

W. M. H. JACOBY, Editor. 37 Park Row New York...

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Committee, at its meeting, on January 29th, at Harrisburg, adopted the following resolutions:

A CHANGE WANTED.

Evidently the country has had enough of radical rule. The result of the city, town and township elections, all over the country, to say nothing of the defeat the Negro-Union party met with in Connecticut...

We have always contended that a reaction would soon take place, and we are having it now just about as rapidly as could well be brought about. It is only a matter of time, and that time is not far distant...

TO TAX-PAYERS.

Why are the necessities of life so high? Large armies are no longer in the field, consuming and destroying large quantities of provisions...

THE OLD GUARD.

The Old Guard for May, will be found to be a very interesting number. Mr. Simms' new story begins to show great dramatic power. Mr. Cooke treats us to one of his best battle pictures...

GROWING RECKLESS.

The local editor of the Danville Va. Times explains his state of feeling: "We are happy in being no more miserable—no wood—no money—no three inches deep, and more we fear, coming—luk frozen—roller ditto; the devil with a bad cold and our heels frost bitten."

Emerson Edridge has been nominated by the Democrats and Conservatives of Tennessee as their candidate for Governor, to run against the sulphurous Brownlow.

THE "UNION".

No doubt many people may think this an old subject; and we admit that it is; so old that our grand-fathers and great grand-fathers, were they alive, would respond, the "Union" forever!

They struggled for a Union of States; for a union of interests among the States; and they brought about such a combination of interests between north and south, east and west, in a country, considering the character of civilization, the most extensive on the globe...

REACTION.

We have often called attention to the wicked provocations which brought on the late unhappy civil war. GARRISON, GREELEY, PHILIPS, STEVENS, and others of the puritan school of political morals, commenced the agitation against negro slavery more than thirty years ago...

The Democratic party was organized and came into power in 1801. With brief intervals it continued in power up to 1861. During all this time no nation was more prosperous than this, no people more happy, no government less burdensome...

A Loyal Grub.

We observe in the appropriation bill that Thomas H. Burroughs and Co. have again matured their plan of robbing the tax-payers for another year of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars...

EXIT-THE SENATE.

The United States Senate, after displaying all the malignity, meanness and corruption of a Roman Senate in the last days of the Empire, when offices and honors were bought and sold like vegetables in the market...

MARKET REPORT.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Wheat, Corn, Buckwheat, Oats, Cloverseed, Flaxseed, Dried apples, Potatoes, Flour, Eggs, Butter, Lard, Hams, Shoulders, Hay.

DIED.

At Dushore, Sullivan county, on the 9th inst. Dr. JOSIAH JACKSON, formerly of Berwick, aged 75 years. In Boonsboro, Boone County, Iowa, on Friday, April 19th, 1867, MARY SUSAN, 3d daughter of Mathias B. and Sarah Appelman, aged 3 years, 3 months and 11 days.

The Republican Party.

The Republican journals throughout the country are expressing great fears, and that they founded, of an impending rupture in their party. Indeed the present Republican party is a close resemblance of a race horse, that in times past has swept everything before it, but now, with strength relaxed, confidence lost, "flies the track," and the fame and vitality that it but a short time possessed has passed away.

Remember ye the God of love, Who dwells enthroned in light above, Your souls cometh into his care With faith and hope and humble prayer.

My soul is calm through Jesus' love, I long to dwell with him above, Where Saints and Angels too, are blest, And where the weary are at rest.

Where all the ransomed shall sit down, In glory round the Father's throne, To praise the undivided three, Who sets our souls at liberty.

OBITUARY.

The following lines were written on the death of the late CHRISTIANA BRINK, wife of Clark Brink, who departed this life January 13th, 1866, aged 33 years, 8 months and 28 days.

She asks no longer here to stay, Where troubles come from day to day, For long she has in weakness lain, Though not been rack'd with tort'ring pain.

Remember ye the God of love, Who dwells enthroned in light above, Your souls cometh into his care With faith and hope and humble prayer.

My soul is calm through Jesus' love, I long to dwell with him above, Where Saints and Angels too, are blest, And where the weary are at rest.

Where all the ransomed shall sit down, In glory round the Father's throne, To praise the undivided three, Who sets our souls at liberty.

My soul is calm through Jesus' love, I long to dwell with him above, Where Saints and Angels too, are blest, And where the weary are at rest.

Where all the ransomed shall sit down, In glory round the Father's throne, To praise the undivided three, Who sets our souls at liberty.

My soul is calm through Jesus' love, I long to dwell with him above, Where Saints and Angels too, are blest, And where the weary are at rest.
