerly occupied by S. A. Douglass, Esq. on Philadelphia street. Edward J. Fleming is of Starford and Frank E. Sloan is one of the firm of Sloan Bros.

Lieutenant Pierce.—At a meeting of the members of Co. F, 10th Infantry, Sergt. William E. Pierce was elected Second Lieutenant. Capt. John Wood of the Blairsville Co., conducted the election and Capt. Richard W. Watson swore in the new officer before the company.

In Philadelphia Hospital.—Attorney John A. Scott, of Indiana, is in a Philadelphia hospital suffering from a very serious affection of the eyes. He was almost blind when he was taken there but his eyes are slowly improving under the care of a specialist.

Home, Sweet Home.—Dr. H. B. Buterbaugh, T. E. Hildebrand, Ross Sutton, J. A. Crossman, Joseph Mack, D. Lynn Moorhead, Elmer Ellis and J. C. McGregor, a party of Indiana business men who made a three-weeks' trip to New Orleans, and Florida winter resorts, arrived home Saturday. All were benefitted by the trip and an enjoyable outing was had. They went to New Orleans by boat and returned by railroad.

New Steel Coaches.—Trains on the Indiana branch of the Pennsylvania railroad have been equipped with all steel coaches, much to the gratification of the employes and the public at large. The cars are lighted by electricity and contain the other conveniences of the standard steel coaches.

Fell Into Pit.—Ex-County Treasurer J. C. Leasure, of near Lovejoy is a patient in the Indiana hospital as the result of an accident Tuesday. While examining his automobile at Indiana Motor Co. garage he fell into one of the pits, sustaining a fracture of the jaw and severe laceration of the chin.

Struck by Automobile.—The Rev. Joseph Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Caldwell, and a brother of Mrs. Thomas Pealor of West Chetsnut street was injured in North Side, Pittsburgh, on Friday when he was struck by an automobile. Mr. Caldwell (who is blind) has made his home in the city for some time and this is the first serious accident that has befallen him owing to the lack of sight. His shoulder was dislocated and he is suffering severely from the shock.

NEW CENTURY CLUB.—The New Century club of Indiana, one of the best known and most active of women's organizations in this part of the state, will elect its officers at the meeting in April.

The Century club is to have charge of the playground work here this summer.

Mrs. Stewart Operated On.—Mrs. Laura Elkin Stewart, wife of Dr. John Stewart, of Indiana, Pa., and a daughter of the late Justice John P. Elkin, was operated upon for appendicitis at the Medico-Chirurgical hospital, Philadelphia. Doctor La Place performed the operation, which was successful and the patient rallied and is resting comfortably.

List of Letters.—Remaining uncalled for in the Indiana office March 18, 1916:

Mr. H. H. Bennet, Mr. S. R. (Continued on Page 4)

Bell Confirms Report Of Revolt; Denied By Mexican Authorities

PORTRAIT OF JUSTICE
ELKIN PRESENTED
SUPREME COURT

PHILADELPHIA, March 21. A large oil painting of the late Justice John P. Elkin was presented to the Supreme Court yesterday by the members of the jurist's family, who were represented by Attorney General Francis Skunk Brown.

School For Foreigners In Indiana

Place of Learning Was Started in Prothonotary's Office Last Night—Purpose Is to Teach in Order to Make Good Citizens of Them.

HOPE FOR LARGE CLASS

At the request of the United States Government a school for the benefit of persons from other countries who intend to become citizens of the United States, will be opened in the Court House.

This school is to be conducted by Lloyd Wells, deputy Prothonotary and Ernest Work, principal of the Indiana Public Schools. From the conjunction of the two gentlemen's names, the title of "Workwell" has been named and the school will therefore be known as The Workwell's School of Naturalization.

The school will be conducted entirely without cost to either pupils or government and it is hoped that all persons thinking of becoming citizens of the United States may take advantage of this opportunity to become acquainted with the language, as well as American customs and ideals.

Pennsylvania Inventors.

J. B. Aichholz, Lansdowne, Looseleaf binder; Edward L. Anderson, Allentown, producing certain commercial products from potas feldspar, sold; D. E. Arner, Berwick, Clutch; C. E. Backman, Butler, Refrigerating apparatus, sold; Harry Baker, Lebanon, Rail Joint; George Breed, Philadelphia, Electromagnet piano, sold; Charles F. Buente, York, Reinforced concrete cribbing, sold; Harry A. Carpenter, Pittsburgh, Brake Mechanism, sold; E. O. Elliott, Titusville, Hooper car, sold; Edward E. Everett, Clearfield, forming storage battery plate grids, sold; B. F. Getz, Mechanicsburg, Collar for equine animals; G. W. King, Philadelphia, Metallic rod packing, sold; A. M. Laycock, Kingston, Spring, W. J. Montgomery, Jeannette, Centrifugal fan, sold.

The above patents were just issued to Pennsylvania slients reported by D. Swift & Co., patent lawyers, of Washington, D. C., who will furnish copies of any patent for ten cents apiece to any of our readers.

Wanted—Girl for general housework. Small family, no children. Foreign girl preferred. Inquire at Patriot office.

San Antonio, Tex., Mar. 24.—With a message from Brig. Gen. Bell, Jr., before him confirming his report of yesterday that Gen. Herrera had revolted with 2,000 men and a collection of evidence at hand from unofficial sources denying the alleged revolt, Gen Funston was puzzled tonight as to the status of affairs in Mexico.

Gen Bell was the first to inform Gen. Funston that Herrera was reported to have joined Villa in his fight with the United States. Funston instructed him to investigate the report and to inform him of developments. The laconic message late today, that he had "confirmed" report of yesterday was Gen. Bell's reply. He did not report any additional facts concerning the new movement and didn't tell how the report had been confirmed.

Villa Defeat Reported In Battle with Followers of Gen. Carranza

El Paso, Mar. 23.—Villa was attacked and defeated tonight at Santa Gertrudes by Carranza troops, according to a dispatch received by Gen. Gavira at Juarez.

Gen. Gavira said he had received authentic information that following the skirmish at Santa Clara earlier in the day where Col. Canos command had defeated Villa, the bandit chieftain was pursued and again attacked late tonight at Santa Gertrudes and again was defeated.

The bandit chief left severely wounded and dead on the field.

From Santa Gertrudes the bandit and followers fled to El Oso, where he was reported tonight reorganizing his force.

Punx'y Youth Is Charged with the Murder of Father

Punxsutawney, Pa., Mar. 23. Charged with murder of his own father, Ernest Haines, aged 18 years was in jail here today. In an adjoining cell, Ward Mattern, Haines's 17 year old chum, was held on a similar charge. Members of the State Constabulary, who arrested them last evening at Sprankles Mills, declare that Mattern made a full confession of the crime, telling them how they had waylaid William Haines in the railroad cut near his home and blew off his head with a shotgun. Robbery was the motive.

Haines left his home at Syranckles Mills to go to the village store a mile and a half distant yesterday afternoon. He had a large roll of money and sometime later his cold body was found in the railroad cut. Haines was arrested at midnight, after Mattern had told his story and led his captors to a nearby creek where the shotign owned by Hoines was found.