S. I. Goodwin made a business trip to Salt Lake Wednesday.
 Miss Kotsch, English teacher in the local high school, was out several days this week because of illness.
 A good and lasting Xmas gift to an absent friend is the Banner. You are remembered 52 times during the year.
 Miss Alice Royle was hostess at a Kensington given Thursday afternoon to about twenty lady friends.
 Mrs. B. F. Criech of Salt Lake has been a guest of Mrs. John Woods for the past week.
 You can buy at Chipman's for Xmas 2 lbs. of the best sugar and nut candies for 25c. Creams and coconut candies, 2 lbs. for 35c.
 Miss Alta Grant entertained the G. Q. club at its weekly Kensington Thursday evening.
 Courtney Featherstone and Ad Rockwell left early in the week to work at the Wendover salt beds.
 Miss Myrtle Stewart taught the Segge Lilly school Tuesday and Wednesday, while Miss Robinson was in Salt Lake.
 Thomas Sutherland and H. C. Comer were interurban passengers to Provo Wednesday.
 The relief societies of the four wards of Lehi held a joint meeting in the First ward society's room Tuesday afternoon.
 Prof. A. E. Robinson's mother, who has been visiting here from Price, returned home Sunday.
 At Chipman's main store, upstairs you can buy any suit or coat at one-half price--$20.00 for $10.00, $15.00 for $7.50, $10.00 for $5.00. You will buy them cheaper than we did.
 Miss Ruth Robinson entertained a number of young people at a house social Sunday night.
 When you want toys see what you can do at Racker's.
 H. C. Comer has had a force of men the past week cleaning out his ponds preparatory to harvesting the usual winter's supply of ice.
 John Stewart was an interurban passenger to West Jordan Monday.
 Sid Gilchrist this week purchased fifteen acres of the sugar company farm on Bull river, and F. Fredrickson purchased twelve acres.
 Sheriff East and District Attorney McDonald were in Cedar Fort Monday looking after a case of a young man who had wronged one young lady and then eloped with another. His first indiscretion will cost him $100 annually for eighteen years.
 Owing to the great demand for Christmas photos at the reduced price Joy's Studio will be open two days next week, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 13th and 14th. Don't miss this opportunity.
 The First ward M. I. A. was given a pleasant surprise party, after their regular program Tuesday evening, in the nature of a dancing party in their amusement hall. It was complimentary by the ward officers.
 The local postoffice received an order from the postoffice department, Tuesday, permitting the use of either the auto or other conveyances, as circumstances require, by the contractors in making the mail trip from Lehi to Topliff.
 Eleven hundred Lehi school children will be made happy by the announcement that they will be given a two weeks' holiday vacation commencing December 18. This is done that the teachers may attend U. E. A convention in Salt Lake City.

Leo Goates was a business visitor to Salt Lake Monday.
 T. R. Cutler, general manager of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company, spent Saturday at Lehi.
 Miss Doretta Turner left Sunday for Bingham, where she will spend a month.
 S. I. Goodwin spent Tuesday in Provo helping to frame the jury list for 1916.
 J. T. Thorup of Salt Lake City spent the early part of the week visiting his son, Dr. J. M. Thorup.
 Isaac Fox, who had a bad case of the gripe, developing later to rheumatism, is improving.
 When you want toys see what you can do at Racker's.
 A fine blue-pound girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bateman spent the week end with friends in Salt Lake City.
 I have never seen such a nice line of Toys and Xmas goods as I have seen at Chipman's. They are simply beautiful.
 Rev. Ludwig Thomsen of Provo preached at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon.
 James T. Worlton came down with the Salt Lake school teachers Saturday and spent the day visiting Lehi relatives.
 Joseph Holden and Elam Foutz will this week ship a carload of mules to the Missouri River market. They are largely intended for the southern cotton plantations.
 Less Zimmerman was an interurban passenger to Salt Lake Wednesday.
 Andrew Jensen, church historian, was the speaker at the First ward parents' class Sunday, also at the conjoint M. I. A. meeting in the tabernacle in the evening.
 J. M. Holmes returned Monday from Salem, where he spent a month. He only intended visiting for a few days but Mrs. Holmes took sick while there, which necessitated prolonging the visit.
 Mrs. Mary Mandley came from Salt Lake to spend Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Anderson.
 Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Peterson will leave this month for Snowflake, Ariz., where they will purchase a farm and make their home. His brother Joseph, is principal of the Snowflake academy.
 Judge Lewis of the juvenile court and B. F. Roper, probation officer, spent Monday in Lehi looking after some juvenile cases. They will return on some unfinished business in two weeks.
 The First ward Sunday school officers and teachers gave a social in the Commercial club rooms Thursday evening, spending the time in games and serving refreshments.
 Suel Zimmerman went to Simpson Springs last week with a bunch of rams for the E. A. Bushman herd. He reports that Keith & Kearns are preparing to ship several carloads of ore from their mine at Indian Springs.
 George G. Robinson was a business visitor to Salt Lake Monday. In the latter part of the week he was in Fairfield, where he purchased two cars of turkey red wheat at 95 cents per bushel f. o. b. Lehi. This wheat has little or no yellowberry in it.
 Nate Rockhill shipped two carloads of baled hay from Lehi to one of the grading camps south of Spanish Fork this week. Herman Snow, who owns a dry farm in Cedar Valley, is hauling 100 tons on Mr. Rockhill's farm over at Jordan.

Lumber is Advancing Every Few Days

We want to sell all the lumber we can the next twenty days. For several reasons we want to reduce our stock for inventory. We need money and expect to sell that part of our business after the first of the year, so if you intend to build you will buy cheaper from us now than you will be able to for some time to come. We will have four cars of coal this week, so we will be able to supply your wants this year. Come and see what Henry will do for you.

 Gilbert Mitchell and Fred Kemp spent the early part of the week in Salt Lake.
 James Comer last week plowed up 100 acres on the Comer farm over Jordan, using an engine and six plows. The 100 acres was plowed from 10 to

OTHER PEOPLE ARE SAVING

The number of savings accounts with this Bank is an evidence that the people are saving money. How is it with you—are you saving a part of your income? You can do as well as others, and then you will have money in the bank for any emergency that may come. Adopt a plan for saving a definite amount each month or every week. It is in this way that money is accumulated.

ers were W. S. Evans, S. W. Ross and John Wing. The choir gave several numbers and Miss Fern Gough sang a solo.
THE BROKEN COIN, which has proved such an attractive feature at The Lehi for the past fifteen weeks, will be continued for seven more weeks, when the mystery will be solved. It has been one of the most absorbingly interesting serials ever produced and Manager Monehan is authority for the statement that the next seven reels will be doubly interesting.
 By the way, if you are not attending the pictures at the New Lehi you are missing some of the best pictures ever shown in this city.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR JOSEPH SLATER
 The Third ward meeting house was filled Friday evening with sympathizing friends at the funeral services for Joseph H. Slater, whose death was chronicled in our last issue. Bishop Henry Lewis presided and was also one of the speakers. The other speak-
