

LEHI LOCALS

Miss Flossie Dorton was in Salt Lake Wednesday visiting the schools.

Mrs. Nyron Fowler gave birth to a baby girl last Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Wing entertained a number of lady friends at a kensington Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Maud Stephenson of Salt Lake City, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith this week.

Messrs. Fred Wanlass, Millen Kirkham and Floyd Goates spent the first part of the week in Salt Lake.

Leah Goates spent Friday visiting the schools in Salt Lake City, and Miss Ella Galsford the schools of Provo.

The S. S. S. club met at the home of Miss Hazel Goates. Sewing took up most of the time and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Rita Adamson of American Fork, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rucker, this week.

Miss Rita Evans entertained the Mary Jane club at a kensington at her home Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served.

L. G. Wilson, J. T. Gordon and Mrs. J. J. Bohn went to American Fork Tuesday to attend the funeral of David Wells.

Miss Tulla Mollerup and Miss Lettie Herringer of Salt Lake City, were week end guests of the Misses Viola and Vera Gardner.

Mrs. Bernice Goodspeed, who has been spending a month at Price, is home for a visit with her mother, Mrs. R. L. Brown.

E. J. Cotter, O. A. Slade and Leo Hanson have been spending the past week on a deer hunt in the mountains near Lavan. They went in Mr. Slade's auto.

The Mothers' club met at the New West Cottage Thursday afternoon to elect officers. Mrs. Israel Evans was elected president, Mrs. Hazel Summer vice president, Mrs. H. B. Merrihew, Miss Maude Harwood and Mrs. Ione Gilchrist program committee; Mrs. Oscar Holmstead, Mrs. Richard Norman, refreshment committee.

S. I. Goodwin made a business trip to Salt Lake City Thursday.

Junius Banks spent Friday visiting the schools in Provo.

Erastus Russon is spending his time in Provo nowadays, serving on the jury.

Peter Anderson of Salt Lake City, spent a day this week with his relatives in Lehi.

Miss Hazel Summers of the New West school, spent Saturday with her friend, Miss Burnham, in Heber.

Mr. Ira Racker and Miss Marvel Rhodes spent the week end in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Wm. Wing entertained at a kensington Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served.

When a candidate makes too much noise in a campaign he sometimes scares votes away.

Tuesday Mrs. Sarah A. Olmstead fell on a side walk in Salt Lake City and broke her arm. It is mending nicely.

Mrs. Jos. Broadbent entertained at a quilting bee Thursday afternoon, a number of her lady friends were present. Refreshments were served.

Dr. R. J. Evans of Logan, was in Lehi Tuesday on college business and remained over to attend the social given in the evening in honor of his father, A. J. Evans, and his sister, Mrs. Hazel Holmstead.

Mr. James X. Peterson, an inventor of an improved pump and several other appliances, and who formerly lived on a dry farm over Jordan, is now in the State Mental hospital at Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber C. Webb entertained a house full of friends at a party Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Webb's father, Mr. A. J. Evans, who left Thursday for a mission to the Northern States. The evening was spent in parlor games and serving refreshments.

James Hall of Springville, who has been in Lehi many times as a faith healer was last week excommunicated from the church because of commercializing his powers. He denies the charge and hired the Opera House to tell his side of the story to the people.

A. J. Evans, W. E. Trinniman, Elisha Peck and S. K. Jackson spent Monday in Provo on court matters.

Mrs. W. E. Racker spent a part of the week in Salt Lake City, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. A. O'Brien.

Dr. R. E. Steele was in Lehi Monday looking after his local business interests.

Mrs. Ellen Anderson of Sugar City, Idaho, is visiting at the home of Janus Schow.

Miss Alice Holmstead has been spending the past two weeks at home with her parents, while the Payson schools were closed for beet digging.

Ira D. Wines of Salt Lake City, was in Lehi early in the week in banking business.

Manager Fred C. Graham of Salt Lake City, was in Lehi Monday making arrangements for the Lyceum Course, the first number of which will be given next Tuesday evening.

Grim Reaper Claims Two Aged Citizens

John W. Mason Dies Wednesday at 3 o'clock a. m., and Enos Jackson at 10 o'clock p. m.—Both Were Natives of England.

Enos Jackson died at 10 o'clock Wednesday evening, from heart trouble and a complication of troubles. He had been ailing for over a year and for the past two weeks has been confined to his bed. A week ago all his children were sent for.

Mr. Jackson was born in Chester, England, February 27, 1846. He was baptized there in 1853 and with his parents came to American in 1869. He crossed the plains with Captain Murdock's company and walked all the way from Missouri River to Utah. His home since coming to Utah has been in Lehi.

In 1874 he married Miss Ellen Fairington who with eight children still survive him. They are Mrs. Ada Henrickson, Mrs. Martha Thompson, Eugene, Charles, John, James, Ernest and Alvin Jackson, the latter three of whom are at home still unmarried. Two children are dead.

Mr. Jackson was a painter all his life. He was a faithful Latter Day Saint and was noted for his faithfulness and rugged honesty. His brother, Hyrum Jackson, and sister, Mrs. M. A. Holt of Stockton, were present at the funeral which was held in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon.

John W. Mason Dies
John W. Mason died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. J. Kirton, in the Fourth Ward.

Mr. Mason was a native of West Hartlepool, England, where he was born February 18, 1841. He was a great friend of the Mormon Elders and during the ten years acquaintance with them in England, his home was always open to them.

In 1891 he and his wife came to Utah, since which time his home has been in Lehi. His wife died five years ago. In England he spent 31 years caging at one coal mine, and when he left was presented with a purse of gold and a medal for efficient service.

He leaves four children, John, Margaret of Castle Gate, Joseph of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Margaret Missell of Salt Lake City and Mrs. Elizabeth Kirton of Lehi.

The funeral services will be held Sunday.

Adolph Hunger Getting Well

Latest information from Adolph Hunger is that he has taken a decided change for the better and the doctor says that if he keeps on improving like he has in the last 24 hours he may come home in three or four more days.

At the end of the 7th day he opened his eyes and pointed at the window, the nurses white cap and other distinct objects.

October 8th, he uttered a few words. The 9th, he could talk good.

The 10th, 11th and 12th he was quite rational.

The 13th, he was delirious. The 14th, he knew his mother, but refused to acknowledge his father.

The 15th day he knew his father and all friends who called. He also was able to distinguish objects with the eye the doctors said he never could use.

While his mind is not yet strong, his progress both mentally and physically is so gradual and pronounced that his people now have high hopes for his complete recovery.

D. R. Society Election

Mrs. E. M. Jones entertained the Matilda Evans chapter of the D. R. Society at her home Monday evening. It was annual election and the following were elected: Mrs. R. M. Jones, Regent; Mrs. Lulu Bone Vice Regent; Mrs. Charles Ohman, Secretary and Treasurer; Mrs. May Lott, Corresponding Secretary.

The society gave twelve books to the Free Public Library as a donation this week.

Losse-Durrant Wedding

Saturday night Miss Mary Losse, Edith Solberg, Emily Carr and Miri Bateman gave a shower in honor of Miss Grace Losse who was married this week to Clyde Durrant of American Fork. The young people will live in American Fork.

A. R. ANDERSON UNDERGOES SUCCESSFUL OPERATION

Andrew R. Anderson, one of Lehi's leading citizens, was taken to the L. D. S. hospital Tuesday. Wednesday he underwent an operation for rupture and gall stones. The operation, though a most serious one, was highly successful and reports are that he is recovering nicely.

This is Mr. Anderson's second operation for gall stones. This time the gall bladder was removed entirely.

BISHOPRIC ENTERTAIN FOR PRESIDENT A. J. EVANS

Wednesday evening the Second Ward Bishopric entertained at the home of Bishop Gardner in honor of President A. J. Evans, who left the next day for his mission. The house was filled with Mr. Evans' Second Ward friends, President and Mrs. S. L. Chipman also being present. Each guest presented the guest of honor with a white linen handkerchief. Francis Child acted as master of ceremonies. Household games occupied the time, and melons and grapes were served.

REDUCTION IN RATES

Via the Denver & Rio Grand
Effective at once the Denver & Rio Grand will offer the same rates on one way and round trip tickets between Salt Lake, Provo and other Utah county points as are in effect via the Interurban line, and in addition thereto will make reductions from Ogden to Park City and points south of Salt Lake, including Tintic and Thistle, and vice versa. Buy your tickets through and save time. See agent for particulars. 17-3t

ATHENIAN CLUB ENTERTAINS

The Athenian club's meeting Wednesday afternoon was devoted largely to business matters. The chief business transacted was to determine to give a series of socials and dancing parties once a month during the winter. The socials and dances will alternate each month. The first social was given last evening in the Commercial club rooms and was given in honor of Mrs. W. T. Hasler, who has been one of the club's most active members and who will make her home in Provo. Progressive flinch occupied the evening. Mrs. Hasler was the recipient of a beautiful piece of hand painted china as a token of the club's esteem.

GEORGE AUSTIN VISITS LEHI

George Austin came to Lehi Monday for a visit with his brother, Parley. He is very much improved, though yet being under the necessity of using crutches to get around. He has lost over thirty pounds of flesh since his accident about three months ago. In the accident his pelvic bone was broken in five places, his hip bone jammed through the hip socket and several ribs were broken.

For six weeks he had to lie on his back with a weight on his leg, so as to permit the hip socket to knit. He says that by using care he expects to throw away his crutches and be as good a man as ever in a few more months. His many Lehi friends are pleased to note his recovery.

WHERE TO PAY TAXES

E. J. Child will accept county taxes at the Tithing office till November 14th, when he will spend two days at the Bank of Lehi. 17-2t

Young Ladies Entertain Young Men

The Fourth Ward Mutual girls gave a complimentary picnic and ball in the ward house Tuesday evening in honor of the Young Mens commencement the season's work. Tickets were free to the young men. The affair was a decided success in every respect.

Opening High School Party

The Lehi High School will give its opening party for the season next Friday night in the Smuin's Dancing Academy. The High School gained a reputation last year for giving the most successful parties of the season. Their reputation will be maintained this year with Roy Gardner at the head of the student body.

BIG WRESTLING MATCH

At Best Show House in the County

Chas. Renthrop, Middle-Weight Champion of Europe, who will meet the Great Apollo in a finish bout.

The Man Whom Yokel doesn't Care to Meet.

Open to meet any man in the world at 158 pounds ringside for $500 or $1,000 aside.

LEHI

OCTOBER 22

8:15 P. M.

Good Preliminaries

AT

NEW ROYAL THEATRE

THE GREAT APOLLO

Middle Weight Champion of Russia, Japan and Austria, who will meet Chas. Renthrop in a finish bout.

Age 28, height 5 feet 6-1-2 inches, weight 158. Will match bout with any one in my class for $1,000 aside.

Republic

The Wilson...
Governor Wm. S...
wood, and Fam...
Ti. Appear at...
Next Monday...
Arrangements h...
big Republican