THE LONESOME DOLLAR

There is nothing in this world so lonesome as a single dollar
 It can't even jingle
 A single dollar doesn't go very far in serving a big territory like ours (over one-fifth of the area of the United States)
 A lot of little railroads, not related and not connected, can serve only a small part of the people
 It's only by connecting them together with standard tracks and cars and methods that all the people can get service of a high grade
 So it is in the telephone business
 A lot of unrelated, isolated, local telephone exchanges, each with different methods and equipment, could only serve a part of the people
 It's only by joining them together with uniform methods and equipment that all the people can best be served
 Yet each little railroad and each local telephone exchange requires more money than one man can furnish
 It's only by means of the combined money of many men that the big trunk railroad and the big public serving telephone company is possible
 It's only by combining a great many "lonesome dollars" that the public can best be served
 That's capital
 In most lines of business the investment, once made, needs no additions
 In the telephone business new capital is needed every day to meet the ever increasing demands for service
 In our business the construction account is never closed
 In the last twelve months it cost us approximately $1,500,000.00 to make additions to our plant alone

A PURE HEART IS A PURE FOUNTAIN

Suggestions as to How to Start a New Year Right.

Pure Thoughts—Two Ways of Fighting Vice, Sin—We Must Copy God's Methods—Impurity is Devouring Our Race—Its Ramifications—In Business, In Religion, In Society, In Politics, In the Home, Everywhere—The Fight Against Impurity—Its Progress—Its Soldiers—Its Efforts and Results, Present and Future.

New York, January 4.—Pastor Russell, of the City Temple Congregation, took for his text today St. Paul's words: "Whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."—Philippians 3:8.

The Pastor began by calling attention to the will. Then he showed that the heart represents the real man, whom we are not always able to recognize properly. He quoted Scripture to prove that God looks upon the heart rather than upon the outward appearance, and declared that all who desire to be pleasing to God should carefully scrutinize their own hearts. As a man thinks in his heart, the Pastor claimed, so will he gradually come to do.

The man who does not think has not properly begun to live, continued the Pastor. The man with wrong thoughts has before his mind wrong ideals, and is still worse off. All must admit, he declared, the truth of the Apostle's proposition that we must think upon good, honorable, just, pure, lovely things, if we would have our lives just, noble, pure, lovely and lovable.

The Pastor did not choose this subject because his congregation is devoid of good ideals, but because we are all apt to let slip some of those noble ideals set before us in the Scriptures. The opening of the new year he considers to be a very favorable time for resetting our heart affections upon things noble, just, pure, lovely, and for exercising all the will power and resolution we can command. Thus we make character.

Then he reminded his congregation that we are all preaching both by word and by action; and that others are influenced more by our actions than by our words. As God's people, we are all to show forth His praises as we have opportunity. Our ordination is of God through the Holy Spirit—the highest, the only authority.

The World's Purity Congress.

Last November Pastor Russell was appointed delegate to the World's Purity Congress, which met in Minneapolis, November 7th to 12th. There he met a band of noble men and women who are laying down their lives in the fight against sin. Some labored as Christ's followers; others, from merely a humanitarian standpoint. The Pastor then gave a resume of the work of the Purity Congress. The delegates discussed, not merely the evil, but rather the good and what must be accomplished that good may prevail. He was pleased with their spirit of moderation, and noted also their appreciation of what he has sought for years to set forth; namely, that apparently much of the sin and vice in the world results from ignorance and superstition, although all must agree that there are people whose vicious conduct can scarcely be characterized as other than wicked, sensual, devilish.

The Congress devoted much time to discussing the welfare of children, the Pastor declared. It was demonstrated that among the very poor ideals of chastity are practically unknown. These children possess knowledge of sex matters beyond their years; and, mingling with others in the schools, they suggest immoral practices to those whose parents have sought carefully to maintain their purity.

The parental duty of giving children proper conceptions of the sanctity of their bodies was next discussed. This information should be given before the child enters school; for first lessons in vice are sometimes given even in the kindergarten, notwithstanding the teacher's watchful eye. The child should be assured that the parent will give further instruction later on, and should have such confidence in the parent's truthfulness that it would wait for that further information which every child's mind seeks regarding itself and its origin.

The Pastor declared that many parents do not know how to broach the subject of sex hygiene to their children. Are we to see young boys start bad habits which will injure their own health and that of their posterity? he asked. Yet great care should be exercised lest evil be encouraged, instead of guarded against.

From thirteen to fifteen seems to be the age when clear knowledge is quite necessary to save the child from the evil which has overtaken many. The parents, the Pastor claims, are the God-given instructors and protectors of their families. Nothing can excuse them from this duty, whether church work, stum work or even Bible study.

If Hair Is Turning Gray, Use Sage Tea

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Parken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that no body can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or a soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
