A pretty, pathetic story of the Southwest, with Lamar Johnson as the artist and Francie Billington as Anita.

Wednesday Night, March 25th
Destinies Fulfilled—Three-Part American
A mountain romance with a plot and complications that hold to the last. Vivian Rich in the lead.

Thursday, March 26th
The Judgment—Two-Part Domino
Following the great story, "A Tale of Two Cities," or Salem witchcraft days, in which the leading lady is hung as a witch. An excellent offering.

Friday Night, March 27th
For His Master—Two-Part Reliance
Directed by W. Christie Cabanne. A drama that doesn't drag and is pleasingly put on. A rough and rosy minister—A wayward brother—Reconciliation.

Saturday Night, March 28th
Our Mutual Girl—No. 1
The most popular series in photoplay today is Our Mutual Girl. Broadway is clamoring after this series, and every big picture show in the world is recognizing it. See the first of the story, because later you will wish you had.

The above gives you an idea of each day's feature. Other subjects good but too numerous to mention.

COMPLETE CHANGE OF PROGRAM EVERY DAY.
