Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Committee, at its meeting on January 29th, at Harrisburg, adopted the following resolutions:

JEFF. DAVIS.

Two years ago, upon the 14th day of April, 1865, Abraham Lincoln met with an untimely death...

DAVIS, during all this time, two long years, was confined in prison without a single legal effort being made to convict him...

Policy Democracy is just Democracy at all. The man who whispers is never heard in the roar of battle!

Policy Democrats are good in their place. Comrades to the rear! If you are afraid to fight in the front, go to the rear and sleep!

Policy Democrats were lulled to sleep by the groans of Democrats murdered by Lincoln and his minions...

The Temperance Movement.

The friends of temperance in Columbia County have of late been making commendable efforts to check the evil arising from the abuse of intoxicating drinks.

Aggricultural Meeting.

At an election held by the Agricultural Society of Columbia County, in the Court House, on Saturday last, the following persons were elected to serve as officers of the Society for the ensuing year:

President—JOSEPH P. CONSON, of Centre. Vice Presidents—Caleb Barton, of Bloom; William H. Shoemaker, of Hemlock; James Masters, of Pine; Matthias Hartman, of Catawissa.

Executive Committee—Col. Hiram R. Kline, or Orange; Peter Billmeyer, of Bloom; Sylvester Pursel, of Hemlock.

Secretary—Leonard B. Rupert, of Bloom. Treasurer—Elias Mendelhall, of Bloom. A. J. Sloan, W. H. Jacoby and Peter Billmeyer, were appointed a Committee to ascertain whether the present grounds held by the Society can be released and upon what terms, and report the same at some future meeting.

The salaries of the President and Secretary were allowed to remain the same as last year.

The report of the Treasurer was satisfactorily received; showing the Society to be in a flourishing condition, without any debts, and over a thousand dollars in cash on hand.

The Broad Top Railroad.

The controllers of this road have, within the past six months, improved it very much. All the old trestle have been superceded by new and splendid materials, while many other improvements have been made.

The Broad Top Road is one of the safest in the State. It has a less number of accidents recorded than any other line of the same length reported, while the care and attention of its officers to the comforts of a traveling public speak in the most favorable terms.

We do not think that any one will hesitate to pronounce the most favorable opinion of the substantial condition of the road who will take the pains to inquire or to investigate.

We do not like those soldiers who ride to battle in ambulances or covered carriages, criticising the brave men who are at the front, fighting hand to hand against odds.

Policy Democracy is just Democracy at all. The man who whispers is never heard in the roar of battle!

Release of Jefferson Davis.

Jefferson Davis has been released from confinement at Fort Monroe, and is now at liberty. He was brought before the U. S. Circuit Court at Richmond by General Burton, the Military Commandant of the Fort, in obedience to the writ of habeas corpus allowed by Judge Underwood, and the forms of an arrest on the indictment for treason which was presented against him a year ago, were gone through with.

The District Attorney and his associate counsel on behalf of the Government, having announced that they were not ready to proceed to trial, Mr. Davis was discharged from custody, upon the motion of Charles O'Connor, Esq., one of his counsel, on giving bail in the sum of $100,000, for his appearance on the fourth Monday of November next.

The salaries of the President and Secretary were allowed to remain the same as last year.

The report of the Treasurer was satisfactorily received; showing the Society to be in a flourishing condition, without any debts, and over a thousand dollars in cash on hand.

An Aged Woman Found Dead in a Spring—A Singular Case.

An old widow named Leah Price was found dead, in a sitting posture, in the spring on the premises where she resided, near Paxinos, this county, on Monday morning last, with only the lower part of her body under water.

The facts in the case, as related to us, are very singular. She was the widow of Wilson Price, of Shamokin township, to whom she had no children, but she had two stepsons, children of said Wilson Price. At his death, Mr. Price willed his two farms to the two sons excepting of course, the lawful interest of the widow. One son also died afterwards, and Jacob Kline bought and moved on the farm of the deceased son.

The farm of the surviving son, Peter Price, adjoins the property of Kline. It appears that Kline and Price jointly provided for the wants of the aged widow and she occupied rooms in the house of Kline. Early on Monday morning Mrs. Kline went to the spring and found the old lady as above stated. The water was not over eighteen inches in depth. She was tightly wedged in, with her back to the stepping stone and her feet propped against the opposite wall.

Her body was still warm but life was extinct. When taken out she was full of water the upper part of her body completely wet, but how she could have drowned and then got into the position in which she was found, is still involved in mystery. An inquest held upon the body and the findling was that she came to her death by drowning.

Whether the matter will end here we know not, but the case should be fully investigated, if possible, until there is no more doubt as to the manner of her death, whether accidental or otherwise.—Scribner Democrat.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for June, is an unusually fine number, even for this popular and elegant magazine. It has a beautiful steel engraving, "The Wild Flowers in the Wood," a splendid mammoth colored pattern for a tobacco pouch; and about five hundred engravings of dresses, bonnets, collars and cuffs, children's fashions, baby's shoes, patterns in embroidery, smoking cap, &c., &c.

The literary contents maintain the high character of "PETERSON." That powerful story, "The Long Journey," is finished. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens' fascinating novella, "Married by Mistake," is continued. A capital article on "The Laws of Congress," is also worth the price of the number. This is a good time to subscribe, for a new volume begins with July, though back numbers from January may also be had, if subscribers wish to commence with the first of the year.

"PETERSON" is the cheapest of all the monthlies. To single subscribers it is but $2.00 a year. For $5.00 five copies are sent with an extra copy to the person getting up the club. Address C. J. Peterson, 506 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.
