

American Fork Locals and Personals

J. W. Storrs spent the fore part of the week at Tintic on business.

Mrs. Jack Rosell of Salt Lake City was the guest of Miss Barbara Boley part of the week.

Miss Reba Lee is home after spending the past month visiting relatives and friends at Bingham.

Mr. Stephen Woods returned to Eureka Thursday after spending a few days here visiting his family.

Mrs. Charles J. Wright entertained a number of friends at dinner at her home Monday.

Mrs. Spencer Gammell of Springville spent the week here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davis.

Reed Robinson, Jesse Kirkman and Wallace Heiselt went to Salt Lake City Tuesday for an extended stay.

If you have anything to sell a little ad in the want column brings results. See page 2.

Mrs. Nina Otteson returned home Tuesday after spending a week with friends at Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Madsen are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Sunday. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Clyde Woods returned to his employment at Eureka, Sunday, after spending a few days here visiting relatives and friends.

The dance given by the Odeon Orchestra in the Apollo Hall Monday evening was a complete success. Everybody present had an enjoyable time.

Misses Myral Cassidy and Anna Stubbs returned to their homes at Provo, Sunday, after spending a few days here visiting, guests of Miss Reba Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Joy of Salt Lake City, formerly of this city, spent the week here visiting relatives and friends.

Messrs. Clifford E. Young and Ernest Madsen were at Provo Wednesday to attend the M. I. A. convention in behalf of boy scout work.

In the District Court Monday, Edith Lawhorn of American Fork was granted a divorce from Zachariah D. Lawhorn on the ground of failure to provide. Plaintiff was given the custody of two minor children and alimony in the sum of $20 a month. The parties were married April 19, 1908, at Butte, Mont.

A very successful party was given in the Second Ward meeting house Tuesday evening by the Y. L. M. I. A. in honor of Mrs. S. L. Chipman and Mrs. Reginald Garff, the two Junior Class leaders who have recently been released on account of other duties. There were about forty present and an evening of games, music and social chat was enjoyed by all present, followed by light refreshments.

Dr. J. N. Christensen died at his home in Provo Monday from pneumonia at the age of 77 years. The deceased was a native of Denmark. He came to Utah in the late 60's and has lived in Provo the greater part of the time since. He was the oldest, not only in age, but in years of practice, and one of the best known dentists in this county, and was engaged in the practice of his profession up to the time of his last illness. Dr. A. Christensen of this city and Dr. Harold Christensen of Lehi are his sons.

Attorney Beck was courting at Provo Monday.

Miss Alice Dunn was a Provo visitor Monday.

J. W. Chipman was at Salt Lake on business a few days this week.

President Clarke was at the county seat Monday on business.

Mr. George R. Steele, who is employed at Bingham, came home Monday to receive treatment for a severely sprained arm.

Milton Brown, who is attending school and taking violin lessons at Salt Lake, came home Sunday for a two weeks' visit with relatives.

If you are not a subscriber to this paper, now would be a good time to jump into the vehicle. Call this week and join the army of readers. You'll like it.

Seventy young people, members of the Y. M. L. M. I. A. of the First Ward, had a most delightful time at a basket party at the ward house Tuesday evening. Various games and music consisted of the evening's pleasure. Baskets of lunch were furnished by the young ladies, and the young men furnished candy and nuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Crookston entertained a number of their friends and relatives at their home Tuesday evening. An enjoyable time was had in games and music, after which a delicious oyster supper was served.

Mrs. Rosa H. Grant entertained the First Ward Relief society at her home Thursday afternoon at a good old time social. About thirty ladies were present and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Choice refreshments were served.

Miss Olive Dunn left for Iowa on Tuesday for an extended stay with relatives and friends.

FOR SALE—One single iron bed with good springs. Enquire at this office or call 86-m. 24-1t

In another column will be found a notice by Mr. S. T. Baker, representing the Utah-Idaho Sugar company, to enter into contracts with beet growers for this year.

Mrs. Willis Gaisford and baby are over from Tooele visiting with her folks at Alpine and American Fork this week. Her sister, who has been visiting in Tooele the past month, returned also.

Utah flockmasters report the refusal in Salt Lake of 14 cents for the coming spring clip, although several clips in southern Utah are reported as already sold at that figure. Last year's prices ranged from 13 to 16 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Crookston entertained a number of their friends and relatives at their home Tuesday evening. An enjoyable time was had in games and music, after which a delicious oyster supper was served.

Mrs. Rosa H. Grant entertained the First Ward Relief society at her home Thursday afternoon at a good old time social. About thirty ladies were present and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Choice refreshments were served.

Mr. M. W. Logie was a Salt Lake City visitor Tuesday.

William Thornton was at Salt Lake City Saturday on business matters.

Miss Rose Grant of Lehi spent the week here visiting relatives.

Mr. Elmer Strong was a Provo visitor Sunday.

James H. Clarke made a business trip to Salt Lake Thursday.

Mr. Walter Slack was at Salt Lake on business Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peterson were Salt Lake visitors Tuesday and Wednesday.

Lonny Rhodes came home from the sheep herd Tuesday for an extended visit.

Miss Ferl Pulley is spending week at Eureka, the guest of Mr. T. J. Parker.

Mr. Ray Hoover of Provo was the guest of Miss Liza Hindley Monday and Tuesday.

Don't miss the dance tonight in the Apollo Hall, given by the Symphony Orchestra.

Misses Amy Whipple, Della Peterson and Lila Whipple of Lehi spent Saturday and Sunday here, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wagstaff.

Miss Cosette Startup returned to her home at Provo, Wednesday, after spending a few days here visiting as the guest of Mrs. P. T. Henry.

Mr. H. H. Hurt, manager of the local telephone office, will arrive here from Texas some time this week and will reside in Mrs. Emma Sykes' home.

President and Mrs. S. L. Chipman went to Lehi Monday to attend the party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Evans in Smuin's Dancing Academy at that place.

Word was received here Tuesday that Elder Clyde Crookston, who has spent the past two years doing missionary work at England, will set sail from there either January 29 or February 4, and will probably come by way of New York.

In honor of Mrs. C. L. Joy, Mrs. Willes Bromley entertained a number of her friends and relatives at her home on Tuesday evening. Very choice refreshments were served the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Ell Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Joy, Mrs. Nancy Forbes, Mrs. Sarah Wootton and Miss Clara Wootton.

Mrs. W. B. Smith entertained at her home Thursday evening complimentary to her niece, Miss Hannah Steele, of Idaho Falls, who is here visiting. A delicious supper was served the guests at 6:30 o'clock. Those present were Miss Emma Greenwood, Miss Alice Dunn, Miss Myrtle King, Miss Florence Dunn, Miss Myrtle Greenwood and Mrs. William Barratt.

The members of the Comus club, numbering about thirty, were entertained in a most delightful way by Mr. Joseph Walton at his home Saturday evening. Progressive games consisted of the evening's pleasure. Prizes were won by Mr. W. A. Huckins and Mrs. T. F. Corbett. A delicious luncheon was served.

Misses Ida and Manda Chipman entertained Wednesday evening, complimentary to Mrs. C. L. Joy of Salt Lake City. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Willes Bromley, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. James Chipman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Southworth, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Preston, Mrs. P. T. Henry and Miss Clara Wootton. The evening was pleasantly spent in progressive whist. Prizes were won by Mr. Southworth and Mr. Preston. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hickman were at Provo a few days this week visiting relatives and friends.

It is reported that the Relief societies of the stake are responding very heartily to the request of the stake presidency and building committee, and they expect to buy all electrical fixtures for the Alpine Stake Tabernacle. This will certainly be a credit to the Relief societies of the stake.

APOLLO HALL
Reno Vance, Mgr.

DANCING

Apollo Hall || February 3rd

Music By Rosell's Orchestra
of Salt Lake City

The Most Popular Music Played

TUESDAY, FEB. 3

Admission
50c, Extra Lady 15c

First Class Dressmaking—Miss Freda Babble will do sewing at home or go out by the day. For any reference inquire of Mrs. John W. Chipman.

Dr. J. J. Buswell, Ophthalmic Specialist, will be at the Grant Hotel, Tuesday, Feb. 3, 1914. No charge for testing eyes. References: Miss Mary Ann Chipman, Mrs. Willard Chipman, Mrs. James Clark and many others. 31-1t

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hickman were at Provo a few days this week visiting relatives and friends.

It is reported that the Relief societies of the stake are responding very heartily to the request of the stake presidency and building committee, and they expect to buy all electrical fixtures for the Alpine Stake Tabernacle. This will certainly be a credit to the Relief societies of the stake.

ORIENT THEATRE

AMERICAN FORK CLIFTON PEIRCE, Manager.
A Picture Show of Quality.

NEXT WEEK'S FEATURES

"WHAT HAPPENED TO MARY."

The last two pictures of the series ends the story of "What Happened to Mary."
TUESDAY, FEB. 3 "A RACE TO NEW YORK." 11th Mary Picture.
THURSDAY, FEB. 5 "FORTUNE SMILES." 12th Mary Picture.

SOMETHING NEW
MONDAY NIGHT, FEBRUARY 2

"IN THE WILDS OF AFRICA."

Parts 1 and 2.
From the Herald-Republican, Salt Lake City, January 28:
KILLED BY LION WHEN TAKING WILD ANIMAL PICTURES IN AFRICA

Nairobi, British East African Protectorate, Jan. 27.—An encounter with a lion caused the death here today of Fritz Schindler, a member of an American moving picture expedition, engaged in taking pictures of wild animals in their natural surroundings in Africa.
NOTE.—No expense is spared and many risks are run in the making of rare wild animal pictures, one of which will be shown on the above date. We have booked this feature from the Universal Exchange under heavy expense and will no doubt be played to capacity house, as do all the Orient specials.

TONIGHT, SATURDAY, JANUARY 31.

"THE CURSE OF THE GOLDEN LAND."

Parts 1 and 2.
A Russian leaves to seek wealth in America. The story deals with the outcome, which by the way ends happily.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6.

"THE PRINCE OF EVIL."

Parts 1 and 2.
A Powerful Vitagraph Drama.

OPERA HOUSE

AMERICAN FORK, UTAH. L. S. HARRINGTON, Mgr.

THE HOUSE WHERE YOU GET YOUR FULL MONEY'S WORTH

We have a splendid program for the coming week, as will be seen by the following:

MONDAY NIGHT, FEBRUARY 2

"BEAUTY UNADORNED."

(Comedy)—Parts 1 and 2.

"THE DOCTOR'S DUTY."

(Drama)

"JUST CISSY'S LITTLE WAY."

(Drama)

SOMETHING SPECIAL

TUESDAY NIGHT, FEBRUARY 3

1913 WAR BONNET ROUNDUP

(Four Reels)

A glimpse of the West "as it was."

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY NIGHTS, FEBRUARY 4 and 5

"THE RUNAWAY FREIGHT."

(Drama)—Parts 1 and 2

"A LESSON IN JEALOUSY."

(Comedy)

"TWICE RESCUED."

(Drama)

FRIDAY and SATURDAY NIGHTS, FEBRUARY 6 and 7

"DEAR OLD GIRL."

(Drama)—Parts 1 and 2

"NORA'S BOARDERS."

(Comedy)

"THE SALE OF A HEART."

(Drama)

The place where there is a good show every night. Our aim is to satisfy you all the time, so keep coming and you will not be disappointed.

Spring Sewing---Do It Now

Now is just the time to get that Sewing done so that when the bright sunshiney days come you can get out and enjoy yourself in the open air. We are surely prepared to meet your every want in New Spring Goods.

EMBROIDERIES—You will be surprised at the many beautiful designs we are showing in Embroidered Voiles, Crepes and Swisses in 45-inch flouncings. Beautiful Corset Cover Embroidery at 10c yd. to 65c yard.

Fine Swiss Flouncing, 27 inch. Beautiful patterns for the baby; 49c yd. to 1.25 yd.

Allovers, Flouncing Edges and Insertions to match—All Prices. Cambrie Embroideries at 5c yd. to 49c yd.

NEW GINGHAMS—Nothing but the best brands carried. 7½c yd. to 10c yd.

NEW CALICOS—Best American prints; light and dark. 5c yd.

NEW PERCALES—Manchester and other good brands. 10c yd. and 12½c yd.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—Just received, a big lot of samples in Gowns, Princess Slips, Corset Covers and Underskirts. While they last they go at ¼ Off Regular rPrice.

AMERICAN FORK CO-OP. INSTITUTION "The People's Store"