Lost. In September, 1897 while coming from Milford, Utah, a sack containing clothes, among which was a lady's Large Shawl, was supposed to have been lost somewhere between the Meadows and Chadburas, on the Santa Clara. The finder will be rewarded by returning the same to David H. Cannon, St. George, Utah. 39-4t

On Saturday, December 11, 1897 the Priesthood meeting of the St. George Stake convened in the St. George Tabernacle and there was an unusual large attendance of presiding officers of the Stake as word had been sent out that apostle A. O. Woodruff would be present at the Conference and all were anxious to see and hear him as the very name of Woodruff carries a pleasant feeling to the hearts of the Latter-day Saints, and when he spoke to the people, which he did in all the meetings during conference, it sounded as music in the ears of the people, and many could be heard to say that his words had the right ring to them, for they could feel that he spoke by the inspiration of God. The conference is one long to be remembered by the people of this Stake, as much good instruction was given by all the speakers.

On Tuesday brother Woodruff took a pleasure trip over quail hunting grounds visited by his father in years gone by.

Tuesday evening he and others visited the Santa Clara where held a meeting with the Saints of that thriving little settlement and spake to them for some time in their own mother tongue, which was a treat to them in very deed.

After meeting he and those who were with him from St. George were taken to the home of one of his co-laborers in the German mission, where fruit and other refreshments were freely given to all present, and a very enjoyable time was had.

Brother Woodruff's amiable wife accompanies him and during her few days sojourn in this city has made many friends by her kind and encouraging words and affable manner, and she is a lady whom to know is to love.

Marriage licenses have been issued by county Clerk as follows:
Dec. 6. Herbert White and Lillian Dalley, of Iron Co. Dec. 9. Wm. H. Gifford and Eleanor Hepworth, of Springdale. Dec. 13. Carl A. Graf and Erminna Tubler, of Santa Clara.

There will be a Dramatic Entertainment at the Social hall, on Saturday, December 25, 1897, entitled "Bound by an Oath," a Drama in Prologue and 4 acts. The cast of the play is borne by old hands at the bellows and is sure to be worth the price of admission, so be sure to see it. Wherever the play has been put on the boards it gave every satisfaction desired.

Look out for thieves and lock your doors, when you leave the house, whether by day or night, as an old saying is still true, it is better to lock the door before the house is robbed than to wish we had afterwards; for there are thieves in St. George and they are carrying on their stealing. On last Saturday or Sunday a twenty dollar bill was stolen out of the house of John Milton Moody, and this week a fifty pound sack of flour was stolen out of a granary in the west part of town. As yet no clue to either of the depredators has been obtained.

A new Dramatic company was organized in this city on the 5th inst, and notwithstanding we have been in company of a number of the members, we knew not a word of it until AFTER it came out in the Salt Lake papers! This secret way of keeping everything away from the home paper, that is possible, is very encouraging, but this is not the first time that we have been thus treated. If we are not worthy of the first slice, we will not take the second slice, hereafter.

This morning as we awoke from our slumber so sweet, the ground covered with snow is what our eyes did meet, and it has been falling all day.

Considerable snow has melted as it fell but it is over 5 inches deep as we go to press.

Eliza A. Lloyd has been appointed postmistress at Pine Valley, vice R. G. Gardner removed. John S. Whitmore [Whitwer?] postmaster at Santa Clara vice Rudolph Freie, removed.

The Kemp boys are erecting a new residence.
