LET'S EVERYBODY GET BUSY

All over town (and American Fork is no exception to the average Utah city) the streets and sidewalks are lined with weeds. In some places the cement pavement is so completely covered with cockleburrs that pedestrians have to travel single file, and one dare not even then carry a pail of milk by his side, but must hold it out in front.

If every property owner would use a scythe for fifteen minutes, these weeds could be made to disappear. One citizen suggested that it would be well to have the Mayor publish the city ordinance bearing on the case and then have the marshal enforce it.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring, if your nerves are excited, if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

The Bo's'n's Bride

This pleasing opera, composed by Maude Elizabeth Inch and W. Rhys-Herbert, and published by Messrs. J. Fisher and Brother, New York, will be presented in the near future by local talent under the able direction of Ernest Paxman, one of American Fork's talented young musicians.

Rehearsals are now in full swing; the staging is being perfected and everything is shaping up nicely for a creditable public performance.

"The Bo's'n's Bride," or "All Aboard the Barnacle" is an exquisitely charming meloe of comedy, light, catchy choruses, sappy dances, and frolicking fun of jolly sailors and "proper" haughty school girls—all this the expense of one serious, sentimental, melancholy, Dick Rene.

The cast is as follows: Dick Rene, Boatwain of the U. S. S. Barnacle—Thomas Martin. Tom Tupper, the Bo's'n's Mate—Thos. Friday.

Sam Slippery, Coxswain of the Captain's Gig—Clarence Grant. Kitty Adair, Popular members of High School Alumni Association—Elva Chipman.

Barbata, attending High School—Ruby Wootton. Chorus, sailors, high school girls and friends. Accompanist—Ida Smith. Director—Ernest Paxman.

The undertaking is a community movement to which much time is being given by some of the best talent the community affords.

Watch for complete personnel of chorus and the exact date of presentation.

BIG BURGLAR(?) CAUGHT

The middle of the week, acting Marshal Duncan was summoned in haste to catch a burglar, whom he was told had stolen a purse containing $14.00 from a trunk, leaving in the trunk a number of valuable articles that were in plain sight. Such peculiar oversight on the part of the burglar puzzled the Marshal sadly; and the day passed without finding anyone upon whom suspicion could fall.

It later developed that the four-year-old son of the family, while the mother was visiting a neighbor, had taken the trunk key from its hiding place, opened the trunk in search of candy which was sometimes kept there, and finding none had taken the purse and hidden it between the mattresses on the bed.
