

Arcadia Mine to Resume Operation

Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Co. to Re-open Plant Purchase Equipment.

The announcement by the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke corporation that it would soon resume operations at its old No. 3 mine near Arcadia, is one of the best pieces of news local mining men have received in a good while. It means that trade is picking up and that there will be a general boom following the reopening of the big plant.

The plant has been closed for several years and since that time hundreds of people have moved from the mining village.

The officials announce the purchase of two six-ton electric motors. These are now being installed.

Shark Killed Man and Boy in N. J.

MATAWAN, N. The third victim of was 10-year-old Joseph Dunn, a summer visitor here, who is said to live in New York.

P. R. R. Investigates Dynamite Outrage

Series of Small Explosions Lead to Discovery of Attempt to Wreck Train.

Altoona, Pa., July 12—Pennsylvania Railroad detectives are investigating today what appears to have been a deliberate attempt to either destroy railroad property or to wreck trains at Bellwood, seven miles east of here, late last night.

Shortly before midnight while a local train from Harrisburg was passing a water station west of Bellwood station there was a terrific explosion and an investigation revealed that a heavy charge of dynamite had been put off with a time fuse.

Later railroad detectives and signal men found eighty-six of dynamite, done up in packages containing eight to ten sticks each, with fuses attached. They were scattered over the four tracks and some of the explosive was found in a water trough between the tracks. Shortly before two o'clock this morning there was a second explosion about 150 feet from the Bellwood station, and still later there was an explosion of dynamite in two passenger coaches which had been stored for the night on the Bellwood division tracks of the Pennsylvania at Bellwood. One of them was so badly damaged that it was unfit for service.

KAISER MAY USE SUB TO SPUR U. S. AGAINST ENGLAND

Amsterdam, July 14—In conservative quarters in Holland, the arrival of the submarine Deutschland in American waters is explained as a warning to the United States that she is within reach of Germany's submarine craft. This argument, it is said, is to be used to force Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg to inform Washington that the American government must remind Great Britain of its obligations.

Report from German sources state that should the chancellor refuse to take this step, the most serious consequences may be expected. It has been rumored here for some time that Von Bethmann-Hollweg's position as head of the German government is seriously menaced by internal unrest in Germany.
