

MEDDALENA BEING TRIED

The Case from Heilwood May Be Finished Sometime This Afternoon—Other News of Court Proceedings.

The case now on trial is that of Domonick Maddalena, of Heilwood, charged with the murder of Luigi Cicero. The case has been on trial since Thursday and it may be ended today.

In the case of Domonick Trunzo and Luigi Pecora, both charged with assault and battery, the jury turned in a verdict of not guilty but directed them to pay the costs. On that of Cecca Rauli, charged with carrying concealed deadly weapons, the jury turned in a verdict of guilty as indicted; these were cross suits.

In the case of Antony Karpolski, of Arcadia, charged with selling liquor without a license, the jury divided the cost between the prosecutor and the defendant.

R. E. Mikesell, of Coral, sustained a verdict of $431.32 against John Madill, of town, on a contract.

The cases of Samuel L. Henry vs. Chas. E. Henry; Barbara Yodic vs. George H. Jeffries, sheriff; Bankers Surety Co., vs. M. Bennett & Sons, were non suited for want of sufficient proof. Many other cases were continued or settled by the parties.

LATER — Domonick Maddalena has entered a plea of second degree murder. He will be sentenced Monday. The jury was discharged.

Indiana's Centennial to Be Celebrated with Pomp

"Grand Old Time" to Be the Biggest Thing in the History of the Town.

Plans for Indiana's Centennial Celebration, for next week, June 19-24 are about completed and promise fine days of royal entertainment of both historic and modern nature. Business men have been constructing, designing and decorating floats, for the past week. Over 100 magnificent portrayals of the county's historic and industries will be represented in the mile long parade.

Besides the centennial celebration, the state encampment of the Sons of Veterans of Pennsylvania will be held next week, when the entire membership will occupy 200 National Guard tents on a plot of ground just south of Indiana. The business meetings of the Sons of Veterans will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, June 20 and 21, but the greater number of the boys will remain here the remainder of the week to enjoy the centennial festivities.

The program for the week includes a large variety of entertainment, such as a street carnival, farmer's day, historical day, firemen's contest and one of the biggest first aid demonstrations ever held in the bituminous coal district of the state. These contests of the Pittsburg bureau of mines.

Special centennial services will be under the direct supervision held in the Indiana churches June 18. Monday will be devoted to a work of general preparedness, and completing final arrangements for giving a hearty welcome to the week's visitors.

Mass Meeting Tuesday, June 20. There will be a general homecoming reunion on Tuesday morning and a mass meeting of the citizens of the town in the court of honor at noon, when the key to Indiana will be returned over to the guests. A baseball game at Normal park will be the feature of the afternoon.

Firemen's contests, consisting of six events by Western Pennsylvania teams, will be held Wednesday morning. In the afternoon there will be a big parade of G. A. R. veterans, Sons of Veterans, firemen, fraternal organizations and students of Indiana State Normal and the public schools. A feature of this parade will be a historic pageant by public school children under the direction of Supt. of Schools F. Ernest Work. Miss Margaret Swan of Indiana, attired as an Indian princess, heads the pageant, typifying the naming of this place Indiana, after the Indians which inhabited this section in the early days. Other things of historic interest to be portrayed in the pageant are the arrival of the first settlers, a conference with the settlers and the Indians, and the underground railroad, which had an important station here during slavery times, and the presenting to the town, by George Clymer, of the ground on which the Indiana courthouse is erected.

To Reproduce First Arrest.

A historical reproduction of the first arrest and the first court trial in Indiana will be given in front of the courthouse on Thursday morning, farmers' day by Gen. Harry White. It will be followed by relay races between Punxsutawney Y. M. C. A. and Indiana track teams. The afternoon will be devoted to the farmers of the county. Among the speakers will be State Secretary of Agriculture Charles Patton F. S. Welsh of the New York Central railroad department of agriculture, G. D. Harmon of Pittsburgh and an able representative of Pennsylvania State College. The day closes with athletic contests on the Normal field.

First-Aid teams from 20 mining towns in western Pennsylvania will participate in the First-Aid contests to be held on Friday morning under the supervision of the Pittsburg Bureau of Mines. A parade of merchants, manufacturers, miners and farmers will be held in the afternoon. A feature of it will be a display of absolute and modern machinery in operation, as it was and is used in the various industries of this county. There will be an elaborate display of fireworks on Friday night.

The festivities of the week close on Saturday with a general parade of all the centennial committee, members of the citizens of the town. amusement enterprises, and

Wilson and Marshall Chosen to Head Democratic Party

One Lone Delegate Votes Against Wilson and Prevents a Unanimous Nomination.

Platform Has Not Been Adopted As Yet

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—For President — WOODROW WILSON of New Jersey.

For Vice President—THOMAS R. MARSHALL of Indiana.

This ticket was renominated by the Democratic national convention in the coliseum here a few minutes before midnight tonight. The President was not literally nominated by acclamation. One delegate defiantly shouted "No" when Chairman James put the question. This was Delegate-at-Large Emmett R. Burke of Chicago.

It took the bloom off the rose. Senator James was obliged to announce the vote 1092 to 1.

The renomination of Mr. Wilson was accomplished at 11:56 after a nominating speech by Judge John W. Wescott of New Jersey and seconding speeches by former Gov. Judson A. Harmon of Ohio and Gov. Stuart of Virginia.

Vice President Marshall was renominated by acclamation, Delegate Burke having no objection. The formality was recorded at 11:57 p. m. All opposition crumbled away—the candidacies of Roger Sullivan of Illinois, Gov. Major of Missouri and Gov. Moreland of Nebraska having failed to enlist serious support.

Mr. Marshall was placed in renomination by Senator Kern of Indiana in a single sentence. There was no seconding speeches. The name of Ambassador James W. Gerard, who was endorsed by the New York delegation for vice president, was not presented to the convention.

At 12:07 a. m. a committee was appointed to wait on the platform committee to see if it could get its report ready within reasonable time and so wind up all remaining convention work. It had been in session at the Planters Hotel since early

CONSTABLES FORM CO-OPERATIVE ASOC.

The constables of Indiana Co. have formed an organization through which they hope that the capture of criminals will be simplified. The organization was planned by the court and the district attorney, and is along the line of a county police force.

The name, address and telephone number of every constable in the county has been listed. A copy will be placed in the hands of every constable. Where a crime is committed the organization will find it very easy to get the officials of the entire district out, working for the apprehension of the criminal.

'Punxsy's' Bill Fairman Is Given Wrong Label

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—"Colonel W. M. Fairman, a delegate from Alabama, is here," says today's issue of the St. Louis "Globe-Democrat" under a two-column half-length cut of none other than "Bill" Fairman of Punxsutawney. Not content with putting the Pennsylvanian as coming from Alabama, the paragraph continues: "He is a noted criminal lawyer, who has a record of having defended 72 men for murder, securing the acquittal of all but one. He dresses in the style of the typical old southerner, and has the lovable drawl and intonation." Such is fame.

Whether the enthusiastic reporter who discovered Bill to be fell innocently has not been "a character" was framed or learned.

Nothing made "Bill" mad but the reference to the Southern drawl, which he certainly has not.—Pittsburgh Sun
