We shall deem it a favor if our friends and patrons in Southern Utah will send us local items transpiring in their vicinity. We also invite Postal Card Correspondence from all parts of the Territory, on items of interest, local and general. To those who will comply with the above request, we will furnish them the Echo.

Since the co'd wave has passed over our portion of the country the weather is more pleasant.

'Hello, Ross; where are you going?' 'Oh, I'm going over to see if Elsie will smile some of her sweet smiles on a poor fellow!

On account of an over-rush of matter this month some of our articles have been unavoidably crowded out, but they will appear in our next.

The other day brother Morris and company, (about 30 souls,) from the Rockville Ward, who are bound for Arizona, passed through town. We wish them a safe journey to their destination, and prosperity in the future.

The dome on the St. George Temple is undergoing a remodeling, but yet, it is hardly large enough, considering the size of the building, but is so far ahead of the former dome that it looks very well as it nears completion.

No. 1, Vol. 1 of the Orion Era, published at St. John, A. T., and edited by M. P. Romney, is to hand. It is quite a newsy, interesting sheet, but the way the rules are placed at the top of each article gives it an odd appearance. We wish our old-time friend success in his new undertaking, and hope we shall be placed on the exchange list.

A few days ago when the Stone-cutters were cutting black rock, a jocular chap, named Mick, was asked what the masons were cutting black rock for? Mick said he didn't know, unless they were cutting tombstones for somebody in St. George. Charley wished to know who is dead? Mick says, "I don't know; but there are several that ought to be."
